

A photograph of a person, likely a woman, sitting on the ground in a dry, arid landscape. She is sorting through a large pile of yellow grain, possibly wheat or corn, which is spread out on the ground. The person is wearing a light blue headscarf and a dark blue long-sleeved shirt. The ground is dry and dusty, with some sparse green vegetation and dry sticks scattered around. The background shows a similar landscape with more dry vegetation and a clear sky.

Trans-Colonial Urban Space in Palestine Maha Samman, 2013-06-26 Taking a multidisciplinary approach to examine the dynamics of ethno national contestation and colonialism in Israel Palestine this book investigates the approaches for dealing with the colonial and post colonial urban space resituating them within the various theoretical frameworks in colonial urban studies The book uses Henry Lefebvre's three constituents of space perceived conceived and lived to analyse past and present colonial cases interactively with time It mixes the non temporal conceptual framework of analysis of colonialism using literature of previous colonial cases with the inter temporal abstract Lefebvrian concepts of space to produce an inter temporal re reading of them Israeli colonialism in the occupied areas of 1967 its contractions from Sinai and Gaza and the implications on the West Bank are analysed in detail By illustrating the transformations in colonial urban space at different temporal stages a new phase is proposed the trans colonial This provides a conceptual means to avoid the pitfalls of neo colonial and post colonial influences experienced in previous cases and the book goes on to highlight the implications of such a phase on the Palestinians It is an important contribution to studies on Middle East Politics and Urban Geography Hamas, Jihad and Popular Legitimacy Tristan Dunning, 2016-01-29 This book investigates the many faces of Hamas and examines its ongoing evolution as a resistance organisation in the context of the Israel Palestine conflict. Specifically, the work interrogates Hamas interpretation, reinterpretation and application of the twin concepts of muqawama (resistance) and jihad (striving in the name of God). The text frames the movement's capacity to accrue popular legitimacy through its evolving resistance discourses centred on the notion of jihad and the practical applications thereof. Moving beyond the dominant security orientated approaches to Hamas, the book investigates the malleable nature of both resistance and jihad, including their social, symbolic, political and ideational applications. The diverse interpretations of these concepts allow Hamas to function as a comprehensive social movement. Where possible, this volume attempts to privilege first order or experiential knowledge emanating from the movement itself, its political representatives and the Palestinian population in general. Many of these accounts were collected by the author during fieldwork in the Middle East. Not only does this work present new primary data, but it also investigates a variety of contemporary empirical events related to Palestine and the Middle East. This book offers an alternative way of viewing the movement's popular legitimacy grounded in theoretical, empirical and ethnographic terms. This book will be of much interest to students of Hamas, political violence, critical terrorism studies, Middle Eastern politics, security studies and IR in general. Israelis and Palestinians Moshé Machover, 2012-05-01 These essays, written between 1966 and 2010 by lifelong Israeli activist and theorist Moshé Machover, cover diverse aspects of Israeli society and the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Elaborating on the ideas of the Socialist Organization in Israel, Matzpen, two interrelated themes appear throughout the collection: the necessity of understanding the Israeli-Palestinian conflict in a regional context and the connection between Palestinian liberation and the struggle for socialism throughout the Middle East.

The Israel/Palestine Reader Alan Dowty, 2019-02-22 Introduction to any complex international conflict is enriched when the voices of the adversaries are heard. The Israel/Palestine Reader is an innovative collection focused on the human dimension of the ongoing Israeli-Palestinian confrontation. Its vivid and illuminating readings present the voices of the diverse parties through personal testimonies and analyses. Key leaders, literary figures, prominent analysts and simply close observers of different phases of this protracted conflict are all represented in their own words. From Mark Twain to Theodor Herzl, Gamal Abdul Nasser, Golda Meir, Anwar Sadat, Ezer Weizman, Ehud Barak, Marwan Barghouti, Mahmoud Abbas, Benjamin Netanyahu, John Kerry and dozens of others, the firsthand narratives brought together in this Reader bring the conflict to life as seen by those closest to it. Though structured to complement Alan Dowty's introductory text, Israel/Palestine 4th edition, Polity 2017, this Reader also stands on its own as a survey of voices in the conflict. Each of the ten chapters is framed by an editorial introduction that sets the pieces in context. By juxtaposing contrasting viewpoints, both between and within the opposed parties, these pieces underline the drama of the conflict while final judgment is left to the reader. This lively volume will add color and texture to any study of Arab-Israeli issues or of the Middle East generally. Civil Resistance and Conflict

Palestine Ltd. Toufic Haddad, 2016-07-28 Since the 1993 Oslo Accords the Occupied Palestinian Territory has been the subject of extensive international peacebuilding and statebuilding efforts coordinated by Western donor states and international finance institutions Despite their failure to yield peace or Palestinian statehood the role of these organisations in the Israeli Palestinian conflict is generally overlooked owing to their depiction as tertiary actors engaged in technical missions In Palestine Ltd Toufic Haddad explores how neoliberal frameworks have shaped and informed the common understandings of international Israeli and Palestinian interactions throughout the Oslo peace process Drawing upon more than 20 years of policy literature field based interviews and recently declassified or leaked documents he details how these frameworks have led to struggles over influencing Palestinian political and economic behaviour and attempts to mould the class character of Palestinian society and its leadership A dystopian vision of Palestine emerges as the by product of this complex asymmetrical interaction where nationalism neo colonialism and disaster capitalism both intersect and diverge This book is essential for students and scholars interested in Middle East Studies Arab Israeli politics and international development
