conception through to the end of life Venice Riccardo Calimani,2001 A General Catalogue of Books Bernard Quaritch,1868 In Silico Technologies in Drug Target Identification and Validation Darryl Leon,Scott Markel,2006-06-13

The pharmaceutical industry relies on numerous well designed experiments involving high throughput techniques and in silico approaches to analyze potential drug targets These in silico methods are often predictive yielding faster and less expensive analyses than traditional in vivo or in vitro procedures In Silico Technologies in Drug Target Identification and Validation addresses the challenge of testing a growing number of new potential targets and reviews currently available in silico approaches for identifying and validating these targets The book emphasizes computational tools public and commercial databases mathematical methods and software for interpreting complex experimental data The book describes how these tools are used to visualize a target structure identify binding sites and predict behavior World renowned researchers cover many topics not typically found in most informatics books including functional annotation siRNA design pathways text mining ontologies systems biology database management data pipelining and pharmacogenomics Covering issues that range from prescreening target selection to genetic modeling and valuable data integration In Silico Technologies in Drug Target Identification and Validation is a self contained and practical guide to the various computational tools that can accelerate the identification and validation stages of drug target discovery and determine the biological functionality of potential targets more effectively Daniel E Levy editor of the Drug Discovery Series is the founder of DEL BioPharma a consulting service for drug discovery programs Parental Influence on Child Social and Emotional Functioning

Xiaoqin Zhu,Diya Dou,Thanos Karatzias,Tan Tang,2024-03-20 Social and emotional functioning interpersonal interactions social adjustment emotional well being and mental health among children and adolescents has drawn growing attention from academics practitioners parents educators and policymakers Worldwide it is agreed that social and emotional development is a result of individual context interactions Particularly socialization perspectives regard parenting as the primary factor that shapes child and adolescent development to a large extent Meanwhile the ecological perspective highlights the bi directional nature of interactions between children and parents by which they affect each other Parenting can be parents active socialization actions that influence their children s development i e parent effect it can also be parents reactions to their children s social and emotional functioning i e child effect Women's Lives Claire A. Etough,Judith S. Bridges,2015-07-14 Women s Lives A Psychological Exploration 3rd Edition draws on a wealth of the literature to present a rich range of experiences and issues of relevance to girls and women This text offers the unique combination of a chronological approach to gender that is embedded within topical chapters Cutting edge and comprehensive each chapter integrates current material on women differing in age ethnicity social class nationality sexual orientation and ableness The third edition reflects substantial changes in the field while maintaining its empirical focus through engaging writing student activities and critical thinking exercises With over 2 100 new references emphasizing the latest research and theories the authors continue to pique interests in psychology of women Physical Metallurgy R.W. Cahn,P. Haasen,1996-02-09 This is the fourth edition of a work which first appeared in 1965 The first edition had approximately one thousand pages in a single volume This latest volume has almost three thousand pages in 3 volumes which is a fair measure of the pace at which the discipline of physical metallurgy has grown in the intervening 30 years Almost all the topics previously treated are still in evidence in this version which is approximately 50% bigger than the previous edition All the chapters have been either totally rewritten by new authors or thoroughly revised and expanded either by the third edition authors alone or jointly with new co authors Three chapters on new topics have been added dealing with dry corrosion oxidation and protection of metal surfaces the dislocation theory of the mechanical behavior of intermetallic compounds and most novel a chapter on polymer science for metallurgists which analyses the conceptual mismatch between metallurgists and polymer scientists way of looking at materials Special care has been taken throughout all chapters to incorporate the latest experimental research results and theoretical insights Several thousand citations to the research and review literature are included in this edition There is a very detailed subject index as well as a comprehensive author index The original version of this book has long been regarded as the standard text in physical metallurgy and this thoroughly rewritten and updated version will retain this status Optical Fiber Sensor Technology

L.S. Grattan,B.T. Meggitt,2013-03-09 Environmental and chemical sensors in optical fiber sensor technology The nature of the environment in which we live and work and the precarious state of many aspects of the natural environment has been a major lesson for scientists over the last few decades Public awareness of the issues involved is high and often coupled with a scepticism of the ability of the scientist and engineer to provide an adequate or even rapid solution to the preservation of the environment before further damage is done and to achieve this with a mini mum of expenditure Monitoring of the various aspects of the environment whether it be external or internal to ourselves and involving chemical physical or biomedical parameters is an essential process for the well being of mankind and of the individual Legis lative requirements set new standards for measurement and control all around us which must be met by the most appropriate of the technologies available commensurate with the costs involved Optical fiber sensor technology has a major part to play in this process both to complement existing technologies and to promote new solutions to difficult measurement issues The developments in new sources and detectors covering wider ranges of the electromagnetic spectrum with higher sensitivity allow the use of techniques that some time ago would have been considered inappropriate or lacking in sufficient sensitivity

Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing Betty R. Ferrell,Nessa Coyle,Judith A. Paice,2015 The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing is the definitive text on nursing care of the seriously ill and dying It is a comprehensive work addressing all aspects of palliative care including physical psychological social and spiritual needs The text is written by leaders in the field and includes an impressive section on international palliative care Each chapter includes case examples and a strong evidence base to support the highest quality of care The book is rich with tables and figures offering practical resources for clinical practice across all settings of care and encompassing all ages from pediatrics to geriatrics Francisco Goya Tim McNeese,2008 Between the opening of the French Revolution in 1789 and the end of the Napoleonic Wars in 1815 Spanish artist Francisco Goya painted what he saw around him everything from peasants to priests majas to monarchs courtesans to country folk This title helps to learn about this early 19th century artist Nature Sir Norman Lockyer,1889
