The Persistence Of Vision By John Varley:

The Persistence of Vision John Varley, 1978 Nine amazing fiction stories including the Hugo and Nebula award winning title novella that could only come from the mesmerizing imagination of one of science fiction's most renowned and respected writers

Being and Swine Fahim Amir, 2020-12-01 Forget everything you think you know about Nature Fahim Amir's award winning book takes pure delight in posing unexpected questions Are animals victims of human domination or heroes of resistance Is Nature pristine and defenceless or sentient and devious Is being human really a prerequisite for being political In a world where birds on Viagra punch above their weight and termites hijack the heating systems of major cities animals can be recast as vigilantes agitators and public enemies in their own right Under Amir's magic spell pigs transform from slaughterhouse innocents into rioting revolutionaries pigeons from urban pests into unruly militants honeybees from virtuous fuzzballs into shameless centrefold models for eco capitalism As paws claws talons and hooves seize the means of production Being and Swine spirals higher and higher into a heady thesis that becomes more convincing by the minute At the heart of Amir's writing is a deep optimism and bracingly fresh reading of Marxist post colonial and feminist theory building upon the radical scholarship of Donna J Haraway and others Contrarian whip smart and wildly innovative no other book will laugh at your convictions quite like this one

The Metanarrative of Blindness David Bolt, 2014 Sheds new light on literary representations of blindness from a disability studies perspective

The John Varley Reader John Varley, 2020-09-22 A landmark collection from the master of science fiction whose short stories are quite literally unforgettable William Gibson These eighteen stories from the acclaimed author of the Gaea Trilogy The Ophiuchi Hotline and many other important works span thirty years of his distinguished career In these pages are Hugo Nebula Prix Tour Apollo and James Tiptree Jr Award winners including The Persistence of Vision PRESS ENTER The Pusher and The Barbie Murders among other outstanding works of speculative short fiction As a valuable bonus each story includes an autobiographical introduction by the author Praise for John Varley John Varley is the best writer in America Tom Clancy There are few writers whose work I love more than John Varley's purely love Cory Doctorow One of science fiction's most important writers The Washington Post Inventive The New York Times One of the genre's most accomplished storytellers Publishers Weekly

Primate Visions Donna J. Haraway, 2013-01-11 Haraway's discussions of how scientists have perceived the sexual nature of female primates opens a new chapter in feminist theory raising unsettling questions about models of the family and of heterosexuality in primate research

Silent Interviews Samuel R. Delany, 2018-08-14 Collected interviews featuring the Nebula Award winning author and his thoughts on topics like literary criticism comic books race and sexuality For nearly three decades Samuel R Delany's science fiction has transported millions of readers to the fringes of time technology and outer space Now Delany surveys the realms of his own experience as a writer critic theorist and gay Black man in this collection of written interviews a type of guided essay Because the written interview avoids the mutual presence positioned at the semantic core of traditional interview Delany explains a kind of cut remains between the participants a fissure in which the truths there may be more malleable less rigid Within that fissure Delany pursues the breadth and depth of his ideas on language and theory the politics of literary composition the experience of marginality and the philosophical commercial and personal contexts of writing today Gathered from sources as diverse as Diacritics and The Comics Journal these interviews reveal the broad range of Delany's thought and interests Delany has a unique place in late twentieth century letters A lifelong inhabitant of the margins both social and literary he has used his marginalized status as a lens to focus his astute observations of American literature and society From these interviews his voice emerges provocative precise and engaging Kathleen Spencer University of Nebraska Samuel R Delany never shies away from contestable positions or provocative opinions In his fiction Delany can write like quicksilver and in lectures or panel discussions he is easily SF's most articulate spokesperson in academia There is much here that is not covered in Delany's critical or autobiographical writings and much that anyone seriously interested in SF or many of Delany's other favorite topics ought to consider Locus Delany is fascinating whether discussing SF comics or his experiences as a Black American and this collection is as entertaining as it is informative Science Fiction Chronicle Yevgeny Zamyatin Stanislaw Lem Forget it Delany is both with a lot of Borges and Bruno Schultz thrown in Village Voice

Writing Talk Alex Hamilton, 2012 In his long career in literary journalism Alex Hamilton has probably met and talked in depth to more of our great writers than anyone else from the most critically acclaimed to the most hard nosed bestsellers from novelists to cartoonists and in every genre from Thrillers and Whodunnits to Short Stories from Poetry to Science Fiction This selection from a life's work gives us a stimulating and rare insight into the minds and lives of some of the most fascinating creators of our modern culture It's a book that contains many surprises in the revelations given by some of the authors about their struggles and victories the serious or humorous commitments made by them and their addiction to the kind of fiction they like to write The reader will soon realise that no two of these eighty-five featured authors such as Kurt Vonnegut Angela Carter Stephen King Daphne du Maurier Ian McEwan Jorge Luis Borges Graham Greene or Margaret Atwood are alike Splendidly informative and serious Writing Talk is also often very funny a book to dip into as the mood takes or to dive into hungrily It will appeal to those with a passion for books and for the people who have written them I've been fortunate to talk to so many marvellous writers Gathering some of these conversations into a book rather than their brief life in a daily newspaper offers a chance for readers to share my pleasure and to introduce a new generation to some past greats says Alex Hamilton behind his reason to create Writing Talk

Terminal Identity Scott Bukatman, 1993 Scott Bukatman's Terminal Identity referring to both the site of the termination of the conventional subject and the birth of a new subjectivity constructed at the computer terminal or television screen puts to rest any lingering doubts of the significance of science fiction in contemporary cultural studies Demonstrating a comprehensive knowledge both of the history of science fiction narrative from its earliest origins and of cultural theory and philosophy Bukatman redefines the nature of human identity in the Information Age Drawing on a wide range of contemporary theories of the postmodern including Fredric Jameson Donna Haraway and Jean Baudrillard Bukatman begins with the proposition that Western culture is suffering a crisis brought on by advanced electronic technologies Then in a series of chapters richly supported by analyses of literary texts visual arts film video television comics computer games and graphics Bukatman takes the reader on an odyssey that traces the postmodern subject from its current crisis through its close encounters with technology and finally to new self-recognition This new virtual subject as Bukatman defines it situates the human and the technological as coexistent codependent and mutually defining Synthesizing the most provocative theories of postmodern culture with a truly encyclopedic treatment of the relevant media this volume sets a new standard in the study of science fiction a category that itself may be redefined in light of this work Bukatman not only offers the most detailed map to date of the intellectual terrain of postmodern technology studies he arrives at new frontiers providing a propitious launching point for further inquiries into the relationship of electronic technology and culture

Rebirth of Value Frederick Turner, 1991-01-30 Rebirth of Value takes as its starting point the emerging scientific view of the universe as a free unpredictable self-ordering evolutionary process in which our own cultural history plays a leading part It outlines some of the startling implications of this view for contemporary art literature theater ecological ethics human studies religion and education Turner goes beyond the current fashions of postmodern eclecticism deconstructive critique and self-consciousness about genre and ideology Instead he seeks out the creative and positive forces in contemporary culture that underlie the surface features and identifies potent new themes and ideas that drive the trends Among these are the recovery of a pan cultural human nature beauty as a real evolutionary tendency the efficacy and reality of values in general the reunion of the arts sciences and technology a new science including the theory of non linear and self organizing systems top down as well as bottom up causality and a broader conception of causality in general Other themes and ideas discussed are a new environmental ethic in which humans can play a constructive and leading part in the evolution of nature a conception of history as driven by values cybernetic technology as a spiritual development a new religious consciousness including a rich syncretism and a renewal of ritual eternity as a more intense form of time and the essential unity coherence and fertility of knowledge
