Beyond The Miracle Inside The New South Africa:

Beyond the Miracle Allister Haddon Sparks, 2003 Freedom's Distant Shores R. Drew Smith, 2006 This volume examines relations between U S Protestants and Africa since the end of colonial rule It draws attention to shifting ecclesiastical and socio political priorities especially the decreased momentum of social justice advocacy and the growing missionary influence of churches emphasizing spiritual revival and personal prosperity The book provides a thought provoking assessment of U S Protestant involvements with Africa and it proposes forms of engagement that build upon ecclesiastical dynamism within American and African contexts Inclusion and Exclusion in the Global Arena Max H. Kirsch, 2006 First Published in 2006 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Transforming Cape Town Catherine Besteman, 2008-09-02 An engaging insightful and at times beautifully written account of post apartheid transformation in the city of Cape Town Besteman shows the continuing legacy of apartheid racial segregation and poverty in South Africa as well as glimpses of new forms of cultural creativity and identity formation that are characterized by empathy compassion and hope Transforming Cape Town deserves to be read by anthropologists and anyone interested in how people confront the challenges of racial exclusion and historical inequality and how a few bold agents of transformation seek to create new social spaces to cross old barriers Richard A Wilson author of The Politics of Truth and Reconciliation in South Africa Cape Town and anthropology come alive in Besteman s work Insightful dynamic and well written this book opens a space of trust to understanding the pains and creative innovations of transition of people politics and daily survival in a new light Carolyn Nordstrom author of Global Outlaws and Shadows of War Besteman navigates and illuminates post apartheid Cape Town with uncommon skill She brings to bear an anthropologist s training a reporter s eye and ear for the choice remark the telling detail and a candid sympathy for the disenfranchised whose lot in South Africa has not necessarily improved under democracy It s a distressing picture she draws the persisting mutual ignorance even reciprocal demonization across old ethnic and racial lines alongside the ongoing economic injustice The revolution in South Africa has been a piecemeal affair and Besteman s descriptions of the difficulties that even the best intentioned individuals encounter as they struggle toward creating a general social transformation ring painfully true William Finnegan author of Crossing the Line Dateline Soweto A Complicated War and Cold New World Transforming Cape Town is a fascinating account of how people in this divided city engage with democracy transformation and the legacies and ongoing realities of radical inequalities Through conversations with ordinary people Besteman explores the ways in which apartheid s legacies continue to shape interactions both intimate and public In doing so she restores a sense of faith in anthropology as a tool for understanding and critiquing social worlds Fiona Ross author of Bearing Witness Women and Truth and Reconciliation HIV/AIDS in South Africa 25 Years On Poul Rohleder, Leslie Swartz, Seth C. Kalichman, Leickness Chisamu Simbayi, 2009-09-01 Much has happened since the first appearance of AIDS in 1981 it has been identified studied and occasionally denied The virus has shifted host populations and spread globally Medicine the social sciences and world governments have joined forces to combat and prevent the disease And South Africa has emerged as ground zero for the pandemic The editors of HIV AIDS in South Africa 25 Years On present the South African crisis as a template for addressing the myriad issues surrounding the epidemic worldwide as the book brings together a widely scattered body of literature analyzes psychosocial and sexual aspects contributing to HIV transmission and prevention and delves into complex intersections of race gender class and politics Including largely overlooked populations and issues e g prisoners persons with disabilities stigma as well as challenges shaping future research and policy the contributors approach their topics with rare depth meticulous research carefully drawn conclusions and profound compassion Among the topics covered The relationship between HIV and poverty starting from the question Which is the determinant and which is the consequence Epidemiology of HIV among women and men concepts of femininity and masculinity and gender inequities as they affect HIV risk gender specific prevention and intervention strategies The impact of AIDS on infants and young children risk and protective factors care of children by HIV positive mothers HIV infected children Current prevention and treatment projects including local level responses community based work and VCT voluntary counseling and testing programs New directions promoting circumcision vaccine trials positive prevention South Africa s history of AIDS denialism The urgent lessons in this book apply both globally and locally making HIV AIDS in South Africa 25 Years On uniquely instructive and useful for professionals working in HIV AIDS and global public health

Reconciliation Discourse Annelies Verdoolaege, 2008 This volume is a research monograph analysing the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC from an ethnographic linguistic point of view The central proposition of this book is that the TRC can be regarded as a mechanism that leads to the hegemony of specific discourses thus exercising power The analysis illustrates how through a certain type of reconciliation discourse constructed at the TRC hearings a reconciliation oriented reality took shape in post TRC South Africa Basically the study points to the long term implications a truth commission can exert on a traumatised post conflict society The book is unique on several levels TRC discourse is explored in depth on the basis of personal stories from TRC testifiers a combination of Poststructuralist and Critical Discourse Analysis approaches form the theoretical foundations and an extensive bibliography provides an impressive database of TRC publications

Essays in Public Theology Dirkie Smit,2007-04-01 What is the role of the church in society What role did the church play in South Africa during apartheid in the struggle against apartheid and during the period of transformation The essays collected and published in this volume deal with questions such as these They are all occasional pieces They were written over two decades and reflect the times in which they originated always intended for specific audiences always addressing issues of the particular moment

History, Memory, and State-Sponsored Violence Berber Bevernage,2013-02-14 Modern historiography embraces the notion that time is irreversible implying that the past should be imagined as something absent or distant Victims of historical injustice however in contrast often claim that the past got stuck in the present and that it retains a haunting presence History Memory and State Sponsored Violence is centered around the provocative thesis that the way one deals with historical injustice and the ethics of history is strongly dependent on the way one conceives of historical time that the concept of time traditionally used by historians is structurally more compatible with the perpetrators than the victims point of view Demonstrating that the claim of victims about the continuing presence of the past should be taken seriously instead of being treated as merely metaphorical Berber Bevernage argues that a genuine understanding of the irrevocable past demands a radical break with modern historical discourse and the concept of time By embedding a profound philosophical reflection on the themes of historical time and historical discourse in a concrete series of case studies this project transcends the traditional divide between empirical historiography on the one hand and the so called theoretical approaches to history on the other It also breaks with the conventional analytical philosophy of history that has been dominant during the last decades raising a series of long neglected big questions about the historical condition questions about historical time the unity of history and the ontological status of present and past programmatically pleading for a new historical ethics

The Experience of Economic Redistribution Clarence Tshitereke,2006-10-09 This book provides an analysis of the country s political economy in transition It documents the history of the gold mining industry s involvement in shaping the political landscape of South Africa and shows the degree to which the political transition was induced to put in place a new mode of regulation for capital accumulation In the process the victims of apartheid have now become victims of democracy s neo liberalism as the government is constrained from being developmental interventionist and redistributive
