Why Are We In Vietnam By Norman Mailer:

Why Are We in Vietnam? Norman Mailer, 2017-07-18 It is impossible to walk away from this novel without being sharply reminded of the fact that Norman Mailer is a writer of extraordinary ability Chicago Tribune Featuring a new foreword by Mailer scholar Maggie McKinley Published nearly twenty years after Norman Mailer's fiction debut The Naked and the Dead this acclaimed novel further solidified the author's stature as one of the most important figures in contemporary American literature Randal D Jethroe Texas's most precocious teenager recounts a brutal hunting trip he took to Alaska in a story of fathers and sons myth and masculinity character and corruption Both entertaining and profound Why Are We in Vietnam is an exceptional timeless work awaiting discovery by a new generation of readers Praise for Why Are We in Vietnam A book of great integrity All the old qualities are here Mailer's remarkable feeling for the sensory event the detail the way it was his power and energy The New York Review of Books A tour de force a treatise on human nature The Dallas Morning News A brilliant piece of writing Newsweek Original courageous and provocative The New York Times

Epic Voices Robert Arlett, 1996 The path of the modern novel has been marked by a dialectic of seemingly rival impulses while certain novelists have sought to deal with wide scale social and political dimensions of modern existence others have concerned themselves primarily with interior sensibility LIFE, 1967-09-15 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use The Cinema of Norman Mailer Justin Bozung, 2017-09-07 The Cinema of Norman Mailer Film is Like Death not only examines the enfant terrible writer's thoughts on cinema but also features interviews with Norman Mailer himself The Cinema of Norman Mailer also explores Mailer's cinema through previously published and newly commissioned essays written by an array of film and literary scholars enthusiasts and those with a personal philosophical connection to Mailer This volume discusses the National Book Award and Pulitzer Prize winning author and filmmaker's six films created during the years of 1947 and 1987 and contends to show how Mailer's films can be best read as cinematic delineations that visually represent many of the writer's metaphysical and ontological concerns and ideas that appear in his texts from the 1950s until his passing in 2007 By re-examining Mailer's cinema through these new perspectives one may be awarded not just a deeper understanding of Mailer's desire to make films but also find a new alternative vision of Mailer himself Norman Mailer was not just a writer but more he was one of the most influential Postmodern artists of the twentieth century with deep roots in the cinema He allowed the cinema to not only influence his aesthetic approach but sanctioned it as his easiest crafted analogy for exploring sociological imagination in his writing Mailer once suggested Film is legitimately more interesting than books and with that in mind readers of Norman Mailer might begin to rethink his oeuvre through the viewfinder of the film medium as he was equally as passionate about working within cinema

as he was about literature itself      Warrior-Writers of World War II Lee Congdon, 2025-02-28 Warrior Writers of World War II delivers a thorough study of Americans who saw combat in World War II survived and returned home to become famous writers It considers the works of 16 important authors among them J D Salinger John Ciardi and James Jones exploring these men s war experiences and their reflection in their writings This includes what they learned about themselves and even more important what they can teach the rest of us about war and peace good and evil hatred and pity honor and dishonor fate and chance and about the sustaining power of comradeship This critical overview will be useful to general readers and academics seeking to deepen their understanding of the impact World War II has had on twentieth century literature      Writing after War John Limon, 1994-07-07 In Writing After War John Limon develops a theory of the relationship of war in general to literature in general in order to make sense of American literary history in particular Applying the work of war theorists Carl von Clausewitz and Elaine Scarry John Limon argues that The Iliad inaugurates Western literature on the failure of war to be duel like to have a beautiful form War s failure is literature s justification American literary history is demarcated by wars as if literary epochs like the history of literature itself required bloodshed to commence But in chapters on periods of literary history from realism generally taken to be a product of the Civil War through modernism usually assumed to be a prediction or result of the Great War up to postmodernism which followed World War II and spanned Vietnam Limon argues that despite the looming presence of war in American history the techniques that define these periods are essentially ways of not writing war From James and Twain through Fitzgerald Faulkner and even Hemingway to Pynchon our national literary history is not hopelessly masculinist Limon argues Instead it arrives naturally at Bobbie Ann Mason and Maxine Hong Kingston Kingston brings the discussion full circle The Woman Warrior like The Iliad appears to condemn the fall from duel to war that is literature s endless opening      Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies      The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature Jay Parini, 2004 The Encyclopedia of American Literature gathers together 350 essays from over 190 leading scholars on the whole of American literature from European discovery to the present At the core of the Encyclopedia lie 250 essays on poets playwrights essayists and novelists Figures such as Whitman Melville Faulkner Frost and Morrison are discussed in detail with each examined in the context of his or her times an assessment of the writer s current reputation a bibliography of major works and a list of major critical and biographical works about the writer Fifty entries on major works such as Moby Dick Song of Myself Walden The Great Gatsby The Waste Land Their Eyes

Were Watching God Death of a Salesman and Beloved place the work in its historical context and offer a range of possibilities with regard to critical approach The Encyclopedia also contains essays on literary movements periods and themes pulling together a broad range of information and making connections between them Each entry has its own primary and annotated secondary bibliography and a system of cross references helps readers locate information with ease The Encyclopedia of American Literature is an outstanding reference source for students studying authors or particular pieces of literature libraries looking for one comprehensive source and readers interested in American literature its authors and its connection with various areas of study

Sacrifice and Modern War Writing Alex Houen, 2024-09-05 Sacrifice and Modern War Writing presents the most extensive study to date of twentieth and twenty first century war writing Examining works by over 110 authors Alex Houen surveys how war writing explores sacrifice in relation to major modern and contemporary conflicts from the First World War to the War on Terror Various conceptions of sacrifice are examined including Christian Jewish Islamic and secular The discussion ranges across literary portrayals of multiple sacrificial practices including ancient rituals of child sacrifice martyrdom scapegoating and suicide bombing Houen builds an innovative interdisciplinary approach to how war sacrifice and their representations interrelate and a wide range of Anglophone literature is discussed including novels memoirs short stories essays manifestoes elegies ballads and lyric poetry Whereas critics and theorists have tended to emphasize that war's reality exceeds any attempt to represent it Houen contends that political religious and cultural frames of sacrifice have continued to play a significant part in shaping how war's reality is shaped and experienced Those frames are inextricably tied to modes of representation which include symbolism and mimesis Sacrifice and Modern War Writing explores how sacrificial killing in war is itself riddled with symbolic transfigurations and mimetic exchanges and it builds a fresh approach by arguing that the figurative and imaginative aspects of literary writing ironically become its very means of engaging closely with the reality of war's sacrifices That approach also develops by using the literary analyses to critique and revise various prominent theories of sacrifice and war

New York Magazine , 1968-05-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

The Errant Art of Moby-Dick William V. Spanos, 1995 In The Errant Art of Moby Dick one of America's most distinguished critics reexamines Melville's monumental novel and turns the occasion into a meditation on the history and implications of canon formation In Moby Dick a work virtually ignored and discredited at the time of its publication William V Spanos uncovers a text remarkably suited as a foundation for a New Americanist critique of the ideology based on Puritan origins that was codified in the canon established by Old Americanist critics from F O Matthiessen to Lionel Trilling But Spanos also shows with the novel still as his focus the limitations of this New Americanist discourse and its failure to escape the totalizing imperial perspective it finds in its predecessor Combining Heideggerian ontology with a sociopolitical perspective derived primarily from Foucault the reading of Moby Dick that forms the center of this book demonstrates that the traditional identification of Melville's novel as a romance renders it complicitous in the discourse of the Cold War At the same time Spanos shows how New Americanist criticism overlooks the degree to which Moby Dick anticipates not only America's self representation as the savior of the world against communism but also the emergent postmodern and anti imperial discourse deployed against such an image Spanos's critique reveals the extraordinary relevance of Melville's novel as a post Cold War text foreshadowing not only the self destructive end of the historical formation of the American cultural identity in the genocidal assault on Vietnam but also the reactionary labeling of the current era as the end of history This provocative and challenging study presents not only a new view of the development of literary history in the United States but a devastating critique of the genealogy of ideology in the American cultural establishment     Mailer Mary V.
