The Voyage By Roberta Kagan:

From: Nazi, Germany, To: Cuba Roberta Kagan, 2012-12-08 This novella was formerly known as A Life With Purpose From Nazi Germany to Cuba takes place on the tragic voyage of the SS St Louis This was a ship that Hitler allowed to sail out of Germany carrying the souls of 926 Jewish passengers hoping to be allowed to migrate to Cuba instead of facing death in the concentration camps The vessel sailed out of the port of Hamburg Germany in 1939 with a very high price demanded for passage However when the ship set out on its way to Havana Cuba the travelers had no idea what was in store This book is the story of love of betrayal and jealousy of the will to live and the sadistic hatred of a madman and those who followed him But it is also a tribute to the human spirit which is sometimes remarkably filled with hope generosity light and the greatest gift of all love

The Voyage Roberta Kagan, 2014-03-21 On May 13th 1939 five strangers boarded the MS St Louis Promised a future of safety away from Nazi Germany and Hitler's third Reich unbeknownst to them they were about to embark upon a voyage built on secrets lies and treachery Sacrifice love life and death hung in the balance as each fought against fate but the voyage was just the beginning

Rubens in Repeat Aaron M. Hyman, 2021-08-03 This book examines the reception in Latin America of prints designed by the Flemish artist Peter Paul Rubens showing how colonial artists used such designs to create all manner of artworks and in the process forged new frameworks for artistic creativity Peter Paul Rubens 1577-1640 never crossed the Atlantic himself but his impact in colonial Latin America was profound Prints made after the Flemish artist's designs were routinely sent from Europe to the Spanish Americas where artists used them to make all manner of objects Rubens in Repeat is the first comprehensive study of this transatlantic phenomenon despite broad recognition that it was one of the most important forces to shape the artistic landscapes of the region Copying particularly in colonial contexts has traditionally held negative implications that have discouraged its serious exploration Yet analyzing the interpretation of printed sources and recontextualizing the resulting works within period discourse and their original spaces of display allow a new critical reassessment of this broad category of art produced in colonial Latin America art that has all too easily been dismissed as derivative and thus unworthy of sustained interest and investigation This book takes a new approach to the paradigms of artistic authorship that emerged alongside these complex creative responses focusing on the vicerealties of New Spain and Peru in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries It argues that the use of European prints was an essential component of the very framework in which colonial artists forged ideas about what it meant to be a creator

Picturing Evolution and Extinction Fae Brauer, 2015-10-05 With the increasing loss of biological diversity in this Sixth Age of Mass Extinction it is timely to show that devolutionary paranoia is not new but rather stretches back to the time of Charles Darwin It is also an opportune moment to show how human driven extinction as designated by the term Anthropocene has long been acknowledged The halcyon days of European industrial progress colonial expansion and scientific revolution trumpeted from the Great Exhibition of 1851 until the Dresden International Hygiene Exhibition of 1930 were constantly marred by fears of rampant degeneration depopulation national decline environmental devastation and racial extinction This is demonstrated by the discourses of catastrophism charted in this book that percolated across Europe in response to the theories of Darwin and Jean Baptiste Lamarck as well as Marcellin Berthelot Camille Flammarion Ernst Haeckel Louis Landouzy Félix Le Dantec Cesare Lombroso Thomas Huxley Benedict Augustin Morel Louis Pasteur Lisé Reclus Rudolf Steiner and Wilhelm Wundt among others This book presents pioneering explorations of the interrelationship between these discourses and modern visual cultures and the ways in which the picturing of evolution and extinction by artists as diverse as Roger Broders Albert Besnard Fernand Cormon Hélène Dufau mile Gall František Kupka Pablo Picasso Carles Mani y Roig Sophie Taeuber and Vasili Vatagin betrayed anxieties subliminally festering over degeneration alongside latent hopes of regeneration Following Darwin's concept of evolution as Janus faced the dialectical interplay of evolution and extinction and degeneration and regeneration is explored in modern visual cultures in Australia America Britain France Germany Russia Spain and Switzerland at significant spatio temporal junctures between 1860 and 1930 By unravelling the picturing of the dread of alcoholism cholera dysentery tuberculosis typhoid and rabies alongside phobias of animalism criminality hysteria impotency and ecological disaster each chapter makes an original contribution to this new field of scholarship By locating these discourses and visual cultures within the golden age of Neo Lamarckism they also reveal how regeneration was pictured as the Janus face of degeneration able to facilitate evolution through the inheritance of beneficial characteristics in propitious environments In striking such an uplifting note amidst the dissonant cacophony of catastrophism this book reveals why the art and science of Transformism proved so appealing in France as elsewhere and why visual cultures of regeneration became as dominant in the twentieth century as the picturing of degeneration had been in the nineteenth century It also illuminates the paradoxical inversion that occurred in the twentieth century when devolution became equivalent to evolution for many Modernists Hence whilst this book opens with the picturing of indigenous people in Australia and North America as doomed races by the first publication of Darwin's On The Origin of Species it closes with the quest by 1930 for a regenerative suntan as dark as the skin of those indigenous people What Life was Like in Europe's Romantic Era Time-Life Books,2000 Examines the changing political social and artistic landscape of Europe during the Romantic Era Chicken Time-Life Books,1995 This Time Life cookbook contains over 60 international favorites along with tips for selecting and storing chicken and for making the perfect stock Photos Italian Cooking Time-Life Books,1996 Low fat cooking tips make healthy cooking incredibly easy Psychic Powers Time-Life Books,1987 One of a series that examines the history and nature of seemingly paranormal phenomena One-pot Meals Time-Life Books,1995 Readily available ingredients and simple cooking techniques make these recipes a snap You cook with minimum fuss and maximum results What Life was Like in Europe's Golden Age Time-Life Books,1999 Examines the ideas and events surrounding the new religious freedom commerce and culture that embraced Northern Europe in the 16th and 17th centuries Books in Print ,1993-09 V 1 Authors A D v 2
