Buck's Novels of China and America Rob Hardy, 2021-08-30 This book the first single authored book length study of Buck's fiction for over twenty years shows how Buck's thought developed through the medium of her fiction from her early turbulent years in China to her last lonely days in the United States with chapters examining her loss of faith in Christianity her reflections on Chinese life during and after the breakdown of Old China her voluminous reading her confrontation with the horrors of American racism and sexism after her return to the United States and her final metaphorical search for home as she approached death The book argues that Buck the first American woman to win both the Pulitzer and Nobel prizes for literature was a heroic forerunner of those who while occupying a place in the world never feel fully at home there in Buck's case because her Chinese identity throughout her life struggled with her American For this reason Pearl S Buck's fiction few ideas have been as influencing as utopia which has compellingly shaped the imaginaries that underpin China's historical change. Utopianism contributed to the formation of the Chinese state itself, shaping the thought of key figures of the late Qing and early Republican eras such as Kang Youwei and Sun Yat-sen and outlived the labyrinthine debates of the second half of the twentieth century both under Mao's rule and during the post-socialist era. Even in the current times of dystopian narratives, a period in which utopia seems to be less influential than in the past, its manifestations persistently provide lifelines against fatalism or cynicism. This collection shows how profoundly utopian ideas have nurtured both the thought of crucial figures during these historical times, the new generation of mainland Chinese and Sinophone intellectuals, and the hopes of twenty-first century Hong Kong activists. Wang Leung and Zhang's collection is a timely contribution to utopian studies built on consistent, coherent, boundary-crossing approaches. Interdisciplinary in its very sense, the essays bring intellectual history, literary studies, philosophy, and political theories together in dialogue. Of particular note are the essays that situate Hong Kong in a literary tradition that connects China, Hong Kong, and the beyond. Mingwei Song, Wellesley College, 'Utopia and Utopianism in the Contemporary Chinese Context' is an impressive intellectual undertaking. The essays are highly engaging and offer powerful, multi-faceted approaches to utopianism in contemporary Chinese thought and practice. Stimulating and informative, the book as a whole addresses the dynamic interplay between the utopian and dystopian, thereby inspiring clarity in political thought and action in the present moment.

Harald Szeemann Glenn Phillips, Philipp Kaiser, Doris Chon, Pietro Rigolo, 2018-04-10. Widely regarded as the most influential curator of the second half of the twentieth century, Harald Szeemann (1933-2005) is associated with some of the most important artistic developments of the postwar era. A passionate advocate for avant-garde movements like Conceptualism and Postminimalism, he collaborated with artists such as Joseph Beuys, Bruce Nauman, Richard Serra, and Cy Twombly, developing new ways of presenting art that reflected his sweeping vision of contemporary culture. Szeemann once stated that his goal as an exhibition maker was to create a Museum of Obsessions. This richly illustrated volume is a virtual collection catalogue for that imaginary institution, tracing the evolution of his curatorial method through letters, drawings, personal datebooks, installation plans, artists' books, posters, photographs, and handwritten notes. This book documents all phases of Szeemann's career, from his early stint as director of the Kunsthalle Bern, where he organized the seminal Live in Your Head: When Attitudes Become Form (1969) to documenta 5 (1972) and the intensely personal exhibition he staged in his own apartment using the belongings of his hairdresser grandfather (1974) to his reinvention as a freelance curator who realized projects on wide-ranging themes until his death in 2005. The book contains essays exploring Szeemann's curatorial approach as well as interviews with collaborators. Its more than 350 illustrations include previously unpublished installation photographs and documents as well as archival materials This volume is published to accompany an exhibition on view at the Getty Research Institute at the Getty Center February 6 to May 6 2018 a satellite show will be at the Institute of Contemporary Art in Los Angeles February 4 to April 22 2018 at the Kunsthalle Bern in Bern Switzerland June to September 2018 at the Kunsthalle Düsseldorf in Düsseldorf Germany October 2018 to January 2019 and at the Castello di Rivoli Museo d'Arte Contemporanea Rivoli in Turin Italy February to May 2019
