The Road from Gap Creek Robert Morgan,2013-08-27 One of America s most acclaimed writers returns to the land on which he has staked a literary claim to paint an indelible portrait of a family in a time of unprecedented change In a compelling weaving of fact and fiction Robert Morgan introduces a family s captivating story set during World War II and the Great Depression Driven by the uncertainties of the future the family struggles to define itself against the vivid Appalachian landscape The Road from Gap Creek explores modern American history through the lives of an ordinary family persevering through extraordinary times Feminism as World Literature Robin Truth Goodman,2022-11-03

The conventional lineage of World Literature starts with Goethe and moves through Marx Said Moretti and Damrosch among others What if there is another way to trace the lineage starting with Simone de Beauvoir and moving through Hannah Arendt Assia Djebar Octavia Butler Donna Haraway Karen Barad and Gayatri Spivak What ideas and issues get left out of the current foundations that have institutionalized World Literature and what can be added challenged or changed with this tweaking of the referential terminology Feminism as World Literature redefines the thematic and theoretical contents of World Literature in feminist terms as well as rethinking feminist terms analyses frameworks and concepts in a World Literature context Other ideas built into World Literature and its criticism are viewed here by feminist framings including the environment technology immigration translation work race governance image sound religion affect violence media future and history The authors recognize genres strategies and themes of World Literature that demonstrate feminism as integral to the world making gestures of literary form and production In other words this volume looks to readings and modes of reading that expose how the historical worldliness of texts allows for feminist interventions that might not sit clearly or comfortably on the surfaces
