Between Two Worlds Roxana Saberi, 2010-03-30 Between Two Worlds is an extraordinary story of how an innocent young woman got caught up in the current of political events and met individuals whose stories vividly depict human rights violations in Iran Shirin Ebadi winner of the Nobel Peace Prize Between Two World is the harrowing chronicle of Iranian American journalist Roxana Saberi's imprisonment in Iran as well as a penetrating look at Iran and its political tensions Here for the first time is the full story of Saberi's arrest and imprisonment which drew international attention as a cause célèbre from Barack Obama Hillary Clinton and leaders across the globe

Iran Abbas Amanat, 2017-10-24 A masterfully researched and compelling history of Iran from 1501 to 2009 This history of modern Iran is not a survey in the conventional sense but an ambitious exploration of the story of a nation It offers a revealing look at how events people and institutions are shaped by currents that sometimes reach back hundreds of years The book covers the complex history of the diverse societies and economies of Iran against the background of dynastic changes revolutions civil wars foreign occupation and the rise of the Islamic Republic Abbas Amanat combines chronological and thematic approaches exploring events with lasting implications for modern Iran and the world Drawing on diverse historical scholarship and emphasizing the twentieth century he addresses debates about Iran's culture and politics Political history is the driving narrative force given impetus by Amanat's decades of research and study He layers the book with discussions of literature music and the arts ideology and religion economy and society and cultural identity and heritage

Iran's Ministry of Intelligence Steven R. Ward, 2024 Steven R Ward has written an introduction to Iran's shadowy Ministry of Intelligence MOIS MOIS is Iran's primary intelligence agency and focuses on tracking and countering domestic dissent and foreign inspired sedition Its organizational ethos emphasizes combating foreign influence and covert action to protect national identity and solidarity adding the cultural realm to its intelligence mission The ministry's checkered record of effective intelligence operations includes a history of assassinations and human rights abuses Iran established the

MOIS under the executive branch for accountability to the law and subordination to its system of elected and unelected rulers MOIS missions overlap with other parts of Iran's expansive security apparatus especially the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps IRGC which often overshadows the Ministry of Intelligence Nonetheless the ministry maintains a leading role in coordinating the multiple security organizations activities and helps balance the system by serving as a check on IRGC power This accessible book is intended for students of intelligence studies national security practitioners and general readers

Iranian Foreign Policy Since 2001 Thomas Juneau, Sam Razavi, 2013-07-24 Examining Iranian foreign policy with a focus on the years since 2001 this book analyses the defining feature of Iran's international and regional posture its strategic loneliness and the implications of this for the Islamic Republic's foreign policy Iranian Foreign Policy since 2001 offers an in depth analysis of the key drivers behind Iran's foreign policy power strategic culture and ideology In addition the authors examine Iran's relations with key countries and regions including its often tenuous relations with China Russia and America as well as its bilateral relations with non state actors such as Hezbollah The common thread running throughout the volume is that Iran is alone in the world regardless of its political manoeuvres the Islamic Republic's regional and international posture is largely one of strategic loneliness Assimilating contributions from the US Canada Europe and Iran this book provides an international perspective both at the theoretical and practical levels and is essential reading for those with an interest in Middle Eastern Politics International Relations and Political Science more broadly A Social History of Iranian Cinema, Volume 4 Hamid Naficy, 2011 In the fourth and final volume of A History of Iranian Cinema Hamid Naficy looks at the extraordinary efflorescence in Iranian film and other visual media since the Islamic Revolution The Unfinished Revolution Minky Worden, 2012-07-04 CUSTOMERS IN NORTH AMERICA COPIES ARE AVAILABLE FROM WWW SEVENSTORIES.COM Women's rights have progressed significantly in the last two decades but major challenges remain in order to end global gender discrimination The unfinished revolution Voices from the global fight for women's rights outlines the recent history of the battle to secure basic rights for women and girls including in the Middle East where the hopes raised by the Arab Spring are yet to be fulfilled This anthology opens with a foreword by Christiane Amanpour and features essays by more than 30 writers activists policymakers and human rights experts including Nobel laureates Shirin Ebadi and Jody Williams Most important are contributions from women who have fought against human rights abuses and have become agents of change Contributors propose new workable solutions to ongoing rights violations including human trafficking and harmful traditional practices such as child marriage and female genital mutilation As a whole the book shows that the struggle for women's equality is far from over and is essential reading for everyone involved in the fight to realise the full potential for half the world's population A Social History of Iranian Cinema, Volume 3 Hamid Naficy, 2011 Covering the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first and addressing documentaries popular genres and art films this four volume set explains Iran's peculiar cinematic production modes as well as the role of cinema and media in shaping modernity

The Literature of the Iranian Diaspora Sanaz Fotouhi, 2022-08-25 The 1979 Revolution in Iran caused the migration of millions of Iranians many of whom wrote and are still writing of their experiences Formed at the junctions of Iranian culture English language and Western cultures this body of work has not only formed a unique literary space offering an insightful reflection of Iranian diasporic experiences and its shifting nature but it has also been making a unique and understudied contribution to World Literatures in English as significant as Indian African and Asian writing in English Sanaz Fotouhi here traces the origins of the emerging body of diasporic Iranian literature in English and uses these origins to examine the socio political position and historical context from which they have emerged Fotouhi brings together introduces and analyses for the first time a significant range of diasporic Iranian writers alongside each other and alongside other diasporic literatures in English While situating this body of work through existing theories such as postcolonialism Fotouhi sheds new light on the role of Iranian literature and culture in Western literature by showing that these writings distinctively reflect experiences unique to the Iranian diaspora Analysing the relationship between Iranians and their new surroundings by drawing on theories of migration narration and identity Fotouhi examines how the literature borne out of the Iranian diaspora reconstructs maintains and negotiates their Individual and communal identities and reflects today s socio political realities This book will be vital for researchers of Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West as well as those interested in the cultural history of the Middle East

The Palgrave Handbook of Mass Dictatorship Paul Corner, Jie-Hyun Lim, 2016-09-22 This book offers a fresh and original approach to the study of one of the dominant features of the twentieth century Adopting a truly global approach to the realities of modern dictatorship this handbook examines the multiple ways in which dictatorship functions both for the rulers and for the ruled and draws on the expertise of more than twenty five distinguished contributors coming from European American and Asian universities While confronting the immense complexities of repression and popular response under dictatorship the volume also poses a series of wide ranging questions about the political organization of present day mass society

Here She Is Hilary Levey Friedman, 2020-08-25 A fresh exploration of American feminist history told through the lens of the beauty pageant world Many predicted that pageants would disappear by the 21st century Yet they are thriving America's most enduring contest Miss America celebrates its 100th anniversary in 2020 Why do they persist In Here She Is Hilary Levey Friedman reveals the surprising ways pageants have been an empowering feminist tradition She traces the role of pageants in many of the feminist movement's signature achievements including bringing women into the public sphere helping them become leaders in business and politics providing increased educational opportunities and giving them a voice in the age of MeToo Using her unique perspective as a NOW state president daughter to Miss America 1970 sometimes pageant judge and scholar Friedman explores how pageants became so deeply embedded in American life from their origins as a P T Barnum spectacle at the birth of the suffrage movement through Miss Universe's bathing beauties to the talent and achievement based competitions of today She looks at how pageantry has morphed into culture everywhere from The Bachelor and RuPaul's Drag Race to cheer and specialized contests like those for children Indigenous women and contestants with disabilities Friedman also acknowledges the damaging and unrealistic expectations pageants place on women in society and discusses the controversies including Miss America's ableist and racist history Trump's ownership of the Miss Universe Organization and the death of child pageant winner JonBenét Ramsey Presenting a more complex narrative than what's been previously portrayed Here She Is shows that as American women continue to evolve so too will beauty pageants

Women Write Iran Nima Naghibi, 2016-05-01 Women Write Iran is the first full length study on life narratives by Iranian women in the diaspora Nima Naghibi investigates auto biographical narratives across genres including memoirs documentary films prison testimonials and graphic novels and finds that they are tied together by the experience of the 1979 Iranian revolution as a traumatic event and by a powerful nostalgia for an idealized past Naghibi is particularly interested in writing as both an expression of memory and an assertion of human rights She discovers that writing life narratives contributes to the larger enterprise of righting historical injustices By drawing on the empathy of the reader spectator witness Naghibi contends life narratives offer the possibilities of connecting to others and responding with an increased commitment to social justice The book opens with an examination of how the widely circulated video footage of the death of Neda Agha Soltan on the streets of Tehran in June 2009 triggered the articulation of life narratives by diasporic Iranians It concludes with a discussion of the prominent place of the 1979 revolution in these narratives Throughout the focus is on works that have become popular in the West such as Marjane Satrapi's best selling graphic novel Persepolis Naghibi addresses the significant questions raised by these works How do we engage with human rights and social justice as readers in the West How do these narratives draw our attention and elicit our empathic reactions And what is our responsibility as witnesses to trauma atrocity and human suffering
