The Lover The Lover 1 By Marguerite Duras:

French Women and the Empire Marie-Paule Ha, 2014 The first book length investigation of colonial gender politics in Third Republic France using Indochina as a case study charts women's experiences and activities to reveal a transformation in French views of empire from colonial life as an exclusively male preserve to one where women's presence was seen as essential Paths to Contemporary French Literature, Volume 1 John Taylor, 2005-04-27 Although the great French novelists of the last two centuries are widely read in America there is a widespread notion that little of importance has happened in French literature since the heyday of Sartre Camus and the nouveau roman Some might argue that even well read Americans are ignorant about what is happening in European literature generally Certainly there has never been so few translations of foreign books in the United States or so little coverage of foreign writers Curious American readers need new up to date information and analyses about what is happening elsewhere Paths to Contemporary French Literature is a stimulating and much needed guide to the major currents of one of the world's great literatures This critical panorama of contemporary French literature introduces English language readers to over fifty important writers and poets many of whom are still little known outside of France Emphasizing authors who are admired by their peers as opposed to those with overnight reputations John Taylor offers a compelling insider's view The pioneering essays included in this book offer incisive analyses of the ideas motivating current writing and delve into a writer's or poet's entire output Although some names may be familiar Marguerite Duras Hule Cixous Philippe Jaccottet Henri Michaux the reader obtains fresh reappraisals of their seminal work Especially noteworthy however are Taylor's lively introductions to many other key writers who either have not yet crossed the English Channel let alone the Atlantic Combating the notion that French literature is overtly intellectual inaccessible or interested only in formal experimentation Taylor shows that many French writers are instead acutely inquisitive about the outside world shrewd observers of reality even very funny Although not conceived as a reference book the volume possesses some qualities of a reference work a good bibliography reliable dates and biographical facts Paths to Contemporary French Literature will be of interest to students of French literature and culture literary scholars and readers of contemporary fiction and poetry Love, Desire and Transcendence in French Literature Paul Gifford, 2016-12-05 European literature and theory of the twentieth century have been intensely preoccupied with questions of Desire whereas love has increasingly represented a fractured and strange if not actually suspect proposal this is a prime symptom of an age of deep cultural mutation and uncertainty Paul Gifford's book allows this considerable contemporary phenomenon to be observed steadily and whole with strategic understanding of its origins nature and meaning Gifford paints a clear and coherent picture of the evolution of erotic ideas and their imaginary and formal expressions in modern French writing He first retraces the formative matrix of French tradition by engaging with five classic sources Plato's Symposium the Song of Songs the myth of Genesis the tension between Greek Eros and Christian Agape and the repercussions of Nietzsche's declaration of the death of God Modern variations on these perennial problematics are then pursued in ten chapters devoted to Proust Valéry Claudel Breton Bataille Duras Barthes Irigaray Emmanuel Kristeva Literary and theoretical perspectives are perfectly blended in his study of these attempts at deciphering Eros The book will appeal not only to students of French literature but to all those interested in the cultural upheavals of the twentieth century The Lover Marguerite Duras, 1986 Back in print in paperback an exquisite jewel of a novel as multifaceted as a diamond as seamless and polished as a pearl Boston Herald This edition includes an Introduction by Maxine Hong Kingston that looks back at Duras's world from an intriguing new perspective that of a visitor to Vietnam today Notions of Otherness Mark Axelrod-Sokolov, 2019-04-30 One can approach the notion of otherness or alterity in various ways politically aesthetically ethically culturally religiously and sexually Writing in Saylor.org Lilia Melani defined the other as an individual who is perceived by the group as not belonging as being different in some fundamental way Any stranger becomes the Other The Other in a society may have few or no legal rights may be characterized as less intelligent or as immoral and may even be regarded as sub human The collection of essays Notions of Otherness addresses many of these approaches as ways of interrogating how varied yet how similar they are in relation to the individual literary texts Revisioning Duras James S. Williams, Janet Sayers, 2000-01-01 The extraordinary range complexity and power of Marguerite Duras novelist dramatist film maker essayist has been justly recognized Yet in the years following her death in 1996 there has been an increasing tendency to consecrate her work particularly by those critics who approach it primarily in biographical terms The British and American specialists featured in this interdisciplinary collection aim to resurrect the Duras corpus in all its forms by submitting it theoretically to three main areas of enquiry By establishing how far Duras's work questions and redefines the parameters of literary and cinematic form as well as the categories of race and ethnicity homosexuality and heterosexuality fantasy and violence the contributors to this volume revision Duras's work in the widest sense of the term Fifty Key Contemporary Thinkers John Lechte, 2007-08-07 This revised second edition from our bestselling Key Guides includes brand new entries on some of the most influential thinkers of the twentieth and twenty first century Žižek Bergson Husserl Heidegger Butler and Haraway With a new introduction by the author sections on phenomenology and the post human full cross referencing and up to date guides to major primary and secondary texts this is an essential resource to contemporary critical thought for undergraduates and the interested reader A Love for Nothingness, A Love for Death Alberto Castelli, 2024-06-15 This book aims at explaining romantic love between straight adults through literary texts of the western canon from the nineteenth and twentieth century Each chapter comes with a multidisciplinary approach in which protagonists are mutilated in their quest for loving as alternative to annihilation The book emphasizes love as an obsession thus as an exploration of the mind From the passion myth of Tristan and Isolde to the nihilist modernist representations the western world has created a perverse concept of love A love for nothingness for death Narcissistic and at times destructive love is gained by overcoming obstacles If without obstacles there is no love then love becomes love for obstacles Within this masochistic frame love falling in love being loved always stand at the edge of pathology At its core this book narrates a love story more precisely a story of loves the haunting evocation of a desire that by its very nature cannot be fulfilled Inherent in the nature of love is a subtle dialectical activity between presence and absence between creation and destruction reality and void Accordingly the narrative raises questions that the past two centuries were incapable of answering Does love only last the time of a kiss Is its promise fatally destined to dissolve What about violence Physical emotional temporal Is it an ineliminable part of love or its most extreme profanation And what is the mystery that accompanies loves that know how to last without resigning themselves to the death of desire It is to answer some of these questions that I wrote this text Love is an unconscious process that dominates reason and destroys it when reason cannot be a mode of communication Hence the amorous romance is madness and this text is written as a loud reminder

Writing Otherwise Jeanette Gaudet, 2023-07-17 Essentially a comparative and contrastive analysis Writing Otherwise examines the prose of five French women authors Liliane Atlan Marguerite Duras Liliane Giraudon Marie Redonnet and Monique Wittig Through close readings of texts published after 1985 this book explores the broad concerns and preoccupations infusing the ontological enterprise that is critique While maintaining a sensitivity to the diversity of styles and themes as well as the unique qualities of the poetic voice evident in the five texts under consideration this study seeks to highlight in very general terms what is common to them The intertextual ground that informs the works the construction of subjectivity and the ambivalence and tension inherent to the practice writing constitute significant and important areas of convergence These features form the ground of each chapter while specific areas of divergence complete the discussion of individual aesthetics Inspired by feminist literary theory Writing Otherwise is also concerned with how these five women writers negotiate their relationship to writing

French Cultural Studies Marie-Pierre Le Hir, Dana Strand, 2000-06-22 Addresses the theoretical and pedagogical implications of redefining French Studies as an interdisciplinary field while providing practical examples of the kind of criticism that such a shift would entail

Psychoanalysis and the Unrepresentable Agnieszka Piotrowska, Ben Tyrer, 2016-09-19 Psychoanalysis and the Unrepresentable opens a space for meaningful debate about translating psychoanalytic concepts from the work of clinicians to that of academics and back again Focusing on the idea of the unrepresentable this collection of essays by psychoanalysts psychotherapists counsellors artists and film and literary scholars attempts to think through those things that are impossible to be thought through completely Offering a unique insight into areas like trauma studies where it is difficult if not impossible to express one's feelings the collection draws from psychoanalysis in its broadest sense and acts as a gesture against the fixed and the frozen Psychoanalysis and the Unrepresentable is presented in six parts Approaching Trauma Sense and Gesture Impossible Poetics Without Words Wounds and Suture and Auto Fiction The chapters therein address topics including touch and speech adoption the other and grief and examine films including Gus Van Sant's Milk and Michael Haneke's Amour As a whole the Love and Degradation William J. Simmons, 2024-12-03 In this provocative and intensely personal new book of essays about love and language desire and drama reminiscence change and fandom William J Simmons takes up Eve Sedgwick s reparative reading as a challenge to empirical and taxonomical approaches to art music and film and instead promotes new ways of discussing them that create community and empathy rather than hierarchies Specifically Simmons advocates for incorporating memoir history theory poetry and even the cringey admissions of a fanboy into criticism Love and Degradation argues for queer feminism s value to reading and thinking about works by creators as varied as Lana Del Rey Charlotte Bront Felix Gonzalez Torres Phoebe Waller Bridge and filmmaker Steve McQueen It also includes essays on Glenn Ligon Barbara Kruger and Kristen Stewart In essence the essays in this volume represent a series of the author s saviors obsessions and losses A compelling read for students and scholars of art history queer and gender studies creative writing and the study of film television and pop culture this book encourages readers to embrace fandom and raises important questions about the state of queer and feminist discourse

The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization

Someone Michael Lucey, 2019-04-05 Imagine trying to tell someone something about yourself and your desires for which there are no words What if the mere attempt at expression was bound to misfire to efface the truth of that ineluctable something In Someone Michael Lucey considers characters from twentieth century French literary texts whose sexual forms prove difficult to conceptualize or represent The characters expressing these misfit sexualities gravitate towards same sex encounters Yet they differ in subtle but crucial ways from mainstream gay or lesbian identities whether because of a discordance between gender identity and sexuality practices specific to a certain place and time or the fleetingness or non exclusivity of desire Investigating works by Simone de Beauvoir Colette Jean Genet and others Lucey probes both the range of same sex sexual forms in twentieth century France and the innovative literary language authors have used to explore these evanescent forms As a portrait of fragile sexualities that involve awkward and delicate maneuvers and modes of articulation Someone reveals just how messy the ways in which we experience and perceive sexuality remain even to ourselves
