Beyond Objectivism And Relativism Science Hermeneutics And Praxis:

Beyond Objectivism and Relativism Richard J. Bernstein, 2011-09-16 Drawing freely and expertly from Continental and analytic traditions Richard Bernstein examines a number of debates and controversies exemplified in the works of Gadamer Habermas Rorty and Arendt He argues that a new conversation is emerging about human rationality a new understanding that emphasizes its practical character and has important ramifications both for thought and action Real Knowing Linda Alcoff, 1996 Real knowing always involves a political dimension Linda Martin Alcoff suggests But this does not mean we need to give up realism or the possibility of truth Recent work in continental philosophy insists on the influence that power and desire exert on knowing whereas contemporary analytic philosophy largely ignores these political concerns in its accounts of justification and truth Alcoff engages these traditionally conflicting approaches in a constructive dialogue effectively spanning the analytic continental divide In provocative readings of major figures in the continental tradition Alcoff shows that the work of Hans Georg Gadamer and Michel Foucault can help rectify key problems in coherence epistemology such as the link between coherence and truth She also argues that discussions about knowledge among continental philosophers can benefit from the work of analytic philosophers Donald Davidson and Hilary Putnam on meaning and ontology Alcoff makes a compelling case for the need to address truth as a metaphysical issue in contrast to minimalist tendencies in Anglo American philosophy and deconstructionism on the continent Her work persuasively argues for coherentist epistemology as a more realistic reconfiguration of the ontology of truth Special Educational Needs and Inclusive Education: Inclusive education David R. Mitchell, 2004 Demonstrates how the fields of special education and inclusive education have evolved philosophically and technically over the past 30 years Hermeneutics, Citizenship, and the Public Sphere Roberto Alejandro, 1993-01-01 Alejandro offers a theoretical reflection on citizenship as a political category that could make possible a collective identity defined by the citizens interpretations of traditions and their participation in the public sphere as well as their construction of a hermeneutic historical consciousness This reflection seeks to pave the way for a vision of citizenship as a space of fluid boundaries within which there is room for diverse and even conflicting understandings of individuality community and public identity Paper edition unseen 17 95 Annotation c by Book News Inc Portland Or The New Constellation Richard J. Bernstein, 2013-05-08 In this major new work Bernstein explores the ethical and political dimensions of the modernity post modernity debate Bernstein argues that modernity post modernity should be understood as a kind of mood one which is amorphous shifting and protean but which exerts a powerful influence on our current thinking Focusing on thinkers such as Heidegger Derrida Foucault Habermas and Rorty Bernstein probes the strengths and weaknesses of their work and shows how they have contributed to the formation of a new mood a new and distinctive constellation of ideas This new constellation has put ethical and political issues back on the philosophical agenda forcing us to confront anew the Socratic question How should I live Curriculum Studies: Curriculum knowledge David
