Betraying Dragon Robert G Kay:

In the Nick of Time William C. Cline, 2012-02-06 By the famous Big Reel columnist the story of serials from Universal's 1930 The Indians Are Coming to Columbia's 1956 Blazing the Overland Trail Fifteen fascinating chapters explain the importance of cliffhangers to the industry as audience builders and product leaders The serials provided training for actors and served as a technical university for people who later made the television industry work An appendix lists in order of release all of the sound serials from 1930 through 1956 showing titles releasing companies chapter titles directors and several cast members Superb photographs New York Magazine, 1988-06-13 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Independent Film Journal, 1961-12-16 New York Magazine, 1988-06-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Women Writers in Postsocialist China Kay Schaffer, Xianlin Song, 2013-07-31 What does it mean to read from elsewhere Women Writers in Postsocialist China introduces readers to a range and variety of contemporary Chinese women's writing which has seen phenomenal growth in recent years The book addresses the different ways women's issues are understood in China and the West attending to the processes of translation adaptation and the grafting of new ideas with existing Chinese understandings of gender feminism subjectivity consumerism and post modernism By focusing on women's autobiographical biographical fictional and historical writing the book engages in a transcultural flow of ideas between western and indigenous Chinese feminisms Taking account of the accretions of social cultural geographic literary economic and political movements and trends cultural formations and ways of thinking it asks how the texts and the concepts they negotiate might be understood in the social and cultural spaces within China and how they might be interpreted differently elsewhere in the global locations in which they circulate The book argues that women centred writing in China has a direct bearing on global feminist theory and practice This critical study of selected genres and writers highlights the shifts in feminist perspectives within contemporary local and global cultural landscapes The Braff Silent Short Film Working Papers Richard E. Braff, 2002 Silent short films practically vanished from the movie screen with the advent of sound Despite their relatively short existence an enormous number of them were made and on a very wide range of topics Presented in this book reorganized are the extensive working papers of Richard E Braff at the time of his death in 2001 detailing split reel and one two and three reel films produced or released in the United States between 1903 and 1929 over 25 000 films in all It lists in alphabetical order short silent films that have cast or production credits Each entry includes to the extent possible the following elements title release date producing company director script writer author of story length of film in reels and cast credits The Illustrated London News ,1849 Harness Horse ,1988 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. China set for itself the task of building a socialist state And of course economic development has been the priority of the Deng era As Hu shows these five factors have had determining impacts on the long struggle for democracy in China
