France Since 1945 ,2010 Contemporary France D. L. Hanley,A. P. Kerr, Miss A P Kerr,N. H. Waites, 2005-08-17 Many recent studies of French politics have tended to concentrate on the French political system in isolation Contemporary France aims to set the working of the French political system into its historical social and economic context The first section gives a succinct description of the main developments since 1944 in all major contexts economy society domestic politics and foreign relations The authors then analyse the economic social and cultural structures of present day France and discuss the institutional framework of decision making and the major political forces involved in it There are also chapters on French external and defence policy and on the education system all of which are set in the context of the political system as a whole Aimed primarily at students of European history and politics or of French society and culture the book assumes little knowledge in the social sciences and will be readily accessible to beginners in this field

Conklin, Sarah Fishman, Robert Zaretsky, 2015 Providing an up to date synthesis of the history of an extraordinary nation one that has been shrouded in myths many of its own making France and Its Empire Since 1870 seeks both to understand these myths and to uncover the complicated and often contradictory realities that underpin them It situates modern French history in transnational and global contexts and also integrates the themes of imperialism and immigration into the traditional narrative Authors Alice L Conklin Sarah Fishman and Robert Zaretsky begin with the premise that while France and the U S are sister republics they also exhibit profound differences that are as compelling as their apparent similarities The authors frame the book around the contested emergence of the French Republic a form of government that finally appears to have a permanent status in France but whose birth pangs were much more protracted than those of the American Republic Presenting a lively and coherent narrative of the major developments in France s tumultuous history since 1870 the authors organize the chapters around the country s many turning points and confrontations They also offer detailed analyses of politics society and culture considering the diverse viewpoints of men and women from every background including the working class and the bourgeoisie immigrants Catholics Jews and Muslims Bretons and Algerians rebellious youth and gays and lesbians

France Since the Liberation Gino Raymond, 2024-02-20 This book focuses on the tension between the modernising thrust that places France on a trajectory of convergence with comparable liberal democracies and the defence of a national specificity that can act as a brake complicating France s relationship with its neighbours its present and its past This ambivalence in French political and social life stems from the conscious attempt to rebuild the nation after the trauma of Occupation during World War II and the new beginning provided by the Liberation The government of the Fourth Republic embraced the pursuit of a modernisation that would enable it to regain its place among the world s leading democratic states However this modernising ambition co exists with the belief in a specific destiny and a unique sense of mission that are intrinsic to the emergence of a sense of nationhood after the revolution of 1789 Raymond defines a critical perspective that draws together historical economic social and political issues into a coherent understanding of what makes France the way it is today Written with both academic rigour and a highly accessible clarity of style this volume is a valuable resource for students educators and researchers in French and European Studies

Célestin, E. affected the well established structures in the Middle East and North Africa MENA but became also a touchstone for the German and French foreign policy A lasting three year transformation process turned out to be an unpredictable factor for the traditional German and French foreign policy principles within a novel geopolitical environment In this respect this study deals with the comparative foreign policy analysis of Germany and France with regard to the transformations in the MENA since 2011 Analysis is done on the basis of constructivist role theory in connection with the Civilian Power concept Major interest of this study is dedicated to the analysis of the foreign policy repertoire and identity of Germany and France towards the transition countries in North Africa A question is to be answered if the challenges provoke continuity or change
