New-Found-Lands Alwin Fill, 1993 Text and Picture in Anglo-Saxon England Catherine E. Karkov, 2001-11 This book explores the complex interrelationship between texts and drawings in the late tenth or early eleventh century Junius II manuscript the only surviving illustrated Anglo Saxon poetic manuscript The book which contains a plate section of sixty one illustrations focuses on the way in which the drawings both illustrate the text and translate it into a new visual language Poems and illustrations work to create a carefully crafted and unified manuscript but both also use formulaic language iconography and compositions to construct a web of intertextual and intervisual references that open the poems to readings far more diverse than those of the biblical books on which they are based Together poems and drawings create a new and unique version of biblical history and suggest ways in which biblical history relates to Anglo Saxon history and the manuscript's Anglo Saxon audience a process which has been extended by the manuscript's many editors to include contemporary history and the contemporary reader W. B. Yeats K. P. S. Jochum, 1978 This bibliography is the second revised edition of a book first published in 1978 under a somewhat different title Apart from correcting mistakes the second edition extends the coverage of material until 1986 and includes many items from 1987 and 1988 It also adds numerous

Anthologies of British Poetry ,2021-11-22 From Tottel s Miscellany 1557 to the last twentieth century Oxford Book of English Verse 1999 anthologies have been a prime institution for the preservation and mediation of poetry The importance of anthologies for creating and re creating the canon of English poetry for introducing new programmes of poetry as a record of changing poetic fashions audience tastes and reading practices or as a profitable literary commodity has often been asserted Despite its impact however the poetry anthology in itself has attracted surprisingly little critical interest in Britain or elsewhere in the English speaking world This volume is the first publication to explore the largely unmapped field of poetry anthologies in Britain Essays written from a wide range of perspectives in literary and cultural studies and the point of view of poets editors publishers and cultural institutions aim to do justice to the typological functional and historical variety with which this form of publication has manifested itself from early modern print culture to the postmodern age of the world wide web Text Types and Corpora Andreas Fischer, Gunnel Tottie, Hans Martin Lehmann, 2002
