Night School Caroline B. Cooney, 2012-08-07

In the night class, attendance can be fatal. In a California high school, a signup sheet mysteriously appears on the bulletin board: NIGHT CLASS. No course description, no details, no clues. Four kids, each with their own individual problems and desires, write their names on the sheet. Andrew, the handsome seemingly perfect jock, signs up first, hoping that the mysterious course will finally propel him into the life of fame he craves. Mariah's intense crush on Andrew inspires her to follow suit for a chance that her romantic fantasy will come true. Autumn, beautiful and popular but deeply dissatisfied, adds her name to the class list in an effort to escape the claustrophobic clutches of the cool clique at school. Ned, brainy, awkward, and insecure, signs up with a desperate dream of becoming popular. These students will discover whether the night class is a place where dreams come true or where nightmares are made real.

Four years later, the police have reopened the case. This time, they have Rose's diary, her private personal diary, and Rose will do anything to get it back, even if it means stealing a police car. But now that she's destroyed the evidence, the police are convinced she saw something. And the longer Rose keeps her secrets, the more she risks losing everything.
