Round House ,2014 Handbook of the American Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Timo Müller, 2017-01-11 Increasing specialization within the discipline of English and American Studies has shifted the focus of scholarly discussion toward theoretical reflection and cultural contexts These developments have benefitted the discipline in more ways than one but they have also resulted in a certain neglect of close reading As a result students and researchers interested in such material are forced to turn to scholarship from the 1960s and 1970s much of which relies on dated methodological and ideological presuppositions The handbook aims to fill this gap by providing new readings of texts that figure prominently in the literature classroom and in scholarly debate from James s The Ambassadors to McCarthy s The Road These readings do not revert naively to a time before theory Instead they distil the insights of literary and cultural theory into concise introductions to the historical background the themes the formal strategies and the reception of influential literary texts and they do so in a jargon free language accessible to readers on all levels of qualification “One Step Beyond the Hero” Giorgio Mariani ,2025-03-26 The essays collected in this volume were written over the last twenty or so years and were all originally published with one exception in a variety of journals and edited collections The topics covered range from contemporary Native American literature to war literature and cinema from the revisionist Western film to the prose of Ralph Waldo Emerson and other writers who struggled to think of peace as something different from the peace that can be safeguarded by an unending preparedness for war As a whole this book attempts to gauge to what extent both film and narrative can point in the direction of that one step beyond the hero which Emerson in his early years saw as necessary to becoming true peace fighters Though One Step Beyond the Hero shows how difficult it is to imagine let alone realize a world free of violence brutality and coercion its goal is not to undermine the Utopian desire for a non violent future On the contrary by calling attention to how writers and filmmakers deal with both violence and war this study engages in a critical scrutiny of culture based on the notion that peace should be another word for justice Trauma and Spirituality in

Ethnic American Women's Novels Marinella Rodi-Risberg, 2025-01-15 Trauma and Spirituality in Ethnic American Women's Novels examines a genre of ethnic American women's literature which the author calls spiritual trauma narratives that testify to traumas caused by epistemological violence wreaked by ongoing colonialism systematic racism and marginalization grounded in a binary hierarchical and supremacist post Enlightenment epistemology that negates the spiritual knowledge of interconnectivity found in people of color's belief systems Placing trauma theory in productive conversation with women of color feminist studies Marinella Rodi Risberg explores literary texts by Chicana African American and Native American authors that engage readers in the protagonists transformative encounters with ancestral knowledge through symbols ritual dreaming storytelling and interactions with the natural world In this way the author argues they model a shift in awareness regarding historical and present traumas including slavery genocide racial and sexual violence highlighting the importance of literature as a site of knowledge production and resistance

Longing for an Absent God Nick Ripatrazone, 2020-03-03 Longing for an Absent God unveils the powerful role of faith and doubt in the American literary tradition Nick Ripatrazone explores how two major strands of Catholic writers practicing and cultural intertwine and sustain each other Ripatrazone explores the writings of devout American Catholic writers in the years before the Second Vatican Council through the work of Flannery O'Connor J.F. Powers and Walker Percy those who were raised Catholic but drifted from the church such as the Catholic educated Don DeLillo and Cormac McCarthy the convert Toni Morrison the Mass going Thomas Pynchon and the ritual driven Louise Erdrich and a new crop of faithful American Catholic writers including Ron Hansen Phil Klay and Alice McDermott who write Catholic stories for our contemporary world These critically acclaimed and award winning voices illustrate that Catholic storytelling is innately powerful and appealing to both secular and religious audiences Longing for an Absent God demonstrates the profound differences in the storytelling styles and results of these two groups of major writers but ultimately shows how taken together they offer a rich and unique American literary tradition that spans the full spectrum of doubt and faith Virginia Woolf, Europe, and Peace Ariane Mildenberg, Patricia Novillo-Corvalán, 2020-06-13 Virginia Woolf Europe and Peace Transnational Circulations enlarges our understanding of Virginia Woolf's pacifist ideology and aesthetic response to the World Wars by re-examining her writings and cultural contexts transnationally and comparatively through the complex interplay between modernism politics and aesthetics The transnational paradigm that undergirds this collection revolves around the idea of transnational cultural communities of writers artists and musicians worldwide who were intellectually involved in the war effort through the forging of pacifist cultural networks that arose as a form of resistance to war militarism and the rise of fascism The book also offers philosophical approaches to notions of transnational pacifism anti-war ethics and decolonization examining how Woolf's prose undermines center edge or self other bifurcations Breathing new life into Woolf's anti-war writings through a transnational lens and presenting us with the voices and perspectives of a range of significant scholars and critics the chapters in this volume engage with mobile and circulatory pacifisms calling attention to the intersections of modernist inquiries across the arts art music literature and performance and transnational critical spaces Asia Europe and the Americas to show how the convergence of different cultural and linguistic horizons can significantly expand and enrich our understanding of Woolf's modernist legacy Proceedings of the 2025 4th International Conference on Social Sciences and Humanities and Arts (SSHA 2025) Sun Jing, Sun Hefei, Liu Shuli, Ren Xianpin, Cuneyt Birkok, 2025-07-22 This is an open access book With the progress of social civilization social science and its research are becoming more and more important Theoretically and practically the study of social phenomena and social problems and the development of prosperous social sciences are the eternal themes of human beings At present social science research and its results can hardly meet the needs of social development especially the unscientific evaluation of social science results which has aroused great concern from all walks of life and has produced dirt and questions on social science thus affecting the proper development of social science Max Weber once said that the most important function of social science in modern times is to keep people clear headed and to resist the delusions of prophetic legislators Humanities and arts are the process of perceiving realizing thinking manipulating and expressing objective or subjective objects through capturing and excavating feeling and analyzing integrating and applying or displaying the stage results in the form obtained through feeling seeing hearing smelling touching The social sciences and humanities and arts contain content that will directly affect our lives and the way society functions And by reacting to today's increasingly intricate problems and situations through systematic and professional discussions they will further contribute to the improvement of institutions and the development of society By thinking about issues and looking at problems and the world from different perspectives by putting the two together it may be possible to have more comprehensive appropriate and better responses for example the development of laws requires a deeper understanding of the environment in which they are implemented international trade requires a certain understanding of the customs of different countries and the development of tax and economic policies requires a certain understanding of the population consumer demand etc

Recognitions Enrico Botta, Gianna Fusco, Pilar Martínez Benedí, Anna Scannavini, 2024-11-04 This volume offers a critical exploration of the many ways in which transcodification acts at the intersection of literature art history and social and cultural artifacts to foster instances of recognition in the US Recognition covers a wealth of meanings from the mere acknowledgement of existence validity or legality or appreciation of something as valuable to the identification of something as known or familiar Accordingly this volume deals with different struggles for recognition One focus of the volume is the assessment of artistic achievement in relation to a so called original with essays concerned with cultural codes and with the role that translation adaptation and cross cultural encounters have played in US artistic and literary productions A second parallel strand focuses on the fight for political and social inclusion or on the dynamics beneath the recognition of group and gender identities to explore how activism and artistic literary productions challenge received identity boundaries and accepted social and cultural hierarchies Bringing together recognition and transcodification transculturality the book deconstructs crystalized and codified categories and celebrates the crossing of boundaries

Writing the Survivor Robin E. Field, 2020-07-15 Writing the Survivor The Rape Novel in Late Twentieth Century American Fiction identifies a new genre of American fiction the rape novel that recenters narratives of sexual violence on the survivors of violence and abuse rather than the perpetrators The rape novel arose during the women s liberation movement as women writers collectively challenged the traditional erasure of female subjectivity and agency found in earlier representations of sexual violence in American fiction The rape novel not only foregrounds survivors and their stories in a textual centering that affirms their dignity and self worth but also develops new narratological strategies for portraying violent disturbing subject matter In bringing together many key women s texts of the last decades of the 20th century the rape novel demonstrates the centrality of sexual assault to women s fiction of this era The rape novels of the 21st century continue the political activism inherent in the genre educating readers offering community to survivors and encouraging social activism as the stories of male survivors are increasingly told A radical reconsideration of late twentieth century American novels Writing the Survivor underscores the importance of women s activism upon the novel s form and content and reveals the portrayal of rape as rape to be an interethnic imperative
