and ethnicity sexuality postcoloniality and green politics have converged and sometimes collided with the categories within feminism but analyze many of the most important texts and movements of contemporary cultural theory Offering not so much a unified history as an analysis of important moments within these debates this book examines the work of such feminist theorists as Michèle Barrett Judith Butler Rosalind Coward Donna Haraway bell hooks the m f collective Tania Modleski Jacqueline Rose Gayle Rubin Hortense Spillers and Gayatri Spivak Materialist Feminisms includes new exemplary readings of feminist detective African American and postcolonial fiction three kinds of textures commodity currently fetishized in the literary marketplace What might the success of these kinds of writing signify about politics and desire in contemporary Anglo American culture Demonstrating how the poststructuralist critique of essences and identities need not end in a complete paralysis of political action as has sometimes been claimed Materialist Feminisms argues that feminism socialism and deconstruction are not theoretical dead ends but names for unfinished business
