Articulations of Difference Dominique D. Fisher,Lawrence R. Schehr,1997 Drawn from insights of the past twenty years the essays reflect the renewed approach of gender and sexuality as they relate to homosexuality and its representation and they rely on models that differentiate between sexuality and gender and between natural inclinations and social constructs Despite the wide variety of subjects critical positions and authors backgrounds what these essays have in common is the willingness of the contributors to go beyond a set of rhetorics a set of limitations that were a defining moment in the struggle of gay liberation and its reflection in both creative and critical writing

Queer Nations Jarrod Hayes,2000-04

The Maghreb Morocco Algeria Tunisia has been inhabited for millennia by a heterogeneous populace However in the wake of World War II when independence movements began to gain momentum in these French colonies the dominant national discourses attempted to define national identities by exclusion One rallying cry from the 1930s was Islam is my religion Arabic is my language Algeria is my fatherland In this incisive postcolonial study Jarrod Hayes uses literary analysis to examine how Francophone novelists from the Maghreb engaged in a diametric nation building project Their works imagined a diverse nation peopled by those who were excluded by the dominant political discourses especially those who did not conform to traditional sexual norms By incorporating representations of marginal sexualities sexual dissidence and gender insubordination Maghrebian novelists imagined an anticolonial struggle that would result in sexual liberation and envisioned nations that could be defined and developed inclusively

A Return to Self Aatish Taseer,2025-07-15

A blend of travelog and memoir spanning from Turkey to Mexico exploring Aatish Taseer s uniquely blended identity and asking Why do certain cities become epicenters of great historical shifts and sites of unpredictable communities In 2019 the government of Prime Minister Narendra Modi revoked Aatish Taseer s Indian citizenship thereby exiling him from the country where he grew up and lived for thirty years This loss both practical and spiritual sent him on a journey of revisiting the places that formed his identity and asking broader questions about the complex forces that make a culture and a nationality in the process In Istanbul he confronts the hopes and ambitions of his former self In Uzbekistan he sees how what was once the majestic portal of the Silk Road is now a tourist fa ade In India he explores why Buddhism which originated there is so little practiced Everywhere he goes the ancient world mixes intimately with the contemporary with the influences of the pandemic the rise of new food cultures and the ongoing cultural battles of regions around the world How do centuries of cultures evolving and overlapping often violently shape the people that subsequently emerge from them In thoughtful prose that combines reportage with romanticism Taseer casts an incisive eye at what it means to belong to a place that becomes an unstable politicized vessel for ideas defined by exclusion and prejudice and gets to the human heart of the shifts and migrations that define our multicultural world
