The Art of Survival Joseph Chikowero, Anna Chitando, Angeline M. Madongonda, Government Phiri, 2015-11-25 The Art of Survival Depictions of Zimbabwe and the Zimbabwean in Crisis offers a fresh interdisciplinary examination of a period against which development in Zimbabwe is often measured one epitomized by the severe shortages and runaway inflation of 2008 While journalistic stories of the 1998 2008 era often privilege the reductive stories of woe defeat and crushed hopes this volume explores how survival was still possible in those circumstances The book offers insights into how ordinary Zimbabweans battled the odds by making startling innovations in language use to legitimize new survival strategies how they weaved new songs and reinterpreted old ones to fight for survival how social institutions such as churches reinterpreted popular gospel and how authors playwrights and dramatists crafted works that acknowledge the unprecedented difficulties and yet find humour laughter and love in unusual places This work will appeal to both scholars who will appreciate the depth of the analysis and the general reader

Sub-Saharan Political Cultures of Deceit in Language, Literature, and the Media, Volume I Esther Mavengano, Isaac Mhute, 2023-11-18 This two volume set charts a cross disciplinary discursive terrain that proffers rich insights about deceit in contemporary postcolonial Sub Saharan African politics In an attempt to produce a nuanced and multi faceted academic dialoguing platform the two volumes have a particular focus on the aspects of treachery fear of difference oppositional politics and discourses semiotics of mis self representation The major aim of the proposed volumes is to contribute toward the often problematised conversations about the unfolding post colonial Sub Saharan world which is topical in decolonial and Pan African studies The volumes seek to place political thinking and postcolonial political systems under the scholarly gaze with the view to highlight and enhance the participation of African cross disciplinary scholarship in the postcolonial political processes of the continent Most significantly it is through such probing of the limitations of our own disciplinary perspectives which can help us appreciate the complexity of the postcolonial Sub Saharan African politics The first volume uses Zimbabwe as a case study while the second volume broadens to examine postcolonial politics in Sub Saharan Africa more broadly

Migration, Crisis and Temporality at the Zimbabwe-South Africa Border Kudakwashe Vanyoro, 2024-02-29 This insightful book explores the governance of immobilities and temporality in African migration It shares lessons from the experiences of Zimbabwean migrants fleeing economic crisis to the South African town of Musina and asks what the work of state and non state actors there tell us about the management of immobile people and places

From History to Herstory Paul Leshota, Maxwell Musingafi, Itumeleng Mokhele, Makhulu Makumane, 2024-11-15 This book seeks to contribute to reflections done on the gender equality agenda by combing through oral and written resources to unearth and document heroic displays of leadership by women of Africa in general and of Southern Africa in particular that remain hidden under the rubble of Eurocentric colonial and African patriarchal archive and hegemony It seeks to open the archive of Southern Africa to unearth the names of women who have played an important role in shaping the course of Southern Africa history in every way While acknowledging the systematic marginalisation of women s voices and identities by scribal patriarchy the aim is to bring to life women s experiences and voices through critical engagement of sources of knowledge available to Africa in general and southern Africa in particular The chapters of this book will contribute to the debate on gender equality and women empowerment by women themselves within the framework of Sustainable Development Goals especially SDG 5

Migration in Southern Africa Pragna Rugunanan, Nomkhosi Xulu-Gama, 2022-05-30 This open access Regional Reader proposes new ways of theorizing migration in Southern Africa by arguing that traditional western forms of theorizing do not adequately fit the South South migration context It explores the existing definitions of a migrant with a view to conceptualise a definition which will speak to the complexities envisioning a more inclusive Southern African region The book investigates the various levels of migration moving from the local rural to urban and urban to rural to cross border migration middle class versus working class migrant household livelihoods livelihoods procurement versus wage earning social capital networks and how they make meaning of their circumstances in a foreign space It also acknowledges the intertwined issues of gender and class as important in analyzing migration processes and the chapters feature both in varying dimensions As such the book provides a great resource for students academics and policy makers

Zimbabwe's Economy Kenneth Mahuni, James Zivanomoyo, Puruweti Siyakiya, Simba Mutsvangwa, 2025-02-17 This book traces the economic history of Zimbabwe from independence to the present day Through a comprehensive historical examination it highlights the short lived successes in the early years after independence and the dwindling colonial economy as well as the economic problems of the decades that followed The authors identify crucial flaws in the country s economic policies and highlight several dilemmas in the implementation of policies that exacerbated the country s deep seated structural problems The book provides deep insights into the economic and social realities of post colonial states in Africa and offers important lessons for other African countries

Religion-Regime Relations in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Joram Tarusarira, 2023-08-01 This book explores religion regime relations in contemporary Zimbabwe to identify patterns of co operation and resistance across diverse religious institutions Using co operation and resistance as an analytical framework the book shows how different religious organisations have interacted with Emmerson Mnangagwa s Second Republic following Robert Mugabe s departure from the political scene In particular through case studies on the Zimbabwe Council of Churches Zimbabwe Catholic Bishops Conference and Pentecostals African Traditional Religions Islam and others the book explores how different religious institutions have responded to Mnangagwa s new regime Chapters highlight the complexities characterising the religion regime interface showing how the same religious organisation might co operate and resist at the same time Furthermore the book compares how religious institutions co operated or resisted Mugabe s earlier regime to identify patterns of continuity and change Overall the book highlights the challenges of deploying simplistic frames in efforts to understand the interface between politics and religion A significant contribution to global scholarship on religion regime interfaces this book will appeal to academics and students in the field of Religious Studies Political Science History and African Studies

Displacement, Elimination and Replacement of Indigenous People Kangira, Jairo, Nhemachena, Artwell, 2019-02-19 Colonial scholars have taken immense pleasure in portraying Africans as possessed by spirits but as lacking possession and ownership of their resources including land Erroneously deemed to be thoroughly spiritually possessed but lacking senses of material possession and ownership of resources Africans have been consistently dispossessed and displaced from the era of enslavement through colonialism to the neocolonial era Delving into the historiography of dispossession and displacement on the continent of Africa and in particular in Zimbabwe this book also tackles contemporary forms of dispossession and displacement manifesting in the ongoing transnational corporations land grabs in Africa wherein African peasants continue to be dispossessed and displaced Focusing on the topical issues around dispossession and repossession of land and the attendant displacements in contemporary Zimbabwe the book theorises displacements from a decolonial Pan Africanist perspective and it also unpacks various forms of displacements corporeal noncorporeal cognitive spiritual genealogical and linguistic displacements among others The book is an excellent read for scholars from a variety of disciplines such as Geography Sociology Social Anthropology History Linguistics Development Studies Science and technology Studies Jurisprudence and Social Theory Law and Philosophy The book also offers intellectual grit for policy makers and implementers civil society organisations including activists as well as thinkers interested in decolonisation and transformation

African Literature, Mother Earth and Religion Enna Sukutai Gudhlanga, 2022-03-15 This book is a collection of essays that explore the intersection of Earth Gender and Religion in African literary texts It examines cultural religious theological and philosophical traditions and their construction of perspectives and attitudes about Earth keeping and gender This publication is critical given the current global environmental crisis and its impact on African and global communities The book is multidisciplinary in approach literary environmental theological and sociological exploring the intersection of African creative work religion and the environment in their construction of Earth and gender It presents how the gendered interconnectedness of the natural environment with its broad spirituality and deep identification with the woman features prominently in the myths folklores legends rituals sacred songs and incantations that are explored in this collection Both male and female writers in the collection laud and accept woman s enduring motif as worker symbol and guardian of the environment This interconnectedness mirrors the importance of the environment for the survival of both human and non human components of Mother Earth The ideology of women s agency is emphasised and reinforced by ecofeminist theologians namely those viewing African women as active agents working closely with the environment and not as subordinates In the context of the environmental crisis the nurturing role of women should be bolstered and the rich African traditions that conserved the environment preserved The book advocates the re engagement of women particularly their knowledge and conservation techniques and how these can become reservoirs of dying traditions This volume offers recorded traditions in African literary texts thereby connecting gender religion and the environment and helpful perspectives in Earth keeping Black British Gospel Music Dulcie A. Dixon McKenzie, Pauline E. Muir, Monique M. Ingalls, 2024-06-04 Black British Gospel Music is a dynamic and multifaceted musical practice a diasporic river rooted in the experiences of Black British Christian communities This book examines gospel music in Britain in both historical and contemporary perspectives demonstrating the importance of this this vital genre to scholars across disciplines Drawing on a plurality of voices the book examines the diverse streams that contribute to and flow out of this significant genre Gospel can be heard resonating within a diverse array of Christian worship spaces as a form of community music making in school halls and as a foundation for secular British popular music including R B hip hop and grime Everyday Crisis-Living in Contemporary Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker, Sandra Bhatasara, Manase Kudzai Chiweshe, 2021-02-15 This book examines the everyday lives of ordinary Zimbabweans in the context of national crises in post 2000 Zimbabwe Throughout the literature of Zimbabwean studies a consideration of everyday lives has been limited to informal trading and rarely applied as an analytical framework despite the importance of understanding crisis living with reference to the specific character of national crises across the African continent This edited volume is one of the first in its field to theorise everyday Zimbabwean lives within the context of crisis with three central themes addressed urban and rural lives men women and HIV and along and beyond the border Chapters incorporate topics from child marriage and sexual practices to climate change and social accountability encompassing a shift in focus from macro structures to how farm labourers students child brides and other ordinary people negotiate gender class and social dynamics within a dominant order The introductory chapter offers an innovative analytical framing for the empirical chapters which follow each providing micro studies based on original qualitative fieldwork by early career Zimbabwean scholars Everyday Crisis Living in Contemporary Zimbabwe will appeal to students and scholars of sociology anthropology and African Studies more broadly Southern African Art ,1992

Cultural Texts of Resistance in Zimbabwe Rodwell Makombe, 2021-10-01 Cultural Texts of Resistance in Zimbabwe explores how ordinary citizens appropriate and deploy cultural texts such as internet memes songs political cartoons and social media discussions as vehicles to contest hegemonic narratives of the state and insert alternative ways of imagining the future of the nation This book is a timely attempt to examine the multiple and complex dimensions of resistance in post millennial Zimbabwe through analysing different cultural productions It centres the voices of ordinary Zimbabweans by examining popular cultural texts that reflect their experiences and ways of living within the Zimbabwean crisis of the post 2000 period The book argues that subversive cultural texts have become important tools that ordinary citizens appropriate to challenge the repressive political environment and imagine different ways of writing the nation The book brings a fresh perspective to ongoing discussions on how popular cultural texts contribute to the narration of the nation especially in the context of crisis Decolonizing Contemporary Gospel Music Through Praxis Robert Beckford, 2023-08-24 Is contemporary Black British gospel music a coloniality What theological message is really conveyed in these songs In this book Robert Beckford shows how the Black British contemporary gospel music tradition is in crisis because its songs continue to be informed by colonial Christian ideas about God Beckford explores the failure of both African and African Caribbean heritage Churches to Decolonise their faith especially the doctrine of God biblical interpretation and Black ontology This predicament has left song leaders musicians and songwriters with a reservoir of ideas that aim to disavow engagement with the social historical world black Biblical interpretation and the necessity of loving blackness This book is decolonisation through praxis Reflecting on the conceptual social justice album The Jamaican Bible Remix 2017 as a communicative resource Beckford shows how to develop production tools to inscribe decolonial theological thought onto Black British music s The outcome of this process is the creation of a decolonial contemporary gospel music genre The impact of the album is demonstrated through case studies in national and international contexts Shaping Up: Art drawings, Essays, Poetry and Interpretations Rinos Mwanaka, 2021-08-31 Shaping Up is more personal and intimate than the author s previous works The poems and images reflect a period while he was living outside of Zimbabwe in South Africa The immigrant experience gives the work a more personal closed abstracted feel driven by loneliness of the exilic condition Living in the element uninhibited and careless can help deal with confounding controversial issues more easily this theme can be dissected from the drawings to do with sex sexuality and gender issues The line breaks whirls thins out sometimes is bold sometimes is barely there thus the drawings straddle the tenuousness of time and life Zimbabwe News ,1988

Contemporary Development Ethics from an African Perspective Beatrice Okyere-Manu, Stephen Nkansah Morgan, Ovet Nwosimiri, 2023-07-29 This book offers fresh academic insights reflections questions issues and approaches to development ethics taking into account African values and ethics Development ethics is an area of applied ethics that examines the moral issues involved in global social and economic transformation While it is a relatively new discipline there have been numerous scholarly publications on it from Western perspectives However only a few studies that focused on development ethics from the African perspective To address this gap the book seeks to answer critical questions such as What does development mean to Africans How can we measure development Who gets to decide and What constitutes just development in Africa With contributions from African scholars from diverse backgrounds the book covers various development themes such as Theories and approaches to development ethics in Africa Environmental Ethics and African Development Ethics Politics and African Development Migration and African development Gender Ethics and Socio economic Development in Africa Education Ethics and African development It is an essential resource for researchers lecturers and students interested in political philosophy and African culture studies The Zimdancehall Revolution Tanaka Chidora, Doreen Rumbidzai Tivenga, Ezra Chitando, 2023-11-07 Zimdancehall is a musical movement in Zimbabwe that has grown significantly since 2010 The Zimdancehall Revolution brings together critical essays on various aspects of Zimdancehall culture by scholars from diverse disciplines. Traditionally, music critics and senior academics have not taken Zimdancehall seriously, regarding it as vulgar, transient bubble gum lacking depth, and in short, a fad. There were also allegations that the lyrics influenced factionalism, incited violence, and glorified drug use and unbridled promiscuity among the youth. This book affords this movement the protracted intellectual engagement that it deserves and argues that Zimdancehall is more than just a musical genre but an everyday culture, a way of life. The genre's close association with the ghetto is telling and enables critics to look at it as a social movement, a revolution, or a raw, petulant and raging disturbance of peace by those who live their lives on the margins. It is thus a violent irruption onto the public space by marginalised young people whose presence as artistes creating art from the margins simultaneously as victims and agents circulating in a geography that escapes the limits of nationalist ideological and physical territory in a way subverts communitarian prescriptions and allows young people entry into the world, albeit in a painful, tumultuous and violent way. The essays range from the mapping of the genre's historical development to theoretical interventions in understanding the genre and its relationship with various aspects of the Zimbabwean society, like politics, gender, religion, language, dance, cultural values, and other genres.
