Blue Moon Drive In Theater:

The Moviegoing Experience, 1968-2001 Richard W. Haines, 2010-06-28 The experience of going to the movies be it a single screen theater twin multiplex or drive in is affected by many different factors that have shifted over the years Just as movies emerged from silent to talking black and white to color there has invariably been change in the way movies are made copied distributed and viewed This change in the moviegoing experience for better or for worse is worth studying This work examines the American moviegoing experience from 1968 to 2001 the way in which movies are made and regulated including the demise of the Production Code and the emergence of the ratings system as well as changes in lighting cinematography and coloring techniques The projection practices of the past and present during and after the presence of the Projectionists Union and the advent of the platter which allowed for automated projection are discussed How home video and cable affected the content of films after the eighties and the history of computerized special effects leading to the development of digital cinema projection are included The work also covers the changing types of venues over the last third of a century and other aspects that affect positively or negatively the entire moviegoing experience Alva Jw Grodt, 2011-09 In the winter of 1967 Jake Grant an ambitious and popular high school senior is looking ahead to college and a bright future As co captain of the basketball team in Martens Ferry Florida it s his goal to lead his school to victory at the state championships After that his plans include a glorious career starting with college ball at Ohio State University Everything is falling into place his future looks bright All that is missing is his dream car Jake can t believe his luck when he finds a 1959 Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe for sale at a price he d be a fool to refuse After a quick test drive he snaps the car up without a second thought Jake quickly learns that sometimes you get what you pay for and then some Along with a V 8 black leather interior brilliant chrome and whitewalls his new baby Alva comes with an undisclosed accessory a resident demon out to destroy the lives of everyone Jake knows and loves But Jake also quickly learns that Alva is as determined as he is and she has more than a few wicked tricks at her disposal Can Jake save himself and everyone he loves from the fury of an ancient spirit ensnared in American iron We All Wrote on the Same Outhouse Walls Larry M. Farrar, 2003 We All Wrote on the Same Outhouse Walls is a warm hearted very humorous book about the many joys and few sorrows of growing up during the 40s and 50s in a small town exiled in the Appalachian foothills The book is about the author s small hometown which The Wall Street Journal described as Intact but decaying pure 19th Century The Journal suggested that the town could be On the scale of Williamsburg but the town folks Don t want to be preserved saved or otherwise bothered by outsiders no matter how good their intentions This priceless narrative tells about first grade in a one room schoolhouse called Possum Hollow a splendid misspent youth and a homespun education which was acquired while working in a country store and hanging out in a poolroom The hilarious description of an endangered time and place is about colorful and unforgettable characters It tells memorable stories and folklore which began with I mind the time and ended somewhat in borderline disbelief but always in laughter It s about nicknames front porches and coon dog field trials after church And it s about the down home wit sayings and opinions that made the personalities and their town so engaging The book also tells what the old timers the orthopedic set would tell you whether asked or not about the 60s movement the break up of the traditional family the present day media and the theory of victimization Their opinions today would be unfashionable to some but refreshingly politically inappropriate to others Not that the author s small hometown was perfect or blameless The good old fashioned behavior by some of getting drunk on Saturday night and going to church on Sunday was alive and well The town has its assortment of saints and sinners But when it came to values and time honored beliefs which now seem out dated back then small towns had them maybe that s what one of John Steinbeck s characters in Mice and Men pointed out when the character commented There s nothing wrong anymore We All Wrote on the Same Outhouse Walls is a must read for all of you who will enjoy a nostalgic visit back to your youth or your small hometown It will bring back happy memories of a better time and make you glad that you were there The book is also a must read for young readers who wonder what it was really like and if they really were the good old days Most of all the book is for those of you who just want a good laugh

Tuesday Night at the Blue Moon Debbie Fuller Thomas,2008-09-01 When Marty Winslow s daughter dies of a devastating genetic disease she discovers the truth her child had been switched at birth Her actual biological daughter was recently orphaned and is being raised by grandparents in a retirement community Marty is awarded custody but Andie refuses to fit into the family adding one more challenge for this grieving single mom that pushes her toward the edge and into the arms of a loving God For Andie being forced to live with strangers is just one more reason not to trust God Her soul is as tattered as the rundown Blue Moon movie drive in the family owns But Tuesday night is Family Night at the Blue Moon and as her hopes grow dim healing comes from an unexpected source the hurting family and nurturing birth mom she fights so hard to resist

Once in a Blue Moon (Large Print 16pt) Eileen Goudge,2011-04 Lindsay and Kerrie Ann are sisters who have known hardship from an early age when their mother was sent to prison and they were separated and sent into foster care Thirty years later Lindsay is still trying to reconnect with her little sister When they are finally reunited neither sister s expectations are met Kerrie Ann feels intimidated by the classy more educated Lindsay while Lindsay is dismayed by Kerrie Ann's streetwise ways. They immediately clash as Lindsay becomes threatened by Kerrie Ann. Simultaneously Kerrie Ann struggles with the prospect of losing both her home and her boyfriend and is thrown into even further turmoil when her daughter's foster parents put in a petition to adopt her. As the two sisters engage in the fiercest battles of their lives they are drawn together despite their differences.

Sunrise Canyon Janet Dailey, 2017-02-28 In Arizona's desert a girl who needs her father a woman who needs forgiveness and a war hero who needs healing form a family. Touching well written Publishers Weekly. Before he left for Afghanistan Jake O'Reilly had everything a beautiful wife a baby on the way a wonderful life. Three years later his wife is dead and he is so haunted by his memories of war that he can't bring himself to go home. But when his wife's grandfather tracks him down and persuades him to come work on his ranch where Jake's daughter is living he agrees even though he is reluctant to expose his little girl to the man he's become. At Flying Cloud Ranch his daughter doesn't even recognize this brooding stranger. But the beauty of the ranch and the immediate connection Jake feels with his wife's cousin Kira slowly begins to heal his wounds. Though he doesn't want any complications he finds himself impossibly drawn to the tough woman who runs a horse therapy program for troubled teens. And as they each begin to imagine a new future they discover that happily ever after is always within reach if only you are willing to open your heart.

Race & Change in Hollywood, Florida Kitty Oliver, 2012-09-18 Since its incorporation in 1915 Broward County has been a community in transition. Once a rustic frontier of palmettos and mangroves then a seasonal tourist community it is now a bustling area of over 1.5 million people. This metropolitan reputation was cemented in a Money magazine article in the late 1990s that touted the town of Hollywood once just a bedroom community sandwiched between Fort Lauderdale and Miami as having an ethnic make up that mirrors what America will look like by the year 2022. That distinction led to an extensive locally supported oral history project in Hollywood. The memories of 42 residents recorded for the county's historical archives span 75 years of racial and ethnic change in Hollywood. These candid accounts come from whites and African Americans, Hispanics of Cuban, Dominican, and Puerto Rican descent, Bahamians and Jamaicans, Haitians, Chinese, and South Americans. Telling stories of the past of segregated beaches, buses, and rest rooms of facing the culture of a new country and of causes over the years that have brought different ethnic groups together, these individuals provide valuable, often poignant insight into race relations in America. And they do so in their own words. Pratt established the largest cotton gin factory in the world, and with it, a town known fittingly as Prattville. Soon, this humble hamlet outside Montgomery became an industrial hub fueling Alabama's antebellum cotton production. Prattville weathered the Civil War and recovered faster than any other Alabama town as Pratt collected on debts owed from his Northern accounts. Since then, Prattville has continued to grow in important ways, gradually shifting from an industrial epicenter to a forward-looking city and a beloved hometown. Through floods, tornadoes, damaging fires, and shifting economic conditions, Prattville and its townspeople endured. Now, authors Marc and Melissa Parker ensure that Prattville's history will also endure by recounting the Fountain City's proud heritage. South Station Alice Barton, 2005 Set in World War II Lowell, Massachusetts, Alice Barton's engrossing first novel portrays time and place as integral to the coming of age of Honey Lee Murphy, caught in the complexities of family relationships that are strained by her religious regional parental and class identifications But these identifications by no means overpower the truly magical individuality of Barton s characterizations Barton manages to compose her characters out of themes derived from a deeply lived experience of Catholicism the overwhelming emotional involvement of first love memories of a much loved father who is a casualty of war and the harsh but devoted ways of a grandmother The mounting suspense crests as Honey Lee works to resolve conflicts that are both inner and outer Barton s delicate handling of tension is both dramatic and insightful I was unable to put South Station down Rosamond Rosenmeier Lines Out Alice James Books I was struck by the importance the human complexity of the moment of history Barton chooses to focus on in her first novel South Station She has a surefooted fictional sense Carefully crafted scenes and memorable characters drive the plot to a powerful climax Fred Marchant Tipping Point and Full Moon Boat Greywolf Press Barton s South Station has a read me plot She creates characters complex in themselves and deftly handles their complicated relationships Barton s assured command of setting and the rare pureness of her prose make South Station a delight Jack Beatty Senior Editor Atlantic Monthly Regular Contributor On Point National Public Radio and author of The Rascal King The Life and Times of James Michael Curley
