The Football Man Arthur Hopcraft, 2013-08-01 Football matters as poetry does to some people and alcohol does to others Football is inherent in the people There is more eccentricity in deliberately disregarding it than in devoting a life to it The way we play the game organize it and reward it reflects the kind of community we are Written just two years after England's 66 triumph when the national game was at its zenith Arthur Hopcraft's The Football Man is repeatedly quoted as the best book ever written about the sport This definitive magisterial study of football and society profiles includes interviews with all time greats like Bobby Charlton George Best Alf Ramsay Stanley Matthews Matt Busby and Nat Lofthouse It is a snapshot of a pivotal era in sporting history changes and decisions were made in the sixties that would create the game we know today For many who are disenchanted with the modern game the grip of businesses and corporations the dominance of advertising the extortionate ticket prices and inaccessible matches the fickleness of teenage millionaires The Football Man takes the reader back to the heart and soul of the national game when pitches were muddy and the players were footballers not brands Voted in May 2005 as one of Observer's top sports books of all time this is a long awaited reissue of the classic football bible Masterpiece among sports books Guardian It remains one of my favourite football reads Graham Taylor The Football Man

NICKED! Brian Scovell, 2022-12-01 This light hearted book is not wholly about the perils of trying to park but it has a strong theme about cricket and football and it is also a memoir as a veteran sports writer for the Daily Mail I write about 350 or more personalities I've interviewed or known about My hero was Denis Compton I used to listen to a portable radio in hospital aged 11 about his dynamic batting after WW2 Another hero was the great all round cricketer Lord Learie Constantine whom I wrote his articles in the Daily Sketch He was the first Afro Caribbean to be a Lord and as a barrister he broke the colour bar in the High Court when he won damages of five guineas also gave advice for the Race Relations Acts No one has done more for diversity than this remarkable lovable man and today's generation haven't heard of him sadly We are campaigning for a statue of him in the Parliament Estate to add to the three black statues there compared to nearly 300 white statues in the borough of Westminster British Book News, 1969
