Contested Terrain Keith Wilhite, 2022-12-01 Contested Terrain explores suburban literature between two moments of domestic crisis the housing shortage that gave rise to the modern era of suburbanization after World War II and the mortgage defaults and housing foreclosures that precipitated the Great Recession Moving away from scholarship that highlights the alienating placeless quality of suburbia Wilhite argues that we should reimagine suburban literature as part of a long literary tradition of U S regional writing that connects the isolation and exclusivity of the domestic realm to the expansionist ideologies of U S nationalism and the environmental imperialism of urban sprawl Wilhite produces new unexpected readings of works by Sinclair Lewis Lorraine Hansberry Richard Yates Patricia Highsmith Don DeLillo Jonathan Franzen Jeffrey Eugenides Chang rae Lee Richard Ford Jung Yun and Patrick Flanery Contested Terrain demonstrates how postwar suburban nation building ushered in an informal geography that recalibrated notions of national identity democratic citizenship and domestic security to the scale of the single family home

The Ethical Foundations of Postmodernity Nina Michaela von Dahlern, Nina Michaela Von Dahlern, 2013-07 A re turn to ethics which began in the 1980s and 1990s and is still predominant today has been ascribed to literary studies and theory In this book theoretical issues within ethics are discussed based on the examples of literary analyses The authors examined are Margaret Atwood Jeffrey Eugenides and Robert M Pirsig The main questions concern the foundation on which ethical concepts are based and the way in which such concepts function These topics are evidently connected to matters of human concepts and human nature in general which are understood to be fundamentally communicative Contrary to popular conclusions of relativity the need for a realist foundation of ethics implying universal validity will be revealed It is not only possible but also necessary to develop such an idea of ethics within a postmodern relativist framework A communicative foundationalist ethics will thus be designed With regard to literature an increasing emergence of first person narrative can be witnessed in addition to a new focus on a realist and more mimetic style after a peak of pluralist conceptions at the end of the twentieth and the beginning of the twenty first centuries The analysis of such narrative situations will reveal the significance of the narrative generation of individual personalities for an understanding of ethical questions The conflict between relativist and realist points of view centers on the postmodern critique of the individual The study of the literary generation of individuals will elucidate means of confronting this critique The theoretical background includes the poststructuralist and communicative concepts of Judith Butler and Seyla Benhabib as well as Ernst Tugendhat's analytical approach Nina von Dahler studied English language and literature philosophy sociology and educational sciences at the Universities of Hamburg and Heidelberg This book is based on her Ph D thesis

Death in American Texts and Performances Mark Pizzato, 2016-05-13 How do twentieth and twenty first century artists bring forth the powerful reality of death when it exists in memory and lived experience as something that happens only to others Death in American Texts and Performances takes up this question to explore the modern and postmodern aesthetics of death Working between and across genres the contributors examine literary texts and performance media including Robert Lowell's For the Union Dead Luis Valdez Dark Root of a Scream Amiri Baraka's Dutchman Thornton Wilder's Our Town John Edgar Wideman's The Cattle Killing Toni Morrison's Sula and Song of Solomon Don DeLillo's White Noise and Falling Man and HBO's Six Feet Under As the contributors struggle to convey the artist's crisis of representation they often locate the dilemma in the gap between artifice and nature where loss is performed and where remembering is sometimes literally reenacted through the bodily gesture While artists confront the impossibility of total recovery or transformation so must the contributors explore the gulf between real corpses and their literary or performative reconstructions Ultimately the volume shows both artist and critic grappling with the dilemma of showing how the aesthetics of death as absence is made meaningful in and by language
