vice Vicki Le n author of Uppity Women of Ancient Times The Tao of Women Pamela K. Metz, Jacqueline L. Tobin, 1995-06 For centuries women have remained quiet suppressed by society Yet in their silence a singing can be heard celebrating their truths In The Tao of Women female voices speak out Finally the wisdom of Taoist philosophy is linked with the deep and mysterious wisdom of women The Tao of Women captures and presents the power and wisdom generated by centuries of women s lives with the hope that this wisdom will not be lost These brief and poignant meditations amplify the voices of our grandmothers and their mothers before them they illuminate the connections over time and space and culture allowing us to understand the women who came before and the daughters who will follow In 1950 a secret language was discovered near Hunan Province China It was not until 1982 that anyone collected and translated this secret women s script Known as Nu Shu this ancient language was developed and used by women to communicate with each other when their society would not allow them to learn to read and write For the first time in America 81 original Nu Shu illustrations and their translations can be seen in The Tao of Women Wild Women, Wild Voices Judy Reeves, 2015-03-15 Write to Celebrate Heal and Free the Wild Woman Within In her years as a writing coach Judy Reeves has found twin urges in women they yearn to reclaim a true nature that resides below the surface of daily life and to give it voice. The longing to express this wild authentic nature is what informs Reeves s most popular workshop and now this workshop in a book Here you will explore the stages that make up your life from wild child daughter sister mother and loves and lovers to creative work friendships and how the wise woman encounters death Both intuitive and practical Wild Women Wild Voices responds to women s deep need for expression with specific and inspiring activities exercises and writing prompts With true empathy Reeves invites instructs and celebrates the authentic expression even the howl of the wild in every woman Women's Life-writing Linda S. Coleman, 1997 The essays in this collection offer readers vivid and varied evidence of the female response to recurring attempts by culture to artificially limit identity along the gendered lines of private and public experience Calling on voices both familiar and little known British and American black and white young and old poor and rich heterosexual and lesbian the essayists explore how women within unique personal and historical conditions used life writing as a means of both self understanding and connection to a community of sympathetic others real or imagined The life writings within this anthology span the modern history of the genre itself with writers drawn from as early as the seventeenth century and as late as the Birthing Ourselves Into Being Baraka Bethany Elihu, 2010-03-09 With her groundbreaking debut book Birthing 1990s Ourselves into Being A Year Long Women's Empowerment Program author Baraka Bethany Elihu transcends the restrictions of intellectually based therapy by offering an experiential curriculum of personal healing centered not only in doing but in being Many women are naturally heading towards this gentler organic approach in personal therapeutic work Women are ready to be simply witnessed in their own mastery We do not need to be managed facilitated taught or guided explains Baraka The experts live within us Birthing Ourselves into Being is fully situated in the metaphor of childbirth The book consists of twelve chapters that explore the symbolic rhythms of the childbearing year including pre conception and postpartum Offering clear innovative and effective steps this creative arts based curriculum provides readers tools to emerge with an entirely new life and stories of adventure and love to inspire the journeys of other women We can surrender to our process and trust that a greater peace in the world will emerge naturally from the very belly of our personal quiet revolutions Baraka writes The space we hold for ourselves and for one another becomes the standard by which the planet responds It is time And we are ready
