Inge Bell, Bernard McGrane, John Gunderson, Terri L. Anderson, 2013-10-31 This Fifth Edition of the underground classic This Book Is Not Required An Emotional and Intellectual Survival Manual for Students by Inge Bell Bernard McCrane John Gunderson and Teri Anderson breaks new ground in participatory education offering insight and inspiration to help undergraduates make the most of their college years This edition continues to teach about the college experience as a whole looking at the personal social intellectual technological and spiritual demands and opportunities while incorporating new material highly relevant to today's students The material is presented in a personable and straightforward manner maintaining Dr Inge Bell's illuminating writing style throughout and inviting students to take responsibility for and make the most of their educational experiences

A Teacher's Tale Joe Gilliland, 2015-03-05 It was never in author Joe Gilliland's plan to become a teacher certainly not a college teacher and most certainly not an English teacher But that's what happened and he's never looked back In A Teacher's Tale he explains how by neither planning for nor seeking a life of learning and teaching lacking a syllabus or lesson plan he discovered that a life in academe lay in his path a path he's followed for more than fifty years A Teacher's Tale begins in 1932 with Gilliland's first experiences in schooling and concludes in the summer of 1955 just as he completes his apprenticeship and stands on the brink of becoming a qualified instructor in a small college in east Texas This memoir presents a collection of stories about his experiences as a teacher and a college student A story of schooling deeply immersed in the arts and humanities A Teacher's Tale shares Gilliland's love of the university and how it compelled him to seek a life devoted to teaching primarily in the community college arena Through this narrative he brings together a philosophy of higher education based on the importance of arts and humanities in today's high tech world

Getting It in Writing Deborah M. Stankevich, 2011-07-01 Sixteen teachers Sixteen journeys All on a quest to become outstanding teachers of writing All taking different paths to acquire and hone those skills that make a teacher effective From kindergarten to college teachers are faced with the daunting task of instilling the art of writing in their students From creative writing to research the art of writing incorporates the writing process to create the inking of our thinking These 16 teachers from across the nation have traveled a long and arduous path to seek and to reach for the methods and strategies
