Poetry of Martín Espada stands as the first ever collection of essays on poet and activist Martín Espada. It is also to date the only published book length single author study of Espada currently in existence. Relying on innovative highly original contributions from thirteen Espada scholars, its principal aim is to argue for a long overdue critical awareness of and cultural appreciation for Espada and his body of writing. Acknowledged Legislator accomplishes this task in three fundamental ways: by providing readers with background information on the poet's life and work; offering an examination into the subject matter and dominant themes that are frequently contained in his writing; and finally by advocating in a variety of ways for why we should be reading, discussing, and teaching the Espada canon. Divided into four distinct sections that modulate through several theoretical frames from Espada's attention to resistance poetics and concerns for historical memory to his oppositional critique of neoliberalism and support for a class consciousness grounded in labor rights, Acknowledged Legislator offers a cohesive forward thinking interpretive statement of the poet's vision and proposes a critical reassessment for how we read Espada now and in the future.

Visible Dissent Teresa Longo, 2018-05-15 Highlighting the importance of reading and re-reading the Latin American canon in the United States, Longo finds that literature can be an instrument of progressive social change and argues that small literary presses City Lights, Curbstone, and Seven Stories have made that dissent visible in the United States. Locating the work of artists and writers alongside that of scholars and legal advocates, Visible Dissent not only unveils the staying power of committed writing, it honors the cross currents and the on-the-ground implications of humane political engagement. Green Mountains Review, 2010

Belonging Niloufar Talebi, 2008-08-05 Recent political developments including the shadow of a new war have obscured the fact that Iran has a long and splendid artistic tradition ranging from the visual arts to literature. Western readers may have some awareness of the Iranian novel thanks to a few breakout successes like Reading Lolita in Tehran and My Uncle Napoleon, but the country's strong poetic tradition remains little known. This anthology remedies that situation with a rich selection of recent poetry by Iranians living all around the world, including Amir Hossein Afrasiabi. Although the path tracks my footsteps, I don't travel; it for the path travels me. Varying dramatically in style, tone, and theme, these expertly translated works include erotic diversissements by Ziba Karbassi, rigorously formal poetry by Yadollah Royaii, experimental poems by Naanaam, powerful polemics by Maryam Huleh, and the personal epic work of Shahrouz Rashid. Eclectic and accessible, these vibrant poems deepen the often limited awareness of Iranian identity today by not only introducing readers to contemporary Iranian poetry but also expanding the canon of significant writing in the Persian language. Belonging offers a glimpse at a complex culture through some of its finest literary talents.

Chronicle of the Pulitzer Prizes for Poetry Heinz-D. Fischer, 2010-01-13 Joseph Pulitzer had not originally intended to award a prize for poetry. An initiative by the Poetry Society of America provided the initial impetus to establish the prize, first awarded in 1922. The supplement volume chronicles the whole history of how the awards for this category developed, giving an account based mainly on confidential jury protocols from the Pulitzer Prizes.
