Blood Land A Hard Boiled Murder Mystery:

Cracking the Hard-Boiled Detective Lewis D. Moore, 2015-01-24 The hard boiled private detective is among the most recognizable characters in popular fiction since the 1920s a tough product of a violent world in which police forces are inadequate and people with money can choose private help when facing threatening circumstances Though a relatively recent arrival the hard boiled detective has undergone steady development and assumed diverse forms This critical study analyzes the character of the hard boiled detective from literary antecedents through the early 21st century It follows change in the novels through three main periods the Early roughly 1927 1955 during which the character was defined by such writers as Carroll John Daly Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler the Transitional evident by 1964 in the works of John D MacDonald and Michael Collins and continuing to around 1977 via Joseph Hansen Bill Pronzini and others and the Modern since the late 1970s during which such writers as Loren D Estleman Liza Cody Sara Paretsky Sue Grafton and many others have expanded the genre and the detective character Themes such as violence love and sexuality friendship space and place and work are examined throughout the text Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Guilty But Insane Samantha Walton, 2015 Guilty But Insane offers a timely and challenging discussion of the relationship between popular literature science and what it means to be human by examining how writers of detective fiction during the 1920s to 1940s understood guilt responsibility and the workings of the mind in relation to crime Behind Closed Doors Celestino Jaime Oliveira, 2009-07-28 Behind Closed Doors was written by a candle the old fashion way and then of course typed The original manuscript was burned as to deceive the audience like College The Place for Love it derives its central theme around passion and desire Again the author uses a wide range of style this time from farther back in history Poetry lives again shout it from the roof tops open the door to enlightenment The Gentle Art of Murder Earl F. Bargainnier, 1980 This study of the technique of Agatha Christie s detective fiction sixty seven novels and over one hundred short stories is the first extensive analysis of her accomplishment as a writer Earl F Bargannier demonstrates that Christie thoroughly understood the conventions of her genre and with seemingly inexhaustible ingenuity was able to develop for more than fifty years surprising variations within those conventions The Creeping Shadow Sam Merwin (Jr.), 1952 Forensic Memory Johanne Helbo Bøndergaard, 2017-10-14 This book describes and analyses a particular literary mode that challenges the aesthetics of testimony by approaching the past through detection analysis and archaeological digging How does forensic literature narrate the past in terms of plot language narration and use of visual media This volume examines how forensic literature provides an important corrective to the forensic paradigm and a means of exploring the relationship between visual and material evidence and various forms of testimony This literary engagement with the past is investigated in order to challenge a forensic paradigm that aims to eliminate the problems related to human testimony through scientific objectivity resulting in a fresh and original text in which B ndergaard argues literature s potential to explore the mechanisms of
