Berlin Wall Burton's gift for communicating music turned him into a celebrated Bernstein biographer. With multi award winning television programmes to his name such as the BBC's Young Musician of the Year, Burton left an indelible mark on Britain's music and arts broadcasting history. Sir Humphrey Burton offers us many encounters with twentieth century classical music's superstars and former broadcasting colleagues. What transpires is a creative mind at work that never lost sight of the demand that the appropriate presentation of music can only go hand in hand with a deep understanding of music itself. This long awaited autobiography is a must read for classical musical enthusiasts and those fascinated by some of the twentieth century's star performers. It also offers unique insights into the history of music, the BBC and arts broadcasting in twentieth century Britain.
