The Penguin Of First World War Stories By Barbara Korte:

The Penguin Book of First World War Stories Barbara Korte, Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2007-10-25 The First World War has had an incalculable effect on literature in the years generations that followed it The stories collected in this volume reflect a wide range of responses to that conflict from harrowing scenes of carnage at the Front espionage behind the scenes to the struggles of those at home

The Short Story and the First World War Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2013-07-31 Covering a range of topics settings and styles the book offers the first comprehensive study of short fiction from the First World War

World War One Short Stories Bob Blaisdell, 2013-09-19 This original anthology features tales written mostly by former soldiers and others with firsthand experience of World War I s devastation Contents include Introduction to the Trenches by Richard Aldington The Blind Ones by Isaak Babel and tales by Ernest Hemingway Ford Madox Ford John Galsworthy Rudyard Kipling Katherine Mansfield and others

Handbook of British Literature and Culture of the First World War Ralf Schneider, Jane Potter, 2021-09-20 The First World War has given rise to a multifaceted cultural production like no other historical event This handbook surveys British literature and film about the war from 1914 until today The continuing interest in World War I highlights the interdependence of war experience the imaginative re creation of that experience in writing and individual as well as collective memory In the first part of the handbook the major genres of war writing and film are addressed including of course poetry and the novel but also the short story furthermore it is shown how our conception of the Great War is broadened when looked at from the perspective of gender studies and post colonial criticism The chapters in the second part present close readings of important contributions to the literary and filmic representation of World War I in Great Britain All in all the contributions demonstrate how the opposing forces of focusing and canon formation on the one hand and broadening and revision of the canon on the other have characterised British literature and culture of the First World War

The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Literary Culture Juliet John, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Literary Culture is a major contribution to the dynamic field of Victorian studies This collection of 37 original chapters by leading international Victorian scholars offers new approaches to familiar themes including science religion and gender and gives space to newer and emerging topics including old age fair play and economics Structured around three broad sections on Ways of Being Identity and Ideology Ways of Understanding Knowledge and Belief and Ways of Communicating Print and Other Cultures the volume is sub divided into nine sub sections each with its own lead essay on subjectivity politics gender and sexuality place and race religion science material and mass culture aesthetics and visual culture and theatrical culture The collection like today s Victorian studies is thoroughly interdisciplinary and yet its substantial Introduction explores a concern which is evident both implicitly and explicitly in the volume s essays that is the nature and status of literary culture and the literary from the Victorian period to the present The diverse and wide ranging essays present original scholarship framed accessibly for a mixed readership of advanced undergraduates graduate students and established scholars

The

Epistolary Renaissance Maria Löschnigg,Rebekka Schuh,2018-09-10 Since the late twentieth century letters in literature have seen a remarkable renaissance The prominence of letters in recent fiction is due in part to the rediscovery by contemporary writers of letters as an effective tool for rendering aspects of historicity liminality marginalization and the expression of subjectivity vis vis an other it is also due however to the artistically challenging inclusion of the new electronic media of communication into fiction While studies of epistolary fiction have so far concentrated on the eighteenth century and on thematic concerns this volume charts the epistolary renaissance in recent literature entering new territory by also focusing on the aesthetic implications of the epistolary mode In particular the essays in this volume illuminate the potential of the epistolary including digital forms for rendering contemporary sensitivities The volume thus offers a comprehensive assessment of letter narratives in contemporary literature Through its focus on the aesthetic and structural aspects of new epistolary fiction the inclusion of various narrative forms and the consideration of both conventional letters and their new digital kindred The Epistolary Renaissance offers novel insight into a multi faceted re new ed genre Humour in British

First World War Literature Emily Anderson,2023-09-11 This book explores how humorous depictions of the Great War worked to familiarise domesticate and tame the conflict While well known examples of First World War literature often emphasize enormous emotional disruption and the war s extremes other writers used humour to encourage a gentle mild amusement drawing on familiar popular genres and forms used before 1914 In humorous portrayals of the war tameness outdoes the unmanageable and the temperate exceeds the extraordinary Humour in British First World War Literature is based on little known primary material uncovered from detailed archival research as well as works that though written by celebrated authors tend not to be placed in the canon of Great War literature Each chapter examines key examples of literary texts ranging from short stories and poetry to theatre and periodicals in doing so investigating the complex representational political and social significance of the tame strand in humorous Great War literature Borders and Border Crossings in the Contemporary British Short Story Barbara Korte,Laura Ma Lojo-Rodríguez,2020-01-02 This book represents a contribution to both border studies and short story studies In today s world there is ample evidence of the return of borders worldwide as material reality as a concept and as a way of thinking This collection of critical essays focuses on the ways in which the contemporary British short story mirrors questions and engages with border issues in national and individual life At the same time the concept of the border as well as neighbouring notions of liminality and intersectionality is used to illuminate the short story s unique aesthetic potential The first section Geopolitics and Grievable Lives includes chapters that address the various ways in which contemporary stories engage with our newly bordered world and borders within contemporary Britain The second section examines how British short stories engage with Ethnicity and Liminal Identities while the third Animal Encounters and Metamorphic Bodies focuses on stories concerned with epistemological borders and borderlands of existence and identity Taken together the chapters in this volume demonstrate the varied and complex ways in which British short stories in the twenty first century engage with the concept of the border The Penguin Classics Book Henry Eliot,2019-02-21 Shortlisted for Waterstones Book of the Year The Penguin Classics Book is a reader s companion to the largest library of classic literature in the world Spanning 4 000 years from the legends of Ancient Mesopotamia to the poetry of the First World War with Greek tragedies Icelandic sagas Japanese epics and much more in between it encompasses 500 authors and 1 200 books bringing these to life with lively descriptions literary connections and beautiful cover designs

Inter- and Transcultural Learning in the Context of Canadian Young Adult Fiction Grit Alter,2015 Within the past few years transcultural learning has become one of the key terms in TEFL theory Central concerns in current research include differentiating between inter and transcultural learning navigating processes of understanding otherness and assessing cultural competences Using these aspects this study investigates texts recommended for cultural learning and key components of implementing literature in ELT The results call for a more holistic perception of alterity and argue in favour of transcultural literature as a basis for transcultural learning All of this dissertation is in English Subjects Literary Criticism Education Series Fremdsprachendidaktik in globaler Perspektive Vol 5 War and the Cultural Construction of Identities in Britain Barbara Korte,Ralf Schneider,2002 Coming for literary film and cultural studies history and art history the contributions in this multidisciplinary volume explore how different cultural communities in the British Isles have envisaged war and its significance for various aspects of identity formation from the Middle Ages through to the 20th century

Hollywood Remembrance and American War Andrew Rayment,Paul Nadasdy,2020-08-31 Hollywood Remembrance and American War addresses the synergy between Hollywood war films and American forms of war remembrance Subjecting the notion that war films ought to be considered the war memorials of today to critical scrutiny the book develops a theoretical understanding of how Hollywood war films as rhetorical sites of remembering and memory reflect replicate and resist American modes of remembrance The authors first develop the framework for and elaborate on the co evolution of Hollywood war cinema and American war memorialization in the historical political and ideological terms of remembrance and the parallel synergic relationship between the aesthetic and industrial status of Hollywood war cinema and the remembering of American war on film The chapters then move to analysis of Hollywood war films covering The Great War World War II The Korean War The Vietnam War The Cold War and the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq and critically scrutinize the terms upon which a film could be considered a memorial to the war it represents Bringing together the fields of film studies and memory studies this book will be of interest to scholars and students in not just these areas but those in the fields of history media and cultural studies more broadly too Edinburgh Companion to the First World War and the Arts Ann-Marie Einhaus,2017-05-24 A new exploration of literary and artistic responses to WW1 from 1914 to the presentThis authoritative reference work examines literary and artistic responses to the wars upheavals across a wide range of media and genres from poetry to pamphlets sculpture to television documentary and requiems to war reporting Rather than looking at particular forms of artistic expression in isolation and focusing only on the war and inter war period the 26 essays collected in this volume approach artistic responses to the war from a wide variety of angles and where appropriate pursue their inquiry into the present day In 6 sections covering Literature the Visual Arts Music Periodicals and Journalism Film and Broadcasting and Publishing and Material Culture a wide range of original chapters from experts across literature and the arts examine what means and approaches were employed to respond to the shock of war as well as asking such key questions as how and why literary and artistic responses to the war have changed over time and how far later works of art are responses not only to the war itself but to earlier cultural production Key Features Offers new insights into the breadth and depth of artistic responses to WWI Establishes links and parallels across a wide range of different media and genres Emphasises the development of responses in different fields from 1914 to the present

Landscapes and Voices of the Great War Angela K. Smith, Krista Cowman, 2017-02-03 This volume continues the recent trend towards expanding definitions of war experience through considering a range of different landscapes and voices Not all landscapes were comprised of trenches and barbed wire Voices supporting or dissenting were many and varied Collectively they combine to offer fresh insights into the multiplicity of war experience alternate spaces to the familiar tropes of mud and mayhem

Slavophile Empire Laura Engelstein, 2011-01-15 Twentieth century Russia in all its political incarnations lacked the basic features of the Western liberal model the rule of law civil society and an uncensored public sphere In Slavophile Empire the leading historian Laura Engelstein pays particular attention to the Slavophiles and their heirs whose aversion to the secular individualism of the West and embrace of an idealized version of the native past established a pattern of thinking that had an enduring impact on Russian political life Imperial Russia did not lack for partisans of Western style liberalism but they were outnumbered to the right and to the left by those who favored illiberal options In the book's rigorously argued chapters Engelstein asks how Russia's identity as a cultural nation at the core of an imperial state came to be defined in terms of this antiliberal consensus She examines debates on religion and secularism on the role of culture and the law under a traditional regime presiding over a modernizing society on the status of the empire's ethnic peripheries and on the spirit needed to mobilize a multinational empire in times of war These debates she argues did not predetermine the kind of system that emerged after 1917 but they foreshadowed elements of a political culture that are still in evidence today

Literature and the Great War 1914-1918 Randall Stevenson, 2013-05-02 Literature and the Great War offers a fresh challenging interpretation of the literature of the period reappraising the settled assumptions through which war writing has come to be read in recent years
