Re-Envisioning and Restructuring Blended Learning for Underprivileged Communities Bosch, Chantelle,Laubscher, Dorothy Joy,Kyei-Blankson, Lydia,2021-05-14 Challenges in the educational arena are not new phenomena However with the recent outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic researchers and educators have been made even more aware of the need for a paradigm shift in education Blended learning as opposed to fully online learning or traditional face to face teaching has been well researched and has been found to have the potential to provide better educational solutions in challenging contexts These contexts range from pandemic situations where social distancing is the order of the day to financial and time constraints regarding full time study as well as limited physical capacity at institutions Blended learning solutions are often designed for resourceful institutions and cannot be easily implemented in developing countries and in communities where resources are limited Typical issues like connectivity accessibility lack of suitable devices and affordability need to be taken into consideration and in cognizance of blended learning interventions These challenges are often neglected in blended learning research but are critical discussions to be had Re Envisioning and Restructuring Blended Learning for Underprivileged Communities shares how institutions in the developing world and less privileged communities have re imagined and restructured blended education to enhance teaching and learning for underprivileged communities This book aims to address blended learning solutions across institutional program course and activity levels The chapters will cover a variety of learning environments from rural settings to less developed countries and more and explore the programs and courses designed to improve student success and accessibility in diverse student populations This book is ideally intended for teachers administrators teacher educators practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students who are interested in blended learning opportunities in less privileged settings and to underserved and marginalized populations

The Sociological Perspective Scott G. McNall,1974 The Emerald Handbook of the Sociology of Emotions for a Post-Pandemic World Paul R. Ward,Kristen Foley,2023-04-14 The Emerald Handbook of the Sociology of Emotions for a Post Pandemic World offers a sociological examination of the lived impacts of the COVID 19 pandemic through culture s of emotion offering a refreshing contribution to a new and exciting sub discipline International Handbook of Research on Multicultural Science Education Mary M. Atwater,2022-06-30 This handbook gathers in one volume the major research and scholarship related to multicultural science education that has developed since the field was named and established by Atwater in 1993 Culture is defined in this handbook as an integrated pattern of shared values beliefs languages worldviews behaviors artifacts knowledge and social and political relationships of a group of people in a particular place or time that the people use to understand or make meaning of their world each other and other groups of people and to transmit these to succeeding generations The research studies include both different kinds of qualitative and quantitative studies The chapters in this volume reflect differing ideas about culture and its impact on science learning and teaching in different K 14 contexts and policy issues Research findings about groups that are underrepresented in STEM in the United States and in other countries related to language issues and indigenous knowledge are included in this volume

Understanding Sociological Theory for Educational Practices Tania Ferfolja,Criss Jones Diaz,Jacqueline Ullman,2018-06-04 Understanding Sociological Theory for Educational Practices introduces readers to the contemporary classroom through the lens of sociological theory By compelling readers to think critically and reflexively this book helps future teachers create a welcoming and equitable learning environment for all students This edition has been updated to include the latest research and resources including links to the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers APST to help readers connect the theory with their practice Learning is supported through pedagogical features including key terms case studies end of chapter reflection questions and recommended resources A new companion website features a curated suite of reading materials extension questions and links to online resources Understanding Sociological Theory for Educational Practices is an essential resource that enables teachers to confidently navigate the topics of diversity disadvantage discrimination and marginalisation in a range of educational contexts Economic Lives Viviana A. Zelizer,2013-03-24 Revealing the human side of economic life Over the past three decades economic sociology has been revealing how culture shapes economic life even while economic facts affect social relationships This work has transformed the field into a flourishing and increasingly influential discipline No one has played a greater role in this development than Viviana Zelizer one of the world s leading sociologists Economic Lives synthesizes and extends her most important work to date demonstrating the full breadth and range of her field defining contributions in a single volume for the first time Economic Lives shows how shared cultural understandings and interpersonal relations shape everyday economic activities Far from being simple responses to narrow individual incentives and preferences economic actions emerge persist and are transformed by our relations to others Distilling three decades of research the book offers a distinctive vision of economic activity that brings out the hidden meanings and social actions behind the supposedly impersonal worlds of production consumption and asset transfer Economic Lives ranges broadly from life insurance marketing corporate ethics household budgets and migrant remittances to caring labor workplace romance baby markets and payments for sex These examples demonstrate an alternative approach to explaining how we manage economic activity as well as a different way of understanding why conventional economic theory has proved incapable of predicting or responding to recent economic crises Providing an important perspective on the recent past and possible futures of a growing field Economic Lives promises to be widely read and discussed

Classroom Control (RLE Edu L) Martyn Denscombe, 2012-05-04 Survival as a school teacher depends on an ability to achieve classroom control In the years since this book was first published little has changed in this respect Classroom control continues to lie at the heart of competent teaching Teachers know it pupils know it They know it implicitly because they experience it as a normal part of their daily lives in schools But in this book the author stands back from our everyday knowledge about how things work in classrooms to ask what control actually consists of What is it How is it recognized How is it challenged by pupils How is done by teachers How is it negotiated Drawing on extensive ethnographic fieldwork in three large secondary schools in England Martyn Denscombe explores the meaning of classroom control He looks at the influence of teacher training and the role of school organization in establishing expectations about control and then shows how control is played out through the interaction of teachers and pupils in class His analysis travels well across the many contexts in which teaching occurs and provides an illuminating insight into the work of teaching and the nature of classroom life His evidence is drawn from ethnographic fieldwork in three schools in England and secondary sources covering the phenomenon of classroom control in the UK USA and Australia

Catholic Social Learning, Expanded Edition Roger Bergman, 2023-12-20 The award winning and widely read first edition of Catholic Social Learning Educating the Faith That Does Justice published in 2011 described the critical edge of the tradition of justice pedagogy in Catholic higher education at the end of the first decade of the twenty first century But living traditions change in response to new challenges and develop their own resources more fully The most obvious and compelling development in recent years has been the publication in 2015 of Pope Francis landmark encyclical

Laudato Si On Care for Our Common Home the occasion for the new chapter length afterword to this expanded edition of Catholic Social Learning The urgent imperative to defend creation is a major but not the only reason for a new edition Two new chapters on the many forms of shame as a pedagogical issue and on the Book of Job and belief in a just world add spiritual and theological depth to the original assessment of more than a decade ago Those three additions comprise the totally new Part IV The Critical Edge of the Tradition A new preface sets the argument in the context of current controversies over the place of painful emotions in educational settings

Making Sense of Wales Graham A S Day,2002-07-30 Making Sense of Wales gives an account of the main changes that have taken place in Welsh society over the last fifty years as well as analysing the major efforts to interpret those changes By placing work done in Wales in the context of broader developments within sociological approaches over the period Graham Day demonstrates that there is a body of work on Wales worth considering in its own right as a specific contribution to sociology He also shows the relevance of sociological accounts of Wales for understanding contemporary empirical and theoretical concerns in social analysis Beginning with post war analysis which considered Wales in terms of regional planning and policy Day shows how more theoretically informed perspectives have come to the fore in recent years He also examines more contemporary developments such as gender and class transformations the emphasis on the centrality of the Welsh language for conceptions of Wales and Welshness as well as the impact of new forms of governance and questions of social exclusion
