The Good Women Of China Hidden Voices By Xinran:

The Good Women Of China Xinran, 2010-03-30 For eight groundbreaking years Xinran presented a radio programme in China during which she invited women to call in and talk about themselves Broadcast every evening Words on the Night Breeze became famous through the country for its unflinching portrayal of what it meant to be a woman in modern China Centuries of obedience to their fathers husbands and sons followed by years of political turmoil had made women terrified of talking openly about their feelings Xinran won their trust and through her compassion and ability to listen became the first woman to hear their true stories This unforgettable book is the story of how Xinran negotiated the minefield of restrictions imposed on Chinese journalists to reach out to women across the country Through the vivid intimacy of her writing the women s voices confide in the reader sharing their deepest secrets for the first time Their stories changed Xinran s understanding of China forever Her book will reveal the lives of Chinese women to the West as never before The Good Women of China Xinran, 2009 This work presents women s stories collected by Xinran Xue when she was hosting a radio phone in programme about women s lives in China The stories reveal what it means to be a woman in today s China telling of almost inconceivable suffering as well as love in the face of cruelty and politics The Good Women of China Xinran, 2010-03-30 , Good Women of China (Signed) Xinran Xinran, 2002-10-03 A Galaxy of Immortal Women Brian Griffith, 2012-05-15 The goddess tradition remakes China and the world Women Writers in Postsocialist China Kay Schaffer, Xianlin Song, 2013-07-31 What does it mean to read from elsewhere Women Writers in Postsocialist China introduces readers to a range and variety of contemporary Chinese women s writing which has seen phenomenal growth in recent years The book addresses the different ways women s issues are understood in China and the West attending to the processes of translation adaptation and the grafting of new ideas with existing Chinese understandings of gender feminism subjectivity consumerism and post modernism By focusing on women s autobiographical biographical fictional and historical writing the book engages in a transcultural flow of ideas between western and indigenous Chinese feminisms Taking account of the accretions of social cultural geographic literary economic and political movements and trends cultural formations and ways of thinking it asks how the texts and the concepts they negotiate might be understood in the social and cultural spaces within China and how they might be interpreted differently elsewhere in the global locations in which they circulate The book argues that women centred writing in China has a direct bearing on global feminist theory and practice This critical study of selected genres and writers highlights the shifts in feminist perspectives within contemporary local and global cultural landscapes Women of China , 2005 From a Marxist Feminist Point of View Nancy Holmstrom, 2024-07-15 This book shows the fruitfulness of approaching key philosophical and political questions from a Marxist feminist point of view The idea is that different modes of production like capitalism and feudalism have structures relations of production which shape and limit the potentials for human emancipation in general and women s freedom in particular Capitalism is then understood as a framework within which other relations of oppression operate with more or less salience in different times and places Each of the essays takes this basic approach to key philosophical questions about freedom rationality and human nature Buy Me the Sky Xinran,2016-04-07 Fast paced and punchy accomplished Independent With journalistic acumen and a novelist s flair Xinran tells the remarkable stories of men and women born in China after 1979 the recent generations raised under China s single child policy At a time when the country continues to transform at the speed of light these generations of precious one and onlies are burdened with expectation yet have often been brought up without any sense of responsibility Within their families they are revered as little emperors and suns although such cossetting can come at a high price isolation confusion and an inability to deal with life s challenges From the businessman s son unable to pack his own suitcase to the PhD student who pulled herself out of extreme rural poverty Xinran shows how these generations embody the hopes and fears of a great nation at a time of unprecedented change It is a time of fragmentation heart breaking and inspiring in equal measure in which capitalism vies with communism the city with the countryside and Western opportunity with Eastern tradition Through the fascinating stories of these only children we catch a startling glimpse of the emerging face of China Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Good Women of China Proof Xinran Xinran,2002-07 RiverTime Mary A. Hood,2008-03-20 In this engaging travelogue of our world s rivers great and small poet and biologist Mary A Hood reflects on rivers as creators of place Recounting her journeys along portions of the Mississippi the Danube the Amazon the Yangtze the Ganges the Nile and a dozen small U S rivers Hood weaves together natural history current environmental and conservation issues encounters with endangered plants and animals and tells some interesting tales along the way Like a river the book begins small with essays that are narrowly focused on themes of environment and place such as the need to write our world Three Rivers how fires and corporations control the West the Flathead the effect of wind farms on a small town in western New York the Conhocton the giant redwoods and how they were preserved the Klamath and the search for moose in the great north woods the Penobscot The second section expands the themes of environment and place and looks at great world rivers their long histories their biological diversity the effects of human use and tourism and the paradox of human reverence and destruction From endangered species to invasive species from corporate control of national parks to wind farms from urban sprawl to efforts at conservation and restoration RiverTime offers insights into our relationship to the environment in the twenty first century The Mystified Boat Frank Stewart,Herbert J. Batt,2003 In the 1980s important contemporary Western works began to be translated into Chinese Postmodernist Chinese authors began to present their readers with experimental stories that challenged the conventions of culture and ideology This volume gathers the most exciting of these writers Seeing in Spanish Ryan Prout,Tilman Altenberg,2011-05-25 Seeing in Spanish brings together 22 chapters which share a focus on aspects of visual cultures from the Spanish speaking world Together these chapters address film photography cover art body art posters television architecture ekphrasis biography murals graffiti and
