Guide to Reprints ,2004 Grass Lark Elizabeth Stevenson,2020-03-12 It is remarkable how persistent a minor writer may be He may lack the large vision and universal message of the great writer but instead possess a clear true intense view of particular places peoples and situations that renders his work unique and irreplaceable Lafcadio Hearn 1850 1904 is such a figure in American literature Best known as a scholar of Japanese culture Hearn was a remarkable journalist translator travel writer and perhaps second only to Poe in the literature of the macabre and supernatural Hearn s life as strange and colorful as his work is brilliantly recounted in Elizabeth Stevenson's sensitive and sympathetic biography. The range of Hearn's writing is reflected in the peripatetic course of his life. The son of an Irish father and a Greek mother, he was born on the Ionian island of Leucadia, was raised in Dublin, and came to America at the age of nineteen. His early career was spent as a journalist. Without a trace of condescension or pity, he entered into the lives of the dock workers of Cincinnati, the Creoles of New Orleans, and Martinique, and later the common villagers of Japan, describing how they lived and worked and what they believed. Elizabeth Stevenson's book is as much about the writer as the man. While giving an accurate measure of the scale of Hearn's achievement, she makes a compelling case for its artistry. Her reading demonstrates that his writings are not mere aids to the understanding of various cultures but ends in themselves. Hearn did not just translate the folklore of other cultures; he recreated it. The Grass Lark will interest literary scholars, American studies specialists, and folklorists. Strange and Secret Peoples Carole G. Silver, 2000-10-12 Teeming with creatures both real and imagined, this encyclopedic study in cultural history illuminates the hidden web of connections between the Victorian fascination with fairies and their lore and the dominant preoccupations of Victorian culture at large. Carole Silver here draws on sources ranging from the anthropological, folkloric, and occult to the legal, historical, and medical. She is the first to anatomize a world peopled by strange beings who have infiltrated both the literary and visual masterpieces and the minor works of the writers and painters of that era. Examining the period of 1798 to 1923, Strange and Secret Peoples focuses not only on such popular literary figures as Charles Dickens and William Butler Yeats but on writers as diverse as Thomas Carlyle, Arthur Conan Doyle, and Charlotte Mew, on artists as varied as mad Richard Dadd, Aubrey Beardsley, and Sir Joseph Noel Paton, and on artifacts ranging from fossil skulls to photographs and vases. Silver demonstrates how beautiful and monstrous creatures, fairies and swan maidens, goblins and dwarfs, cretins and changelings, elementals and pygmies simultaneously peopled the Victorian imagination and inhabited nineteenth-century science and belief. Her book reveals the astonishing complexity and fertility of the Victorian consciousness, its modernity and antiquity, its desire to naturalize the supernatural, its pervasive eroticism fused with sexual anxiety, and its drive for racial and imperial dominion.

Literature     The Life and Letters of Lafcadio Hearn Volume I & II Elizabeth Bisland, 2021-08-30 Excerpt In the course of the preparation of these volumes there was gradually accumulated so great a number of the letters written by Lafcadio Hearn during twenty five years of his life and these letters proved of so interesting a nature that eventually the plan of the whole work was altered The original intention was that they should serve only to illuminate the general text of the biography but as their number and value became more apparent it was evident that to reproduce them in full would make the book both more readable and more illustrative of the character of the man than anything that could possibly be related of him No biographer could have so vividly pictured the modesty and tender heartedness the humour and genius of the man as he has unconsciously revealed these qualities in unstudied communications to his friends Happily in these days when the preservation of letters is a rare thing almost every one to whom he wrote appeared instinctively to treasure even when he was still unknown every one of his communications though here and there regrettable gaps occur owing to the accidents of changes of residence three of which as every one knows are more destructive of such treasures than a fire To all of his correspondents who have so generously contributed their treasured letters I wish to express my sincere thanks Especially is gratitude due to Professor Masanubo Otani of the Shinshu University of Tokyo for the painstaking accuracy and fulness of the information he contributed as to the whole course of Hearn's life in Japan
