Between Resistance And Revolution Cultural Politics And Social Protest:

Between Resistance and Revolution Richard Gabriel Fox, Orin Starn, 1997 A Moral Critique of Development Ph Quarles van Ufford, Ananta Kumar Giri, 2003 In light of recent criticism of the development ideal this book comments on how international development might once again become a visionary project Reading Subaltern Studies David Ludden, 2002 A reliable point of departure for new readers of Subaltern Studies and a resource base for experienced readers who want to revive critical debates Nothing but Love in God's Water Robert Darden, 2014-10-21 The first of two volumes chronicling the history and role of music in the African American experience Nothing but Love in God's Water explores how songs and singers helped African Americans challenge and overcome slavery subjugation and suppression From the spirituals of southern fields and the ringing chords of black gospel to the protest songs that changed the landscape of labor and the cadences sung before dogs and water cannons in Birmingham sacred song has stood center stage in the African American drama Myriad interviews one of a kind sources and rare or lost recordings are used to examine this enormously persuasive facet of the movement Nothing but Love in God's Water explains the historical significance of song and helps us understand how music enabled the civil rights movement to challenge the most powerful nation on the planet Moral Ambition Omri Elisha, 2011-07-15 This is a lovely book Secular Americans all too often assume that evangelical Christianity embraces an individualistic ethos This well written and engaging account takes us into the life of the social world of evangelical megachurches and shows the tensions between unconditional love and accountability In doing so this book allows us to grasp the experience at the heart of evangelical faith These people emerge as likable and intelligible through Elisha's narrative T M Luhrmann Watkins University Professor Stanford University Elisha is a wonderfully talented ethnographer empathetic in the very best sense critically engaged attentive and clearly committed to forming genuine relationships I have tremendous admiration for the research that went into this project and I can't wait to teach this book in my classes R Marie Griffith John A Bartlett Professor Harvard Divinity School Subversive Spiritualities Frederique Apffel-Marglin, 2011-11-15 In this book Frederique Apffel Marglin draws on a lifetime of work with the indigenous peoples of Peru and India to support her argument that the beliefs values and practices of such traditional peoples are eco metaphysically true Activism on the Web Veronica Barassi, 2015-05-22 Activism on the Web examines the everyday tensions that political activists face as they come to terms with the increasingly commercialized nature of web technologies and sheds light on an important yet under investigated dimension of the relationship between contemporary forms of social protest and internet technologies Drawing on anthropological and ethnographic research amongst three very different political groups in the UK Italy and Spain the book argues that activists everyday internet uses are largely defined by processes of negotiation with digital capitalism These processes of negotiation are giving rise to a series of collective experiences which are defined by the tension between activists democratic needs on one side and the cultural processes reinforced by digital capitalism on the other In looking at the encounter between activist cultures and digital capitalism the book focuses in particular on the tension created by self centered communication processes and networked individualism by corporate surveillance and data mining and by fast capitalism and the temporality of immediacy Activism on the Web suggests that if we want to understand how new technologies are affecting political participation and democratic processes we should not focus on disruption and novelty but we should instead explore the complex dialectics between digital discourses and digital practices between the technical and the social between the political economy of the web and its lived critique Visual Interventions Sarah Pink,2007-12-01 Visual anthropology has proved to offer fruitful methods of research and representation to applied projects of social intervention Through a series of case studies based on applied visual anthropological work in a range of contexts health and medicine tourism and heritage social development conflict and disaster relief community filmmaking and empowerment and industry this volume examines both the range contexts in which applied visual anthropology is engaged and the methodological and theoretical issues it raises The State, Identity and Violence R. Brian Ferguson,2003-09-02 In this book a collection of experts investigate the varied forces from global systems to local beliefs that lead to civil violence chaos and perhaps a new political order The State Identity and Violence explores acts of mass violence occurring within national borders and examines the links such acts have to personal identities and how they challenge the character or very existence of the state Building upon the anthropological premises of holism and cross cultural comparison this volume shows how violent challenges to existing states should be conceptualized as layered problems with multiple kinds of causes It not only goes beyond the ancient hatreds explanation but shows the inadequacy of the concept of ethnic violence and of theories which treat interests and identities as separate sometimes opposed variables Fair Trade and a Global Commodity Peter Luetchford,2007-11-20 Fair trade is widely regarded as a universal good This fascinating anthropological study takes a closer look at a coffee growing community and cooperatives in Costa Rica and subjects the fair trade movement to critical scrutiny As with conventional coffee Western demand for organic fair trade produce is largely met by more affluent individuals with larger landholdings As a result it is caught up in the conflicts of interest and resentments that are part of the coffee industry as a whole Ultimately fair trade fails to escape divisions that characterise other forms of production and consumption All growers are united in their criticism of the high margins accumulated by regional and transnational processors and exporters Sustainability just rewards and social cohesion have formed part of the world view of these agricultural communities for decades This book shows how there is much common ground between the worlds of the commodity grower and the priorities of the fair trade movement if not necessarily always in the ways we might suppose Comparative Perspectives on Afro-Latin America Kwame Dixon,John Burdick,2012-03-11 Comparative Perspectives on Afro Latin America offers a new dynamic discussion of the experience of blackness and cultural difference black political mobilization and state responses to Afro Latin activism throughout Latin America Its thematic organization and holistic approach set it apart as the most comprehensive and up to date survey of these populations and the issues they face currently available Anthropologica, 2003 Indigenous Screen Cultures in Canada Sigurjon Baldur Hafsteinsson, Marian Bredin, 2010-09-01 Indigenous media challenges the power of the state erodes communication monopolies and illuminates government threats to Indigenous cultural social economic and political sovereignty Its effectiveness in these areas however is hampered by government control of broadcast frequencies licensing and legal limitations over content and ownership Indigenous Screen Cultures in Canada explores key questions surrounding the power and suppression of Indigenous narrative and representation in contemporary Indigenous media Focussing primarily on the Aboriginal Peoples Television Network the authors also examine Indigenous language broadcasting in radio television and film Aboriginal journalism practices audience creation within and beyond Indigenous communities the roles of program scheduling and content acquisition policies in the decolonization process the roles of digital video technologies and co production agreements in Indigenous filmmaking and the emergence of Aboriginal cyber communities The Success of India's Democracy Atul Kohli, 2001-09-06 How has democracy taken root in India in the face of a low income economy widespread poverty illiteracy and immense ethnic diversity Atul Kohli brings together some of the world s leading scholars of Indian politics to consider this intriguing anomaly They do so by focusing not so much on socio economic factors but rather on the ways in which power is distributed in India Two processes have guided the negotiation of power conflicts First a delicate balance has been struck between the forces of centralization and decentralization and second the interests of the powerful in society have been served without excluding those on the margins These themes are addressed by the editor in his introduction which is followed by an essay on the historical origins of Indian democracy and two sections one on the consolidation of democratic institutions and the other on the forces which motivate or inhibit democratic growth Democracy Works Torry D. Dickinson, Terrie A. Becerra, Summer B.C. Lewis, 2015-12-03 Throughout the world from the United States to Tanzania Chechnya and Sri Lanka people increasingly work together and take actions to improve their lives end inequality and change global society Action groups and movements see dialogue and learning as important ways to extend democracy and with their inclusiveness remake society By putting strategy with theory local groups and movements are able to begin making changes in civil society and institutions that allow people to begin living in new ways Written for activists people and students interested in change this book takes readers on a journey of discovery as it shows how various groups have brought theory and action together to make urban rural and transnational change The case studies and explanatory articles reveal how feminist antiracist ecological and peace movements reinforce each other to initiate and achieve well placed and enduring change Local Actions Melissa Checker, Maggie Fishman, 2004 Activism is alive and well in the United States according to Melissa Checker and Maggie Fishman It exists on large and small scales and thrives in unexpected places Finding activism in backyards art classes and urban areas branded as ghettos these anthropologists explore the many routes people take to work toward social change Ten absorbing studies present activist groups across the country from transgender activists in New York City to South Asian teenagers in Silicon Valley to evangelical Christians and Palestinian Americans Each one examines a social change effort as it unfolds on the ground Through their anthropological approach these portraits of American society suggest the inherent possibilities in identity based organizing and offer crucial in depth perspectives on such hotly debated topics as multiculturalism and the culture wars the environment racism public education Native American rights and the Christian right Moving far beyond the walls of academia the contributors address the complex issues that arise when researchers have stakes in the subjects they study Scholars can play multiple roles in the activist struggles they recount and these essays illustrate how ethnographic research itself can become a tool for activism

Live from Dar Es Salaam Alex Perullo, 2011-10-27 When socialism collapsed in Tanzania the government controlled music industry gave way to a vibrant independent music scene Alex Perullo explores the world of the bands music distributors managers and clubs that attest to the lively and creative music industry in Dar es Salaam Perullo examines the formation of the city's music economy considering the means of musical production distribution protection broadcasting and performance He exposes both legal and illegal strategies for creating business opportunities employed by entrepreneurs who battle government restrictions and give flight to their musical aspirations This is a singular look at the complex music landscape in one of Africa's most dynamic cities

Base Encounters Elisabeth Schober, 2016-04-20 Base Encounters explores the social friction that US bases have caused in South Korea where the entertainment districts next to American military installations have come under much scrutiny The Korean peninsula is one of the most heavily militarised regions in the world and the conflict between the North and South is continually exacerbated by the presence of nearly 30 000 US soldiers in the area Crimes committed in GI entertainment areas have been amplified by an outraged public as both a symbol for and a symptom of the uneven relationship between the United States and the small East Asian nation Elisabeth Schober's ethnographic history scrutinises these controversial zones in and near Seoul Sharing the lives of soldiers female entertainers and anti base activists she gives a comprehensive introduction to the social economic and political factors that have contributed to the tensions over US bases in South Korea

Media Worlds Faye D. Ginsburg, Lila Abu-Lughod, Brian Larkin, 2002-10-23 This landmark collection maps and motivates the anthropological voice in media studies by locating the media in worlds of practice sentiment debate and dissent Using such vivid examples as the image management of the Dalai Lama and the social organization of Nigerian cinema theatres the authors remind us that media machineries are not more magical than the social worlds they inhabit and project

Back cover Cultural Logics and Global Economies Edward F. Fischer, 2010-01-01 A Choice Outstanding Academic Book 2002 As ideas goods and people move with increasing ease and speed across national boundaries and geographic distances the economic changes and technological advances that enable this globalization are also paradoxically contributing to the balkanization of states ethnic groups and special interest movements Exploring how this process is playing out in Guatemala this book presents an innovative synthesis of the local and global factors that have led Guatemala's indigenous Maya peoples to assert and defend their cultural identity and distinctiveness within the dominant Hispanic society. Drawing on recent theories from cognitive studies, interpretive ethnography, and political economy, Edward F. Fischer looks at individual Maya activists and local cultures as well as changing national and international power relations to understand how ethnic identities are constructed and expressed in the modern world. At the global level, he shows how structural shifts in international relations have opened new venues of ethnic expression for Guatemala's majority Maya population. At the local level, he examines the processes of identity construction in two Kaqchikel Maya towns, Tecpán and Patzún, and shows how divergent local norms result in different conceptions and expressions of Mayanness, which nonetheless share certain fundamental similarities with the larger pan-Maya project. Tying these levels of analysis together, Fischer argues that open-ended Maya cultural logics condition the ways in which Maya individuals, national leaders, and rural masses alike creatively express their identity in a rapidly changing world.
