

A painting of a window with a single red leaf on a web. The scene is set in a room with warm, golden-brown walls. A window with a wooden frame is visible on the left. A large, dark, gnarled tree branch extends from the top right towards the center. A piece of translucent, aged paper is pinned to the wall, partially covering the window and the branch. On the paper, a delicate spider web is stretched, and a single, vibrant red maple leaf is caught in its center. The overall mood is quiet and contemplative, with a focus on the single leaf as a symbol of autumn's end.
