Intercultural Dialogue on English Language Teaching Christine Manara, 2014-03-17 This book examines how educators conceptualize their profession and re construct their professional selves Drawing on a narrative based study it reports research that follows closely five multilingual English language teacher educators teaching in a teacher education program at a large private university It explores their learning and teaching experiences and how they attach meaning to these experiences the re construction of their professional identity their commitment to their profession and the various factors that mediate these experiences and understandings by analyzing their narrative accounts In this exploration there is a particular focus on the nature of language identity and culture in intercultural teacher education settings Overall the book demonstrates the complex nuanced and dynamic nature of professional learning and intercultural identity construction involving multiple sometimes competing discourses of professionalism in ELT The teacher educators professional learning narratives provide an insight into their struggle for voice Britzman 2003 in their immediate teaching and learning context as well as internationally Their struggle for a voice highlights the frictions negotiations and dialogues with the dominant western discourses of ELT professionalism that have often been imposed on them in their profession In addition their teaching and learning accounts emphasize the importance of revisiting re evaluating and reimagining the teaching paradigm of ELT in this teaching setting in engaging with today s globalized world These accounts suggest a call for pedagogical and curriculum reform in ELT that takes into account learners linguistic and cultural identity and that will enable them to use English as a language that mediates their identity work as national international and intercultural selves This book is about English language educators professional learning and will be of interest to teacher candidates teachers and teacher educators who wish to extend their knowledge and understanding of the dynamicity and complexity of teachers learning through narratives of teaching Responsible Design in Applied Linguistics: Theory and Practice Albert Weideman, 2016-09-05 No mere history of applied linguistics this volume presents a framework for interpreting the development of applied linguistics as a discipline It offers a systematic account of how applied linguistics has developed articulating the philosophical premises that have informed both its emergence and its subsequent growth It asks questions that are seldom asked Where does the discipline derive from Where is it heading What directions has it already taken Which direction should it embrace in future What is the relative worth of all of the variation in design and methods that have been developed by applied linguists In defining applied linguistics as a discipline of design it takes us beyond the diffuse and sometimes contradictory conventional definitions of the field The framework of design principles it proposes not only helps to explain the historical development of applied linguistics but also provides a potential justification for solutions to language problems It presents us with nothing less than an emerging theory of applied linguistics Sublating Second Language Research and Practices Manfred Man-fat Wu, 2023-07-31 Wu s book provides an innovative perspective on and recommendations for the major aspects of second language L2 teaching from a Hegelian anthro philosophical perspective Language is social in nature and is related to the larger social milieu Hegelian philosophy of language complements existing research and theories on L2 learning by not only equipping them with a systematic framework but also broadening their scope In Hegelian philosophy language not only has its individual and interpersonal dimensions but is also related to the community society and morality The Hegelian perspective also suggests a number of functions of L2 which have either been neglected or rejected by L2 researchers This book highlights these neglected elements such as intersubjectivity mutual recognition universalization and objectivization of inner subjectivity of individuals as well as moral enhancement These concepts generate insights on the teaching and learning of L2 Wu s volume also covers how the Hegelian anthro philosophical perspective can help to re interpret research results on L2 learner characteristics that are related to L2 learning to date such as L2 identity and autonomy The book offers an alternative research paradigm teaching philosophy pedagogical implications and suggestions for scholars practitioners and students in the professional field of L2 teaching
