Chr tien de Troyes Critical Romances J rgen Bruhn rereads the well known but still intriguing chivalric novels of the medieval French author Chr tien de Troyes from the second half of the twelfth century probably in northern France J rgen Bruhn who is trained in modern comparative literature and literary theory engages in a meeting with the medieval texts where the strange medieval contexts and texts are played up against more familiar contemporary concerns around textuality gender and in particular the vexed question of violence After an introduction and an attempt to construct a useful context around the texts of Chr tien de Troyes Bruhn discusses the five chivalric novels which are normally known under the names of the more or less heroic heroes Erec Clig s Yvain Lancelot and Perceval The medieval characters turn out to behave in ways that are both shockingly strange and medieval and at the same time resassuringly recognisable The Middle Ages may not be so unmodern after all

Lancelot and Guinevere Lori J. Walters, 2015-12-03 Beginning with an introduction that examines the portrayal of the characters of Lancelot and Guinevere from their origins to the present day this collection of 16 essays five of which appear here for the first time puts particular emphasis on the appearance of the two characters in medieval and modern literature Besides several studies exploring feminist concerns the volume features articles on the representation of the lovers in medieval manuscript illuminations 18 plates focus on scenes of their first kiss and the consummation of the adultery in film and in other visual arts A 200 item bibliography completes the volume

Le Morte Darthur Sir Thomas Malory, 1891 Patrons, Authors and Workshops Godfried Croenen, Peter F. Ainsworth, 2006 Patrons Authors and Workshops invokes a cross disciplinary approach to the study of late medieval books and book production in Paris from the troubled years of the early fifteenth century onwards It shows the extent to which such activity was able to flourish even against the backdrop of the endemic struggle between Burgundians and Armagnacs or the subsequent English invasion which led to Agincourt and the regency of Bedford Extensive coverage is given to the key role played by the libraire to the author as scribe or copyist Christine de Pisan Jean Leb gue and also to the development of commercial production under figures such as Jean Trepperel A section on bibliophiles and their various commissions leads into a group of essays that focus on particular texts and authors whilst a further section concentrates on what we can discover about the role of the scribe The volume concludes with four essays offering insights into the work of particular artists and illuminators The authors include scholars from the UK France Greece Germany Italy Belgium the Netherlands and the USA Godfried Croenen is Lecturer in French at the University of Liverpool Peter Ainsworth is Professor of French at the University of Sheffield
