The Town By Conrad Richter:

The Town Conrad Richter, 1950 The story of a pioneer family and the transition they have to make as urban areas begin to spread in the 1800s Conrad Richter David R. Johnson, 2010-11 Conrad Richter A Writer's Life is the story of an aspiring writer who failed and then desperate for money tried again and wrote himself out of penny a word pulp magazines and into a Pulitzer Prize and a National Book Award Based upon unrestricted access to all of Richter's letters journals notebooks and private papers this biography offers an intimate account of Richter's personal struggle to achieve success in his own and in other people's terms Johnson's biography will engage anyone interested in the art of biography and in a novelist's act of writing Admirers of Richter's novels will also find much of interest in his life So too will those who find value in the story of a man who despite his sense of himself as an imperfect vessel for God's plan for human evolution lived his life with as much grace determination and courage as he could The Town Conrad Richter, 1981 The Town is part of the The Awakening Land trilogy which traces the transformation of Ohio from wilderness to farmland to the site of modern industrial civilization all in the lifetime of one character Conrad Richter's America Marvin J. LaHood, 2019-03-18 No detailed description available for Conrad Richter's America The Sea of Grass Conrad Richter, 1936-09 Published in 1936 this novel presents in epic scope the conflicts in the settling of the American Southwest Set in New Mexico in the late 19th century The Sea of Grass concerns the often violent clashes between the pioneering ranchers whose cattle range freely through the vast sea of grass and the farmers or nesters who build fences and turn the sod The Awakening Land Conrad Richter, 1966 Sayward a pioneer in Ohio's forest helps clear and farm the land and watches the town develop Smoke Over the Prairie Conrad Richter, 2017-01-17 Conrad Michael Richter October 13 1890 October 30 1968 was an American novelist whose lyrical work is concerned largely with life on the American frontier in various periods His novel The Town 1950 the last story of his trilogy The Awakening Land about the Ohio frontier won the 1951 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction His novel The Waters of Kronos won the 1961 National Book Award for Fiction 2 Two collections of short stories were published posthumously during the 20th century and several of his novels have been reissued during the 21st century by academic presses During the early 1930s Richter had numerous stories published in pulp magazines such as Triple X Short Stories Complete Stories Ghost Stories and Blue Book His Early Americana and Other Stories 1936 was considered his first successful book He persisted with his work gradually writing and publishing full length novels Richter set his novels in different periods of American history on its changing frontier He may be best known for The Sea of Grass 1936 set in late nineteenth century New Mexico and featuring conflict between ranchers and farmers It was later adapted as a movie of the same name directed by Elia Kazan and featuring Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy released in 1947 Richter's novel The Light in the Forest 1953 set in late eighteenth century Pennsylvania and Ohio featured challenges faced by a young white man who had become an assimilated Lenape Amerindian after being taken captive as a child After the boy was returned as a youth to white culture he was considered suspicious This novel also became very popular and had a second life as a movie released in 1958 Richter returned to the topic of the white child raised in an alien culture in his later novel A Country of Strangers 1966 As noted by Ernest Cady in his review in the Columbus Dispatch both books were written from the point of view of Indians He wrote of Richter He simply tells how he thinks things were for both Indians and whites in a hard time of violence and danger and change on a raw frontier And does it so convincingly that the reader senses that this indeed is how it must have been During this period Richter also published the novels of his trilogy The Awakening Land about the Ohio frontier The Trees 1940 The Fields 1946 and The Town 1950 In 1947 he won the Ohioana Book Award for The Fields The Town was awarded the Pulitzer Prize in 1951 In a review of the last novel Louis Bromfield also an Ohio writer and winner of the Pulitzer Prize wrote of the trilogy the three books are not only concerned with Sayward and her family but the growth and the astonishingly rapid development of a whole area which has played a key role in the nation's history Mr Richter has reproduced the quality and the speech of these people so well that a thousand years from now one may read his books and know exactly what these people were like and what it was like to have lived in an era when within three or four generations a frontier wilderness turned into one of the great industrial areas of the earth The Town stands on its own as an entity and may be read on its own as a full rich and comprehensive novel based upon the lives of ordinary people brave and ever heroic in their own small way The trilogy was first published in one volume in 1966 by Alfred A Knopf It was adapted as a TV miniseries of the same name in 1978 in which several plot changes were made as a result of the changing social culture of the time especially concerning race and sexuality When the trilogy was reissued in 1991 by Ohio University Press it was a revised edition that incorporated some of these changes

CliffsNotes on Richter's The Light in the Forest Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2001-03-07 Conrad Richter one of American literature's preeminent authors on the American frontier highlights family hardship individual suffering and societal breakup in The Light in the Forest Impeccably researched Richter's novel takes place at a time of rapid change in the 18th century True Son Johnny is the protagonist a white boy captured at the age of 4 by the Lenni Lenape Indians and later adopted as one of their own Forced to return to his white family 11 years later True Son Johnny must address what it means to belong and face the consequence of defying those ties

The Fields

Conrad Richter, 2016-02-17 Of this second novel in Conrad Richter's great trilogy Louis Bromfield wrote The Fields continues the life of Sayward after her strange marriage to the educated New Englander Portious through the raising of their family of eight children But it is much more than that it is also the tale of the slow battle and eventual victory over the Trees and that relentless forest which even today marches in and takes over an Ohio field that has been left untilled for a year or two Bit by bit through hard work and in hardship the forest is conquered and the villages emerge into the light surrounded by fields of great fertility The story is told with a feeling of poetry and the picturesque turn of language which characterized the speech of the frontier and can still be heard in the Ohio country districts Sayward the heroine is the portrait of a simple eternal woman dominating in an instinctive way a husband who is far more educated and subtle than herself The children are real children each with his own personality It The Fields has beauty form historical significance and at the same time reality and the magic which accompanies illusion Air Bulletin United States.
