Divided Power Emily

Grafton, 2025-10-06T00:00:00Z Reconciliation as set out by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission is a process of understanding the Canadian state s genocide against Indigenous Peoples and creating a new relationship between Indigenous Peoples and settlers based on mutual respect and dignity Given the racism and paternalism embedded in the Canadian state and related institutions building such a relationship is a monumental task but in addition there is a major structural roadblock in the way federalism the political system that organizes Canadian governance Divided Power argues that Canada s system of federalism rooted in settler colonialism has dispossessed Indigenous Peoples for settler benefit Far from being a neutral balanced way to distribute responsibilities and powers the division between the state and provinces and territories obstructs Indigenous Peoples agency and governance Under such coercive political exclusion how can truth and reconciliation be fully achieved Emily Grafton meticulously traces the ways that federalism limits the potential for reconciliation and proposes alternative power sharing models Guiding readers through the terrain of debate Grafton deftly and accessibly merges a political analysis of federalism with a clear assessment of settler colonialism to argue that reconciliation will be incomplete for as long as the current division of powers persists Divided Power points to a promising approach to holding the Canadian state responsible for integrating the principles of truth and reconciliation into its very foundation The End of This World Angele Alook,Emily Eaton,David Gray-Donald,Joël Laforest,Crystal Lameman,Bronwen Tucker,2023-01-17 The climate crisis is here and the end of this world a world built on land theft resource extraction and colonial genocide is on the horizon In this compelling roadmap to a livable future Indigenous sovereignty and climate justice go hand in hand Drawing on their work in Indigenous activism the labour movement youth climate campaigns community engaged scholarship and independent journalism the six authors challenge toothless proposals and false solutions to show that a just transition from fossil fuels cannot succeed without the dismantling of settler capitalism in Canada Together they envision a near future where oil and gas stay in the ground where a caring economy provides social supports for all where wealth is redistributed from the bloated billionaire class and where stolen land is rightfully reclaimed under the jurisdiction and sovereignty of Indigenous peoples Packed with clear eyed analysis of both short and long term strategies for radical social change The End of This World promises that the next world is within reach and worth fighting for Territories of Inequality Olivier Jacques,Alain Noël,2025-08-15 The rise of income and wealth inequality and the possibilities of redistribution animate contemporary social and political debates but much of the scholarship on the issue is limited to the individual level There is a spatial dimension to the redistribution of income however and in federations this is especially important In Territories of Inequality leading political scientists propose a territorial approach to inequality and redistribution informed by political economy political geography and a comparative analysis of federalism and multilevel governance Chapters explore the relationship between interpersonal and interregional redistribution the role of progressive or regressive governing coalitions and the foundations of individual preferences for or aversions to interregional redistribution They consider different federations and quasi federations and emphasize the unique situation of Indigenous Peoples who navigate a complex relationship with institutions shaped by colonialism Examining how decentralization and federalism influence policy outcomes and public preferences Territories of Inequality provides new ways to approach the question of redistribution The Routledge Companion to Gender and Animals Chloë Taylor,2024-05-31 The Routledge Companion to Gender and Animals is a diverse and intersectional collection which examines human and more than human animal relations as well as the interconnectedness of human and animal oppressions through various lenses Comprising fifty chapters the book explores a range of debates and scholarship within important contemporary topics such as companion animals hunting agriculture and animal activist strategies It also offers timely analyses of zoonotic disease pandemics mass extinction and the climate catastrophe using perspectives including feminist critical race anti colonial critical disability and masculinities studies The Routledge Companion to Gender and Animals is an essential reference for students in gender studies sexuality studies human animal studies cultural studies sociology and environmental studies Radical Food
