War in the Shadows Patrick Marnham, 2020-09-17 One of our very best writers on France Antony Beevor After publishing an acclaimed biography of Jean Moulin leader of the French Resistance Patrick Marnham received an anonymous letter from a person who claimed to have worked for British Intelligence during the war The ex spy praised his book but insisted that he had missed the real treasure The letter drew Marnham back to the early 1960s when he had been taught French by a mercurial woman a former Resistance leader whose SOE network was broken on the same day that Moulin was captured and who endured eighteen months in Ravensbru ck concentration camp Could these two events have been connected His anonymous correspondent offered a tantalising set of clues that seemed to implicate Churchill and British Intelligence in the catastrophe Drawing on a deep knowledge of France and original research in British and French archives War in the Shadows exposes the ruthless double dealing of the Allied intelligence services and the Gestapo through one of the darkest periods of the Second World War It is a story worthy of Le Carr but with this difference it is not fiction A melange of Le Grand Meaulnes and The Spy Who Came in from the Cold It is unforgettable Ferdinand Mount TLS Books of the Year A masterly analysis impeccably presented Allan Mallinson Spectator Fascinating Marnham has a vast and scholarly knowledge of this often treacherous world Caroline Moorehead Literary Review No, Love Is Not Dead Chris McCabe, 2021-02-04 A powerful new anthology depicting how love over the past two and a half millennia has found its expression in the words of the world's greatest poets No Love Is Not Dead is a timely affirmation of the great linguistic diversity of poetry and its ability to express passionate love the most extreme of human emotions With influential award winning poets including Kim Hyesoon Laura Tohe and Warsan Shire and languages ranging from Amharic Akkadian and Ancient Greek to Yankunytjatjara Yiddish and Yoruba this unique anthology engages the reader in reflective tales of unlikely love stories and impossible love love in a time of politics surrealist love visual love and free love offering an intuitive insight into both historical and present day perceptions of love across cultures Including over 50 poets writing on each of the world's continents this new anthology of poems about love features a diverse range of original poems written in a variety of languages modern ancient endangered and constructed accompanied by English translations and commentaries Poets included in the book Apollinaire Nicole Brossard Augusto de Campos Catullus Chaucer Dante Robert Desnos Ali Cobby Eckermann Goethe Kim Hyesoon Louise Lab Federico Garcia Lorca Vladimir Mayakovsky Mikl s Radn ti Kutti Ravathi Sappho Warsan Shire Laura Tohe Marina Tsvetaeva Languages included in the book Akkadian Amharic Ancient Greek Faroese French German Hungarian Italian Japanese Latvian Maori Persian Polari Portuguese Russian Sanskrit Scots Scottish Gaelic Serbian Spanish Urdu Welsh Yoruba Foreword by Laura Tohe the current Navajo Nation Poet Laureate and Professor Emeritus with Distinction at Arizona State University who has won awards including the 2020 Academy of American Poetry Fellowship the 2019 American Indian Festival of Writers Award and the Arizona Book Association's Glyph Award for Best Poetry Les Parisiennes Anne Sebba, 2016-07-14 WINNER OF THE FRANCO BRITISH SOCIETY BOOK PRIZE 2016 June 1940 German troops enter Paris and hoist the swastika over the Arc de Triomphe The dark days of Occupation begin How would you have survived By collaborating with the Nazis or risking the lives of you and your loved ones to resist The women of Paris faced this dilemma every day whether choosing between rations and the black market or travelling on the Metro where a German soldier had priority for a seat Between the extremes of defiance and collusion was a vast moral grey area which all Parisiennes had to navigate in order to survive Anne Sebba has sought out and interviewed scores of women and brings us their unforgettable testimonies Her fascinating cast includes both native Parisiennes and temporary residents American women and Nazi wives spies mothers mistresses artists fashion designers and aristocrats The result is an enthralling account of life during the Second World War and in the years of recovery and recrimination that followed the Liberation of Paris in 1944 It is a story of fear deprivation and secrets and as ever in the French capital glamour and determination Death Was Our Companion Tony Le Tissier, 2021-12-30 As Hitler's dreams of a Thousand Year Reich crumbled in the face of overwhelming assaults from both East and West in the first months of 1945 the heavily out numbered German armed forces were still capable of fighting with a tenacity and professionalism at odds with the desperate circumstances While Hitler fantasized about deploying divisions and armies that had long since ceased to exist boys of fifteen officer cadets sailors and veterans of the Great War joined the survivors of shattered formations on the front line Leading historian Tony Le Tissier gives a German perspective to the mayhem and bloodshed of the last months of the Second World War in Europe Teenaged Flak auxiliaries recount their experiences alongside veteran Panzergrenadiers attempting to break out of Soviet encirclement Struggles between the military industry and the Nazi Party for influence over the defenders of Berlin contrast with a key participant's account of Goebbel's abortive attempt to conclude a cease fire with the Soviets This is fascinating reading for anybody interested in the ordinary soldier's experience of the culminating battles in central Europe in 1945 Before Bletchley Park Paul Gannon, 2020-10-23 The story of Bletchley Park's codebreaking operations in the Second World War is now well known but its counterparts in the First World War Room 40 MI1 b remain in the shadows despite their involvement in and influence on most of the major events of that war From the First Battle of the Marne the shelling of Scarborough the battles of Jutland and the Somme in 1916 to the battles on the Western Front in 1918 the German naval mutiny and the Zimmermann Telegram this cast of characters several of them as eccentric as anyone from Bletchley Park in the Second World War secretly guided the outcome of the Great War from the confines of a few smoke filled rooms Using hundreds of intercepted and decrypted German military naval and diplomatic messages bestselling author Paul Gannon reveals the fascinating story of British codebreaking operations By drawing on many newly discovered archival documents that challenge misleading stories about Room 40 MI1 b he reveals a sophisticated machine in operation The SOE's Brothers of Vengeance Peter Jacobs, 2020-04-01 December 1941 After setting up one of the first resistance organisations in Vichy France and escaping over the Pyrenees into Spain brothers Henry and Alfred Newton received devastating news SS Avoceta carrying their parents wives and children to the safety of Britain had been torpedoed by a German U boat All of their family were dead From that moment on the Newton brothers were consumed by revenge Recruited by SOE and known to everyone simply as the Twins they returned to France and waged their own personal war against the Nazis For nine months they lived on the edge before they were betrayed and the net finally closed They were caught by the Gestapo and tortured at the hands of the Butcher of Lyon Klaus Barbie before being taken to the dreaded Buchenwald concentration camp In The SOE s Brothers of Vengeance acclaimed historian Peter Jacobs reveals the full story of Henry and Alfred Newton Drawing on personal archives and new research theirs is a dramatic tale of courage steeped in vengeance and of the bonds of brotherhood in the face of hell on Churchill's German Special Forces Paul Moorcraft, 2023-02-22 The existence of German speaking units fighting earth for the Allied cause during WW2 has remained largely a well kept secret But seventy five years on these units contribution to victory needs to be fully acknowledged Prime Minister Winston Churchill had no qualms about using native German speakers from Austria Poland Czechoslovakia and of course Germany itself The majority were Jews who had fled persecution Two examples of these secret units were X Troop Commandos and the Special Interrogation Group The SIG men deserve their legendary status They fought and often died wearing Wehmacht uniform As this superbly researched book reveals that after infiltrating Field Marshal Rommel's Afrika Korps one detachment even drew Nazi pay Inevitably once the existence of SIG units became known their immediate execution on capture was ordered unless their temporary reprieve would reveal intelligence under torture We learn how Churchill's initiative was copied by both the Americans and the Russians Post war SIG and X Troop survivors joined British special forces or were used to hunt down Nazi war criminals All this and more is covered in this ground breaking book by a writer who is both a leading historian and foreign correspondent My Grandfather's Knife Dr Joseph Pearson,2022-04-07 A knife adorned with a swastika and an eagle s head As a young boy Joseph Pearson was terrified of the weapon hanging from a hook in his grandfather's basement a trophy seized from the enemy in battle When he later inherited the knife he unlocked a story far more unsettling than he could ever have imagined By then a writer and cultural historian living in Berlin Joseph found himself drawn to other objects from the Nazi era a pocket diary a recipe book a double bass and a cotton pouch Although the past remains a painful subject in Germany he embarked on a journey to illuminate their stories before they disappeared from living memory A historical detective story and an enthralling account of one historian's search for answers My Grandfather's Knife is at once a poignant meditation on memory and a unique addition to our understanding of Nazi Germany
