Leihs, 1999 In the age of globalism international marketers need to adopt a global perspective if they are to compete successfully International Marketing A Global Perspective starts from the premise that any firm regardless of size can compete globally The challenge for today's manager is to identify and seize the opportunities most appropriate to their company International Marketing A Global Perspective examines the main issues facing companies that want to compete successfully in the global marketplace It combines extensive coverage of the relevant theories with a practical approach to the issues Written in a clear and accessible style it is divided into several sections covering assessing a potential market economically culturally and politically identifying cultural similarities and differences deciding which products to market internationally and how to price and promote them motivating marketing managers to compete globally building and implementing successful marketing strategies from making strategic decisions and choosing market positions and entry methods to developing a marketing plan Using real world case studies and vignettes centred on contemporary problems and issues International Marketing A Global Perspective will be ideal for undergraduates MBA students and students following
