Stand Still Like The Hummingbird:

Stand Still Like the Hummingbird Henry Miller, 1962 One of Henry Miller's most luminous statements of his personal philosophy of life Stand Still Like the Hummingbird provides a symbolic title for this collection of stories and essays Many of them have appeared only in foreign magazines while others were printed in small limited editions which have gone out of print Miller's genius for comedy is at its best in Money and How It Gets That Way a tongue in cheek parody of economics provoked by a postcard from Ezra Pound which asked if he ever thought about money His deep concern for the role of the artist in society appears in An Open Letter to All and Sundry and in The Angel is My Watermark he writes of his own passionate love affair with painting The Immorality of Morality is an eloquent discussion of censorship Some of the stories such as First Love are autobiographical and there are portraits of friends such as Patchen Man of Anger and Light and essays on other writers such as Walt Whitman Thoreau Sherwood Anderson and Ionesco Taken together these highly readable pieces reflect the incredible vitality and variety of interests of the writer who extended the frontiers of modern literature with Tropic of Cancer and other great books This Is Another Day Deborah A. Lee, 2023-04-19 This Is Another Day is a collection of daily meditations crafted to be a companion on your spiritual journey Written from the heart these devotional reflections invite us into God's word in order for us to speak a shared language of love inspiration sustenance and even challenge as we journey together into unknown seasons Buoyed by the overwhelming grace of Christ we are called by Jesus whose resurrection transcends death and fear to keep our hearts and minds set on hope love mercy justice thanksgiving and Underlined While Reading-1 Sezai ARLI, I was born in December 1954 or January 1955 when the first reconciliation snow fell as the third child of a Kurdish family living in a remote village of Eastern Turkey My father died of tuberculosis at the age of 31 when I was six years old My mother was 34 never married again dedicated her life to her children From the moment I learned how to read and write I became a passionate reader of the books books on literature books on history books on travel books on philosophy books on memoirs books on biographies books on politics This book contains some of the literary excerpts that I noted while reading novels short stories memoirs biographies poetry and travel books These are excerpts of wisdom excerpts of knowledge excerpts of love excerpts of humanity excerpts of beauty excerpts of art excerpts of our strength excerpts of our weakness as human beings Sezai Arli Doha September 2020 Into the Heart of Life Henry Miller, 2014-08-30 In celebration of the centennial of his birth Into the Heart of Life Henry Miller at One Hundred gathers a captivating selection of writings from ten of his books. The delights of his prose are many not the least of which is Miller's comic irony which as The London Times noted can be as stringent and urgent as Swift's Frederick Turner has organized the whole to highlight the autobiographical chronology of Miller's life and along the way places the author squarely where he belongs in the great tradition of American radical individualism as a child of Emerson Thoreau and Whitman Miller who joyously declared I am interested like God only in the individual would have been pleased The keynotes here are self liberation and the pleasures of Miller's knotty cross grained genius as Turner describes it defying classification ultimately unamenable to any vision any program not his own Or as Henry Miller himself put it I am the hero and the book is myself I'll Be Your Mirror David Lazar,2017-01-01 In his third book of essays David Lazar blends personal meditations on sex and death with considerations of popular music and coping with anxiety through singing bowling and other distractions. He sets his work apart as both in the essay and of the essay by throwing himself into the form's past interviewing or speaking to past masters and turning over rocks to find lost gems of the essay form I ll Be Your Mirror further expands the dimensions of contemporary nonfiction writing by concluding with a series of aphorisms Surreal comical and urban moments of being they are part Cioran part Kafka and part Lenny Bruce These are accompanied by Heather Frise's illustrations whose looking glass visions of motherhood funny and grotesque meet the vision of the aphorist in this most unusual nonfiction book
