Aids In Africa Its Present And Future Impact:

AIDS in Africa Tony Barnett, Piers M. Blaikie, 1992 In Europe and America AIDS although terrifying in its potential and devastating to those whom it affects is still a minority disease In Africa the impact of AIDS is widespread and the disease has already spread largely into the heterosexual community particularly in the economically active age groups For a continent already weakened by drought poverty civil war and debt this latest catastrophe threatens to be the most severe problem Africa has ever faced It could result in millions of deaths not only directly from the disease but also from starvation caused by economic collapse Forced migration and refugees could spread the disease even further thus inducing a particularly vicious circle of debility and death

AIDS in Africa V. Lovell, 2002 This book examines the epidemic of AIDS in Africa poses questions about the practical and ethical possibilities of making HIV cocktails available on a wide scale and provides an up to date bibliography on AIDS in Africa

AIDS in Africa Tony Barnett, Piers Blaikie, 1992-02-14 Terrifying in its potential and devastating in its impact AIDS is now widespread in a number of African countries Estimates suggest that as many as five and a half million people on the continent are currently carrying the virus The AIDS epidemic is among the most severe problems faced by Africans already weakened by drought poverty civil war and debt Tony Barnett and Piers Blaikie who have studied the impact of AIDS in Uganda present a sensitive and compelling analysis of human cost of this dread disease in Africa

The Political Economy of AIDS in Africa Nana K. Poku, 2017-07-05 Sub Saharan Africa is a region devastated by HIV AIDS The extent of the epidemic is only now becoming clear as increasing numbers of people with HIV are becoming ill In the absence of massively expanded prevention treatment and care efforts the AIDS death toll on the continent is set to escalate rapidly Despite progress being achieved in localized settings the alarming statistics reflect the continuing failure of advanced countries to mount a response that matches the scale and severity of the African HIV AIDS crisis Over and above the colossal personal suffering the dire social and economic consequences for fragile nation states are already being felt not only in health but in education industry agriculture transport human resources and economies in general Countries already crippled by drought poverty debt forced migration and civil war must now contend with massive deterioration in child survival rates and life expectancy the erosion of the economic family base massive and insupportable demands on health and public services chronic labour shortages and volatile national security Through a critical and detailed exploration of specific case studies this invaluable volume brings together an unparalleled array of international contributors to redefine the political and economic contours of this calamitous epidemic It examines the impact of the shortfalls in the Global Fund allocation the slow pace of administrative processing of aid and the weaknesses of institutional responses to the crisis from African countries and their partners in the global health community It is essential reading for all concerned with public health epidemiology HIV AIDS research globalization development Africa and indeed our shared future Features include Unique assessments of HIV AIDS and its impact on democracy and governance in African states Wide ranging regional and country studies by the foremost thinkers in their fields Multi disciplinary contributions from areas including Politics Sociology Public Health and Development Studies Compelling and convincing evidence thematic in approach Innovative and culturally specific insights for long term planning care and support AIDS and Development in Africa Kempe R. Hope,1999 AIDS and Development in Africa demonstrates the human consequences of AIDS and the efforts being made by governments individuals families villages communities and non governmental organizations to respond to the pandemic You will read beyond the usual analysis of demographics and receive much more substantial assessments and analyses of the burden on people economies and health care systems of the African countries AIDS Sexuality and Gender in Africa Carolyn Baylies,Janet Bujra,2002-09-11 This book draws on first hand research and in depth investigations carried out by a team of researchers They study the severity of the AIDS epidemic and the threat it poses to the population and society in Tanzania and Zambia When AIDS meets poverty Carolyne I. Nombo,2023-07-31 This book is the fifth in the AWLAE series The AWLAE titles address the issue of gendered impacts of HIV AIDS in sub Saharan Africa The present book is based on research in a village in Tanzania about the role of social capital in mitigating AIDS impacts at the level of the household and within the local community It contributes to the current knowledge base on social capital by questioning general assumptions on the role of social capital in rural livelihoods in a context of high HIV AIDS prevalence Using a combination of qualitative and quantitative methods the research yielded empirical evidence about the limitations of social capital as a resource for the poor Both the generation and sustenance of social capital at household level are severely challenged by declining access to other livelihood assets as a consequence of HIV AIDS In a situation where HIV AIDS is still shrouded in secrecy and stigma at the community level a decline of trust in social relations and community institutions as well as a proliferation of witchcraft accusations could be observed This insightful publication provides a timely contribution to the discourse on the significance of social capital for the poor ensuring that social scientists will never look at social capital in quite the same way HIV/AIDS, Illness, and African Well-being Toyin Falola,Matthew M. Heaton,2007 A comprehensive view of health issues currently plaguing Africa with an emphasis on the HIV AIDS pandemic HIV AIDS Illness and African Well Being highlights the specific health problems facing Africa today most particularly the HIV AIDS pandemic Taking a multi disciplinary approach the book presents not only various healthcrises but also the larger historical and contemporary contexts within which they must be understood and managed Chapters offering analysis of specific illness case studies and the effects of globalization and underdevelopmenton health provide an overarching context in which HIV AIDS and other health related concerns can be understood The contributions on the HIV AIDS pandemic grapple with the complications of national and international policies thesociological effects of the pandemic and policy options for the future HIV AIDS Illness and African Well Being thus provides a comprehensive view of health issues currently plaguing the continent and the many differentways that scholars are interpreting the health outlook in Africa Contributors Obijiofor Aginam Yacouba Banhoro

Women at Risk: Issues in the Primary Prevention of AIDS Ann O'Leary, Loretta Sweet Jemmott, 1995-09-30
Women comprise the group that is rapidly becoming infected with HIV and while some prevention efforts show signs of promise many unresolved issues remain This pivotal volume presents up to date research findings offering an in depth look into issues germane to preventing AIDS in women Eminent researchers and health care providers focus on specific groups of women based on ethnicity relationship factors and behavior

Culture and Sexual Risk Hans ten Brummelhuis, Gilbert Herdt, 2004-08-02
Brummelhuis and Herdt provide an intense examination of sexual risk and its cultural configurations heretofore missing from the AIDS literature The chapters on Western gay men speak to the pressing methodological conceptual and theoretical needs in HIV AIDS research while providing an understanding and documentation of gay men's lives within the emerging corpus of lesbian and gay studies Chapters on the Philippines Brazil Haiti and Africa explore the cultural political and economic contexts surrounding the transmission and prevention of HIV AIDS in these cultures

The Elgar Companion to Development Studies David Clark, 2006
If handbooks can be inspiring this is it Like a true companion it takes in its stride conversations both big and small Its entries do not just present an international and multidisciplinary mix but true to life they work on several different scales And importantly the book makes its authority evident For it is like an extended website but with all the added advantages of an encyclopaedia that actually tells you about the authors and the sources on which they have drawn The resulting compilation is highly intelligent thoughtful and above all usable

Dame Marilyn Strathern University of Cambridge UK The Elgar Companion to Development Studies is a major production in the development studies field authored by a star studded cast of contributors With 136 entries covering a vast range of topics it should quickly establish itself as a leading work of reference We should all feel indebted to David Clark who has successfully brought this substantial publishing project to completion John Teye University of Oxford UK This is a most comprehensive handbook on development studies It brings together a wide varied array of carefully crafted summaries of 136 key topics in development by an international cast of well respected academics and other experts in respective areas of study The handbook is heavily interdisciplinary organically combining economic political historical social cultural institutional ethical and human aspects of development While the wide range of entries might appear as a simple glossary listing or an encyclopedic collection each of the 136 entries offers more depth and discussion than the average handbook Viewed in this light this companion is highly likely to become known as a leading reference work on the topic Highly recommended Ismael Hossein Zadeh Choice The Elgar Companion to Development Studies is an innovative and unique reference book that includes original contributions covering development economics as well as development studies broadly defined This major new Companion brings together an international panel of experts from varying backgrounds who discuss theoretical ethical and practical issues relating to economic social cultural institutional political and human aspects of development in poor countries It also includes a selection of intellectual biographies of leading development thinkers While the Companion is organised along the lines of an encyclopaedia each of its 136 entries provide more depth and discussion than the average reference book Its entries are also extremely diverse they draw on different social science disciplines incorporate various mixes of theoretical and applied work embrace a variety of methodologies and represent different views of the world The Elgar Companion to Development Studies will therefore appeal to students scholars researchers policymakers and practitioners in the field of development as well as the interested layman

Population and Poverty Naunihal Singh,2002 Preventing and Mitigating AIDS in Sub-Saharan Africa National Research Council,Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education,Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education,Panel on Data and Research Priorities for Arresting AIDS in Sub-Saharan Africa,1996-03-28 The AIDS epidemic in Sub Saharan Africa continues to affect all facets of life throughout the subcontinent Deaths related to AIDS have driven down the life expectancy rate of residents in Zambia Kenya and Uganda with far reaching implications This book details the current state of the AIDS epidemic in Africa and what is known about the behaviors that contribute to the transmission of the HIV infection It lays out what research is needed and what is necessary to design more effective prevention programs

Social Protection and Cash Transfers to Strengthen Families Affected by HIV and AIDS Michelle Adato,Lucy Bassett,2012-01-01 AIDS, Intimacy and Care in Rural KwaZulu-Natal Patricia C. Henderson,2011 This book describes how HIV AIDS became part of the lives of the people of the mountainous Okhahlamba in the South African province of KwaZulu Natal Based on extensive research in the area between 2003 and 2006 the author shows what impact the disease had and still does for adults and children and the different ways people tried to find answers to the devastating presence of HIV AIDS Henderson focuses on informal care by family members and volunteers at a time when anti retroviral drugs were not yet available She also shows what it meant to the community once the drugs became available

Ecologies and Politics of Health Brian Hastings King,Kelley A. Crews,2013 Human health exists at the interface of environment and society Decades of work by researchers practitioners and policy makers has shown that health is shaped by a myriad of factors including the biophysical environment climate political economy gender social networks culture and infrastructure Yet while there is emerging interest within the natural and social sciences on the social and ecological dimensions of human disease and health there have been few studies that address them in an integrated manner Ecologies and Politics of Health brings together contributions from the natural and social sciences to examine three key themes the ecological dimensions of health and vulnerability the socio political dimensions of human health and the intersections between the ecological and social dimensions of health The thirteen case study chapters collectively present results from Africa Asia Latin America the United States Australia and global cities Section one interrogates the utility of several theoretical frameworks and conventions for understanding health within complex social and ecological systems Section two concentrates upon empirically grounded and quantitative work that collectively redefines health in a more expansive way that extends beyond the absence of disease Section three examines the role of the state and management interventions through historically rich approaches centering on both disease and non disease related examples from Latin America Eastern Africa and the United States Finally Section four highlights how health vulnerabilities are differentially constructed with concomitant impacts for disease management and policy interventions This timely volume advances knowledge on health environment interactions disease vulnerabilities global development and political ecology It offers theoretical and methodological contributions which will be a valuable resource for researchers and practitioners in geography public health biology anthropology sociology and ecology

Voices of the Poor in Africa

Elizabeth Allo Isichei, 2004 An ambitious new approach to African studies utilizing indigenous sources to bring back the voices of the native Africans in their own words rather than that of colonizers and foreigners Elizabeth Isichei explores the Atlantic slave trade as reflected in the poetics of rumour and the poetics of memory an approach different from the quantitative and demographic studies which have transformed the subject over the past twenty years To this and to her study of popular consciousness in the colony and postcolony she brings together a wide range of disciplines ethnography art and art history and contemporary literary theory among them to look at the intellectual history of Africa from African rather than European premises The result is a history of popular consciousness which shows the experiences of ordinary people often in protest to an ongoing experience of exploitation Elizabeth Isichei is Professor of Religious Studies Otago University Dunedin New Zealand and author of over a dozen books on African history and religion She holds an Oxford doctorate and a D Litt from the University of Canterbury and is a fellow of the Royal Society N Z

Reclaiming the Human Sciences and Humanities Through African Perspectives Helen Lauer, Kofi Anyidoho, 2012 This compilation was inspired by an international symposium held on the Legon campus in September 2003 Hosted by the CODESRIA African Humanities Institute Programme the symposium had the theme Canonical Works and Continuing Innovation in African Arts Humanities Social Protection for Africa's Children Sudhanshu Handa, Stephen Devereux, Douglas Webb, 2010-10-04 Social protection is an increasingly important part of the social policy dialogue in Africa and yet because of its relatively new place in a rapidly evolving agenda evidence on critical design choices such as targeting and on impacts of social protection interventions is mostly limited to case studies or small unrepresentative surveys This impressive collection makes a major contribution to building the evidence base drawing on rigorous analysis of social protection programmes in several African countries as well as original research and thinking on key topical issues in the social protection discourse Social Protection for Africa's Children is divided into four parts The first presents economic and human rights based arguments for social protection as an integral part of the social policy menu in Africa This is followed by a part on targeting which highlights some of the key policy trade offs faced when deciding between alternative target groups The third part presents rigorous quantitative evidence on the impact of social cash transfers on children from programmes in South Africa Malawi and Ethiopia and the final part addresses a set of issues related to social justice and human rights This book significantly advances existing knowledge about social protection for children in Africa both conceptually and empirically It makes a strong case for social protection interventions that address the short term amelioration and long term structural needs of children and shows that programming in this sector for children is both feasible and achievable Policy makers and practitioners in this sector will have in this book the theoretical and empirical evidence necessary to advance social protection for Africa's children in the decades to come Furthermore this book should be an essential resource to postgraduates and students focussing on development economics in Africa
