Between Black And Sunshine:

BLACK SUN - the Mythological Background of National Socialism Ian Tinny, Thurston Howell III, American Psychopath Association, Rex Curry, BLACK SUN sheds new light on the sources of Nazi ideology by examining its occult roots in the world of myths symbols and fantasies It traces this development from the writings of various mystics in the early 20th century who propagated the mythology of a superior global ideology whose heroes would fight the forces of moral decadence and greed The book uses rare archival photographs and sources to chronicle how the Nazis used these mythological foundations to develop Nazism as a political religion While BLACK SUN documents the nationalist mystical beliefs that infused National Socialism the book also reveals the disturbing perpetuation of these beliefs among certain political groups today in Germany and worldwide reflecting an ongoing search for salvation inspiration and messianic leaders This eye popping expose juxtaposes the polarization in German national history between an obsession with capturing light in all its symbolic uses in order to battle the darkness of the Others The final lesson that Black Sun implies and what makes it a provocative and interesting book for a number of audiences whether scholars and students of history or iconography is the danger of not knowing one's own history In this sense the title signals not only the recurrent theme of evil throughout history but also the need to shed light upon all its manifestations

Beneath the Black Sun of Cabinda Virginie Mouanda Kibinde, 2015-11-30 The story opens at a time when Cabinda a small African enclave surrounded by the Congo and the Democratic Republic of the Congo and separated from Angola by the Congo River is plunged into bloody war Deep in the heart of Cabinda is the Mayombe rainforest home to a group of guerrilla fighters whose very existence is to liberate their land from the terrors perpetrated by the Angolan army Against that backdrop of massacres and deforestation and written with crusading fervour this novel is much more than a political tract It is a powerful story of impossible love the poignant love of the principled young doctor Albino for the country lass Maria the redemptory love which his ailing ruthless grandfather Santos is surprised to feel as death approaches and the love of a dispossessed people for the land of their birth Recommended reading then for lovers of African literature as well as for scholars and adepts of colonial and postcolonial literature

The Black Sun Stanton Marlan, 2008-05-08 Also available in an open access full text edition at <http://oaktrust.library.tamu.edu/handle/1969.1/86080> The black sun an ages old image of the darkness in individual lives and in life itself has not been treated hospitably in the modern world Modern psychology has seen darkness primarily as a negative force something to move through and beyond but it actually has an intrinsic importance to the human psyche In this book Jungian analyst Stanton Marlan reexamines the paradoxical image of the black sun and the meaning of darkness in Western culture In the image of the black sun Marlan finds the hint of a darkness that shines He draws upon his clinical experiences and on a wide range of literature and art including Goethe's Faust Dante's Inferno the black art of Rothko and Reinhardt to explore the influence of light and shadow on the fundamental structures of modern thought as well as the contemporary practice of analysis He shows that the black sun accompanies not only the most negative of psychic experiences but also the most sublime resonating with the mystical experience of negative theology the Kabbalah the Buddhist notions of the void and the black light of the Sufi Mystics An important contribution to the understanding of alchemical psychology this book draws on a postmodern sensibility to develop an original understanding of the black sun It offers insight into modernity the act of imagination and the work of analysis in understanding depression trauma and transformation of the soul Marlan s original reflections help us to explore the unknown darkness conventionally called the Self The image of Kali appearing in the color insert following page 44 is Maitreya Bowen reproduced with her permission maitreyabowen yahoo com The Land of

Something is deeply wrong with the field of physics and how it informs our understanding of the natural world Despite years of effort the theories of Einstein cannot be reconciled with our current approach to the strange effects we measure at the quantum level No law of physics can stand alone and yet the field is splintered into competing theories and disparate observations that work against attempts to unify science in a single theory of everything Using the fundamental nature of gravity quantum fluctuations and energy Not Just Another Theory reimagines the interaction between all aspects of the physical universe to push towards a unified theory of everything free of the assumptions and gaps currently found in the scientific establishment Far from rehashing old information this complete theory of nature starts from the beginning by re establishing what we know and how we know it to move past contradictory approaches and incompatible theories It casts the whole universe in a new perspective from the massive movements of galaxies to the tiny fluctuations of quantum loops Our understanding of nature will never be the same In the Land of the Lion and Sun; Or, Modern Persia Charles James

America Portrait of the Psychiatrist as a Young Man Allan Beveridge, 2011-08-25 RD Laing remains one of the most famous psychiatrists of the last 50 years. In the 1960s he enjoyed enormous popularity and received much publicity for his controversial views challenging the psychiatric orthodoxy. He championed the rights of the patient and challenged the often inhumane methods of treating the mentally ill. Based on a wealth of previously unexamined archives relating to his private papers and clinical notes, Portrait of the Psychiatrist as a Young Man sheds new light on RD Laing and in particular his early formative years, a crucial but largely overlooked period in his life. The first half of the book considers Laing's intellectual journey through the world of ideas and his development as a psychiatric theorist. An analysis of his notebooks and personal library reveals Laing's engagement not only with psychiatric theory but also with a wide range of other disciplines such as philosophy, literature, and religion. This part of the book considers how this shaped Laing's writing about madness and his evolution as a clinician. The second half draws on a rich and completely unexplored collection of Laing's clinical notes which detail his encounters with patients in his early years as a psychiatrist, firstly in the British Army, subsequently in the psychiatric hospitals of Glasgow, and finally in the Tavistock Clinic in London. These notes reveal what Laing was actually doing in clinical practice and how theory interacted with therapy. The majority of patients who were to appear in Laing's first two books, The Divided Self and The Self and Others, have been identified from these records, and this volume provides a fascinating account of how the published case histories compare to the original notes. There is a considerable mythology surrounding Laing, partly created by himself and partly by subsequent commentators. By a careful examination of primary sources, Allan Beveridge, both a psychiatrist and an historian, examines the many mythological narratives about Laing and provides a critical but not unsympathetic account of this colourful and contradictory thinker who addressed questions about the nature of madness which are still being asked today. This book will be of interest to mental health workers and social historians alike, as well as anybody interested in the philosophy of psychiatry.
