

Space Trips

The bus ride started at 6:15 in the morning. It was cold, dark, and everyone was tired, except for me. I was so excited about the trip, I couldn't possibly be tired. The bus ride was very long and all-together boring. It took us a whole six and a half hours to get there. I colored in a My Little Pony coloring book. Finally we arrived.

When I got into my room it smelled really bad. I put my Toy Story sheets onto my bed and held my nose while waiting for everybody else. Then it was time to go learn about space. When we met our leader I was so excited. His name was Brandon, and he was young, fun, and energetic. He really made everything fun.

The best part about the whole thing was probably being with friends and the awesome simulators. There was the G-force, 5 DF chair, and the MAT, and my favorite, the Space Shot. The G-Force was awesome, but it made me feel pretty sick.

Another thing that made me sick was some of the food at camp. The best food was hamburger helper or chicken fingers. Everything else was chewy, and all the same color.

Above all I had an awesome time at Space camp. I learned a lot and had fun.

Detracking for Excellence and Equity Carol Corbett Burris Corbett Burris, Delia T. Garrity, 2008-08-15 Ability grouping Leveling systems Streaming This is the modern way of talking about tracking the traditional practice of sorting and selecting students based on test scores and other criteria and then steering these groups into the most appropriate course of study In 1987 New York s suburban Rockville Centre School District faced the fact that its longstanding tracking system was resulting in unequal educational opportunities and allowing racial and socioeconomic stratification of its student population School leaders embarked on an ambitious program of reform reexamining beliefs about intelligence ability and instruction and offering all students the opportunity to study a rigorous curriculum in heterogeneous classrooms In this book authors Carol Corbett Burris and Delia T Garrity veterans of the Rockville Centre School District offer an experience based and research supported argument that detracking implemented with planning patience and persistence can do in every school district what it did in theirs raise achievement across the board and dramatically narrow the achievement gap Their main goal is a practical one to provide educational leaders with proven strategies for launching sustaining and monitoring a successful detracking reform

Here you ll read Why detracking is necessary the benefits it brings and how to build support among teachers and parents How to revise curriculum to level up instruction How to establish a multiyear personalized professional development program to help teachers address new instructional needs How to best support effective teaching and learning in a heterogeneous classroom Detracking for Excellence and Equity outlines a comprehensive approach built on self reflection direct action vigilant supervision and a set of very clear beliefs that schools and opportunity matter that acceleration and enrichment will improve all students achievement and that all students deserve access to the best curriculum

From Struggling Students to Successful Writers in 7 Easy Steps Joanna Posey,2009-09 This Volume is the first of 2 volumes that are being released together but under separate covers Volume 1 contains the instructional guide to teach special education students and English language learners to be successful writers in 7 easy steps In view of the increasing educational dropout rate of these special populations this unique simple program offers encouragement hope and success to students who are struggling in developing their writing skills Not only is this program easy to learn and remember but students are able to increase their writing skills in shorter periods of time This Volume contains five no frills bare bones lesson plans along with teacher comments It also includes reproducible Master Guide Sheets and student Self evaluation forms The simplified color coding system is used as a consistent predictable routine in each writing activity This program like no other promotes student self confidence and renewed interest in learning The words I can t write turn into Yes I can However the best kept secret is that these 7 easy steps will help all students Listen to what the kids are saying I had a lot of fun with Steps 1 to 7 They really helped me with my work comments from an 8th grade student The first thing I learned was Steps 1 7 I learned how to write better paragraphs comments from an 8th grade student I learned how to web my ideas using complete sentences comments from an 8th grade student I did really well on my writing assessment because I used the 7 steps comments from a 9th grade student I couldn t write a complete sentence With these steps I can write complete paragraphs and essays for Language Arts and Geography I did well in my writing test too comments from a 9th grade student Listen to what teachers are saying I have been in meetings where parents have commented how effective her writing program has been with helping their kids I ve often heard parents express their gratitude for their child s success due to Ms Posey s teaching comments from a junior high teacher After the 9th graders took the writing assessment several of the students commented on how good they felt about their writing abilities that were a direct result of the efforts of Ms Posey comments from a junior high teacher Her strategies and writing techniques resulted in 50% improvement an impressive increase in the scores of resource students for the 9th grade direct writing assessment This is the highest achievement I ve seen in my 30 years of teaching comments from a secondary special education teacher

Narrative, Literacy and Other Skills Edy Veneziano,Ageliki Nicolopoulou,2019-05-15 In recent years narrative skills have been receiving increasing attention from researchers for their relevance in the development of language literacy and socio cognitive abilities This volume brings together studies focusing on two key issues in the development of children's narrative skills. The first part of the Volume addresses the issue of the interrelatedness between narrative skills and literacy language and socio cognitive development as well as of the impact of narrative practices on the promotion of these different skills. The second part of the Volume addresses the issue of how early interactional experiences particular contextual settings and specific intervention procedures can help children promote their narrative skills. The studies span a wide age range from toddlers to late elementary school children concern different languages Dutch English French German Hebrew and Italian and consider narrative skills and practices from a rich variety of theoretical and methodological approaches

Big-Time Fundraising for Today's Schools Stanley Levenson, 2007. Makes a groundbreaking noteworthy and lasting contribution to the field of public school improvement and reform. From the Foreword by Wendy D. Puriefoy, President, Public Education Network. A must read book that can change how public education works, thrives and ultimately succeeds. Gerard A. Dery, Director, Zone 1 NAESP. Principal, Nessacus Regional Middle School, Dalton, MA. Harness skills and strategies to achieve big time fundraising success. In this enlightening book, nationally recognized author and fundraising consultant Stanley Levenson shows school leaders how to move away from labor intensive nickel and dime bake sales and car washes and into the world of big time fundraising. Following the model used by colleges and universities, Levenson presents a wealth of practical strategies for supporting school finances by pursuing grants and gifts from corporations, foundations, the government and individual donors. A proactive blueprint, this resource focuses on public responsibility in helping America's public schools become world class learning institutions. Fundraisers will learn about the entire fundraising spectrum from corporate foundation and government grants to grants and gifts from individual donors. This valuable package of ready to use tools and strategies includes: Basic steps for starting a public school foundation. Practical techniques for writing winning grant proposals. Examples of winning grant proposals. Tips for overcoming obstacles. Suggestions for establishing a development office. Techniques for obtaining grants and gifts from individual donors. Helpful approaches to annual campaigns, capital campaigns and planned giving. A list of 101 foundations and corporations interested in giving to the public schools.
