The Best in Contemporary Jewellery David Watkins, 1993 The Art of jewellery making has taken many forms and today the most adventurous and innovative is one in which the values of art and the individual are set above the concerns of fashion commerce and industry Emerging as an international movement in the early 1970s contemporary jewellery is now a well established category in the art world This reappraisal of the nature and role of jewellery is with gathering momentum regenerating the ancient art so that the meaning and purpose of jewellery is being redefined for the present day world Contemporary jewellery as described by these criteria has become one of the most intensive and absorbing sectors in the international arts The Best in Contemporary Jewellery is a snapshot survey of recent work by 64 outstanding artists craftsmen and designers from 14 countries Three sections Idea Object and Image offer a unique perspective on their individual attitudes and achievements Idea is a short portfolio of sketch designs and inspirations from some of the contributors while Object the main core of the book is a gallery show of several works from each artist The last section Image shows a selection of objects against the body Beautifully illustrated throughout The Best in Contemporary Jewellery is a celebration of some of the most outstanding craftsmanship and imagination displayed in recent jewellery making BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Contemporary Jewellers Roberta Bernabei, 2011-07-01 This book offers an essential reference for anyone interested in contemporary European jewellery design Through guided conversations with the major designers of today Roberta Bernabei reveals the creative conceptual and technical working practices that underpin the aesthetic of each practitioner s work In addition the dialogues shed new light on these jewellers inspiration and their ideas about functionality and the human body Each interview is supported by photographs a detailed bibliography and an appendix that locates the jewellers work in galleries museums as well as online Major jewellery artists present include Giampaolo Babetto Gijs Bakker Otto K nzli Ruudt Peters Mario Pinton and Tone Vigeland alongside members of the emergent generation Ted Noten Annamaria Zanella and Christoph Zellweger This book which opens the door to contemporary jewellery practice will be welcomed by all students lecturers and practitioners Art as Jewellery Louisa Guinness, 2018 The women in Man Ray's life as well as his reverence for the female form more broadly were reflected in his jewellery. He kept the wearer in mind with each piece never impractical or obtrusive. His jewels played with illusion, language and form as he employed the medium to further explore the artistic preoccupations of his career. Art as Jewellery is a visually stunning introduction to jewellery made by the titans of twentieth and twenty-first century art. From Salvador Dalí, Man Ray, Alexander Calder and Pablo Picasso through to Anish Kapoor, Damien Hirst and Grayson Perry, the great figures of modern art have all turned both thought and talent to jewellery. Often they have eschewed the traditional jeweller's preoccupation with material value and provenance, more concerned with the conceptual or aesthetic significance of their work. As is fitting for a book that covers a range of artists, every image is as striking as it is unique. By using contemporary pictures, Art as Jewellery develops a chronological timeline of jewellery presentation. Its pages are home to a stunning variety of design sketches and photographs. Some were shot by renowned 20th-century photographers such as Ugo Mulas and Antonia Mulas, while others have been buried in archives for decades unseen since the 60s. In contrast, modern works have been given model treatment by top photographer Alexander English, making this book a glamorous blend of new and classic jewellery art.

AUTHOR Author Louisa Guinness, collector and gallery owner, provides insightful commentary on each artist and their work. Her input can be felt on a personal level, having worked alongside many of these artists as they developed their jewellery; she is in the perfect position to reveal the personal stories behind these pieces.

creation Full-page colour photographs and sketches, some showing the artist at work in the studio or with their muse, accompany each profile. Louisa also explores each artist in the context of the genre's evolution, looking at the key exhibitions that have shaped the interest of artists and collectors. This book will be of interest to jewellery and art lovers alike.

SELLING POINTS Includes an introduction by Vivienne Becker, an award-winning jewellery writer, and a contribution from Julia Peyton Jones, previous director of the Serpentine Gallery, London. A marvellous array of images from archived photographs and sketches that have not been seen since the 60s and the work of 20th-century photographers such as Ugo Mulas and Antonia Mulas to modern shoots by Alexander English. 200 colour images.

Art Jewellery - A Personal Perspective, 2022 From Louise Bourgeois to Yoko Ono

Petra Hesse, Lena Hoppe, 2026-02-17 With this publication, the Museum of Applied Arts, Cologne, presents around 60 jewelry works by some 40 internationally renowned female visual artists from the 1920s to the present day. Text in English and German. From Louise Bourgeois to Yoko Ono, presents around 60 jewelry works by some 40 internationally renowned female visual artists from the 1920s to the present day. Their jewelry pieces open up new, often surprising perspectives on their artistic production. Some pieces captivate with minimalist elegance, others with their expressive sculptural presence or playful humor, with each unique work consolidating an artistic vision into a small personal statement. With its exhibition of the same name, the Museum für Angewandte Kunst Köln (MAKK Museum of Applied Arts, Cologne) deliberately focuses on female standpoints, thus breaking with the male-dominated perception of avant-garde art.
