Postmodernism of Resistance in Roberto Bolaño's Fiction and Poetry J. Agustín Pastén B., 2020-12 Postmodernism of Resistance in Roberto Bolaño's Fiction and Poetry examines the ways in which Bolaño employs a type of literary aesthetics that subverts traits traditionally associated with postmodernism Pastén B coins these aesthetics postmodernism of resistance and argues that this resistance stands in direct opposition to critical discourses that construe the presence of hopeless characters and marginal settings in Bolaño's works as signs of the writer's disillusionment with the political as a consequence of the defeat of the Left in Latin America Rather he contends Bolaño creates a fictional world comprised of characters and situations that paradoxically refuse to accept defeat even while displaying the scars of terrible historical events In this work Pastén B challenges some critical assumptions about Bolaño's fiction and poetry that led to decontextualized interpretations of his work and offers a singularly comprehensive investigation that synthesizes multiple perspectives of a complicated author into one text offers unique insights into the role of the translator in today's globalized world exploring Latin American literature featuring translators and interpreters as protagonists in which prevailing understandings of the act of translation are challenged and upended The volume looks to the fictional turn as a fruitful source of critical inquiry in translation studies showcasing the potential for recent Latin American novels and short stories in Spanish to shed light on the complex dynamics and conditions under which translators perform their task Kripper unpacks how the study of these works reveals translation not as an activity with communication as its end goal but rather as a mediating and mediated process shaped by the unique manipulations and motivations of translators and the historical and cultural contexts in which they work In exploring the fictional representations of translators the book also outlines pedagogical approaches and offers discussion questions for the implementation of translators narratives in translation language and literature courses Narratives of Mistranslation will be of interest to scholars and educators in translation studies especially those working in literary translation and translation pedagogy Latin American literature world literature and Latin American studies

More or Less Dead Alice Driver, 2015-03-26 In Ciudad Juárez Mexico people disappear their bodies dumped in deserted city lots or jettisoned in the unforgiving desert All too many of them are women More or Less Dead analyzes how such violence against women has been represented in news media books films photography and art Alice Driver argues that the various cultural reports often express anxiety or criticism about how women traverse and inhabit the geography of Ciudad Juárez and further the idea of the public female body as hypersexualized Rather than searching for justice the various media art photography and even graffiti often reuse victimized bodies in sensationalist attention grabbing ways In order to counteract such views local activists mark the city with graffiti and memorials that create a living memory of the violence and try to humanize the victims of these crimes The phrase more or less dead was coined by Chilean author Roberto Bolaño in his novel 2666 a penetrating fictional study of Juárez Driver explains that victims are more or less dead because their bodies are never found or aren't properly identified leaving families with an uncertainty lasting for decades or forever The author's clear precise journalistic style tackles the ethics of representing femicide victims in Ciudad Juárez Making a distinction between the words femicide the murder of girls or women and femicide murder as a gender driven event one of her interviewees says Women are killed for being women and they are victims of masculine violence because they are women It is a crime of hate against the female gender These are crimes of power
