Maps, 1996      Realty and Building, 1995      Social Problems Anna Leon-Guerrero, 2010-09-16 With an engaging writing style that has made it a popular choice at both 2 and 4 year schools the Third Edition of Anna Leon Guerrero s Social Problems textbook clearly presents contemporary social problems and addresses their consequences while emphasizing community involvement by both individuals and groups to achieve real solutions With an overarching focus on social inequalities this proven text provides a platform for discussion that encourages critical thinking through compelling illustrations boxed features learning checks discussion questions and online learning tools all designed to inspire hope rather than simply present a disheartening parade of maladies      The Municipal Year Book, 1976      Consumption, Status, and Sustainability Paul Roscoe, Cindy Isenhour, 2021-08-12 Focuses information from across time and culture on the relationships among status competition consumption and planetary sustainability      Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant, 2003-10 Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage United States Civil Aircraft Register Aeronautical Center (U.S.),1970-07 1970 Census of Housing: Huntsville, Ala ,1971 The Michigan Alumnus ,1967 In v 1 8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual Toxic and Intoxicating Oil Patricia Widener,2021-03-12 When oil and gas exploration was expanding across Aotearoa New Zealand Patricia Widener was there interviewing affected residents and environmental and climate activists and attending community meetings and anti drilling rallies Exploration was occurring on an unprecedented scale when oil disasters dwelled in recent memory socioecological worries were high campaigns for climate action were becoming global and transitioning toward a low carbon society seemed possible Yet unlike other communities who have experienced either an oil spill or hydraulic fracturing or offshore exploration or climate fears or disputes over unresolved Indigenous claims New Zealanders were facing each one almost simultaneously Collectively these grievances created the foundation for an organized civil society to construct and then magnify a comprehensive critical oil narrative in dialogue practice and aspiration Community advocates and socioecological activists mobilized for their health and well being for their neighborhoods and beaches for Planet Earth and Planet Ocean and for terrestrial and aquatic species and ecosystems They rallied against toxic climate altering pollution the extraction of fossil fuels a myriad of historic and contemporary inequities and for local just and sustainable communities ecologies economies and or energy sources In this allied ethnography quotes are used extensively to convey the tenor of some of the country s most passionate and committed people By analyzing the intersections of a social movement and the political economy of oil Widener reveals a nuanced story of oil resistance and promotion at a time when many anti drilling activists believed themselves to be on the front lines of the industry s inevitable decline A Companion to Medical Anthropology Merrill Singer,Pamela I. Erickson,2015-04-20 A Companion to Medical Anthropology examines the current issues controversies and state of the field in medical anthropology today Provides an expert view of the major topics and themes to concern the discipline since its founding in the 1960s Written by leading international scholars in medical anthropology Covers environmental health global health biotechnology syndemics nutrition substance abuse infectious disease and sexuality and reproductive health and other topics Substance of the Ancient Maya Andrew K. Scherer,Thomas G. Garrison,2024-12-01 Substance of the Ancient Maya Kingdoms and Communities Objects and Beings collects twelve essays by top scholars that highlight what is new in research pertaining to the ancient Maya Subjects range from updated political histories of major kingdoms in the southern Maya Lowlands to explorations of the nature of Maya writing and materiality These essays were inspired by the scholarship of Stephen Houston and celebrate his transdisciplinary commitment to research in anthropological archaeology epigraphy and art history The contributions in this volume are organized into two sections that respectively reflect different scales from which to approach the substance of the ancient Maya from hand held objects to entire kingdoms This dichotomy reflects the breadth of questions central to current research on the Maya It also illustrates how certain themes such as the relationship between the living and the realm of the supernatural are fundamental to both thinking by and about the Maya at all scales A diversity of methods is not only embodied by this assemblage of essays but is also spread equally across the two sections of the book illustrating that archaeologists epigraphers geographers and art historians can equally contribute to the substance of kingdoms and communities as they can to objects and beings Collectively these contributions show how the objects and beings that composed the Classic Maya world were both literal and sacred substances that mediated relations not only among living people but with gods and ancestors A final chapter by Stephen Houston reflects on unfinished projects of the ancient Maya as a metaphor for all of the work yet to be done to move forward in our studies of the past

What We See and What We Say Ephrat Huss, 2013-01-04 Image based research methods such as arts based research can fill the absence of the voice of impoverished under privileged populations In What We See and What We Say Ephrat Huss argues that images are deep and universally psycho neurological constructs through which people process their experiences The theoretical model demonstrated in this book demonstrates that images can be used to enable three different levels of communication with self with others similar to oneself and with others who differ in terms of culture and power Dr Huss centers her argument on a case study of impoverished Bedouin women s groups in Israel who used art as self expression and includes many additional examples such as unemployed women and teenage girls in slums women who have underwent sexual abuse and the experiences of illegal immigrants Ultimately the author points to how the inherent structural characteristics of images help to intensify the voices of marginalized groups in research therapy empowerment and social action
