Olinder,2006-05-01 The essays in this collection combine historical cultural and literary analyses in their treatment of aspects of exile in Irish writing Some are structuralist in seeing exile as a physical state of being often associated with absence into which an individual willingly or unwillingly enters Others are poststructuralist considering the narration of exile as a celebration of transgressiveness hybridity and otherness This type of exile moves away from a political cultural economic idea of exile to an understanding of exile in a wider existential sense The volume presents readings of Irish literature history and culture that reflect some of the historical sociological psychological and philosophical dimensions of exile in the 1800s and 1900s The theme of exile is discussed in a wide range of texts including literature political writings and song writing either in works of Irish writers not normally associated with exile or in which new aspects of exile can be discerned The essays cover among others Butler D Arcy McGee Mulholland Joyce Hewitt Van Morrison Ni Chuilleanain Doyle and Banville
