The Pale Blue Eye By Louis Bayard:

The Pale Blue Eye Louis Bayard, 2006 Thriller The Pale Blue Eye Louis Bayard, 2023-03-30 At West Point Academy in 1830 the calm of an October evening is shattered by the discovery of a young cadet's body swinging from a rope just off the parade grounds. An apparent suicide is not unheard of in a harsh regimen like West Point's but the next morning an even greater horror comes to light. Someone has stolen into the room where the body lay and removed the heart. At a loss for answers and desperate to avoid any negative publicity the Academy calls on the services of a local civilian Augustus Landor, a former police detective who acquired some renown during his years in New York City before retiring to the Hudson Highlands for his health. Now a widower and restless in his seclusion Landor agrees to take on the case. As he questions the dead man's acquaintances he finds an eager assistant in a moody intriguing young cadet with a penchant for drink, two volumes of poetry to his name and a murky past that changes from telling to telling. The cadet's name Edgar Allan Poe. Impressed with Poe's astute powers of observation Landor is convinced that the poet may prove useful if he can stay sober long enough to put his keen reasoning skills to the task. Working in close contact the two men separated by years but alike in intelligence develop a surprisingly deep rapport as their investigation takes them into a hidden world of secret societies, ritual sacrifices and more bodies. Soon however the macabre murders and Landor's own buried secrets threaten to tear the two men and their newly formed friendship apart. A rich tapestry of fine prose and intricately detailed characters The Pale Blue Eye transports readers into a labyrinth of the unknown that will leave them guessing until the very end. I delitti di

West Point. The Pale Blue Eye Louis Bayard, 2023-01-05T00:00:00+01:00 1830 Accademia militare di West Point la calma di una sera di ottobre viene sconvolta dal ritrovamento del corpo di un giovane cadetto appeso a una corda. La mattina dopo arriva la scoperta di un dettaglio ancora più macabro: qualcuno ha prelevato il cuore dal cadavere. Augustus Landor, che ha acquisito una certa fama durante i suoi anni come detective nella polizia di New York, viene chiamato per indagare in segreto un caso sconcertante che Landor deve risolvere al più presto e con la massima discrezione perché uno scandalo potrebbe compromettere la reputazione della neonata accademia destinata a diventare una delle più prestigiose istituzioni americane. L'investigatore trova un alleato inaspettato per seguire le tracce dell'assassino: un giovane cadetto lunatico con un debole per l'alcol e un passato oscuro pieno di leggende per il quale prova subito un affetto paterno. Quello strano e tormentato ragazzo del Sud, appassionato di poesia, ha un nome destinato a un grande successo: Edgar Allan Poe. Lizard Tales Bayard H.

Brattstrom, 2018-01-09 Lizard Tales People and Events in the Life of a Naturalist consists of stories that I told in my ecology, evolution, ornithology, herpetology, natural history and general biology classes or around campfires and includes many that have never been told to anyone until now. The book is autobiographical and geographic: Chicago, Hollywood, San Diego, UCLA, Cal Tech, New York, Arizona and also Australia, Mexico and Central America. The stories are about animals, fieldwork, people and weird or exciting events. Because I have met and interacted with many people there are personal stories about Debbie

Contemporary Reconfigurations of American Literary Classics Betina Entzminger, 2013-03-05 The number and popularity of novels that have overtly reconfigured aspects of classic American texts suggests a curious trend for both readers and writers an impulse to retell and reread books that have come to define American culture This book argues that by revising canonical American literature contemporary American writers are re writing an American myth of origins creating one that corresponds to the contemporary writer s understanding of self and society Informed by cognitive psychology evolutionary literary criticism and poststructuralism Entzminger reads texts by canonical authors Poe Hawthorne Melville Alcott Twain Chopin and Faulkner and by the contemporary writers that respond to them In highlighting the construction and cognitive function of narrative in their own and in their antecedent texts contemporary writers highlight the fact that such use of narrative is universal and essential to human beings This book suggests that by revising the classic texts that compose our cultural narrative contemporary writers mirror the way human individuals consistently revisit and refigure the past through language via self narration in order to manage and understand experience Imagining Gender in Biographical Fiction Julia Novak, Caitríona Ní Dhúill, 2022-12-15 This volume addresses the current boom in biographical fictions across the globe examining the ways in which gendered lives of the past become re imagined as gendered narratives in fiction Building on this research this book is the first to address questions of gender in a sustained and systematic manner that is also sensitive to cultural and historical differences in both raw material and fictional reworking It develops a critical lens through which to approach biofictions as fictions of gender drawing on theories of biofiction and historical fiction life writing studies feminist criticism queer feminist readings postcolonial studies feminist art history and trans studies Attentive to various approaches to fictionalisation that reclaim appropriate or re invent their raw material the volume assesses the critical revisionist and deconstructive potential of biographical fictions while acknowledging the effects of cliché gender norms and established narratives in many of the texts under investigation The introduction of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com Chapter 1 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com
