The Hunger Winter Henri A. Van Der Zee,1998-01-01 Germany invaded the Netherlands in the spring of 1940 Life in occupied Holland was hideous enough but for the Dutch the worst was yet to come After the Western Allies lost the Battle of Arnhem in September 1944 the Dutch provinces north of the Rhine and Waal Rivers were in the hands of the Germans and to the south fighting raged for months In the winter of 1944 45 just as other parts of Europe were being liberated the Dutch seemed forsaken by the Allies who bypassed Holland on their drive to Berlin That last winter of the war with its severe food and fuel shortages was a terrible one for the Dutch people who also suffered from episodes of Nazi terrorism In some provinces there was nothing to eat but tulip bulbs and sugar beets and eighteen thousand Dutch civilians actually starved to death Henri van der Zee who was ten years old that winter remembers what happened to his people Seeking Peace in the Wake of War Stefan-Ludwig Hoffmann,Peter Romijn,Sandrine Kott,Olivier Wieviorka,2025-10-01 When the Second World War ended Europe was in ruins Yet politically and socially the years between 1943 and 1947 were a time of dramatic reconfigurations which proved to be foundational for the making of today s Europe This volume hones in on the crucial period from the beginning of the end of Nazi rule in Europe to the advent of the Cold War Through a series of interrelated case studies that span the entire continent it demonstrates how the everyday experiences of Europeans during these five years shaped the transition of their societies from war to peace The authors explore these reconfigurations on different scales and levels the local and regional the ethnic and national and the international with the purpose of enhancing our understanding of how wars end Ontstolen jeugd Carel E.H.J. Verhoef,2022-09-12 Aan het gelukkige vredige en onbezorgde wereldje van een zesjarige jongen in Amsterdam kwam op 10 mei 1940 door de Duitse inval in ons land een abrupt en definitief einde

Er begon een oorlog waardoor zijn leven ingrijpend zou veranderen Wat doet zo n oorlog met je In hoeverre blijf je nog kind in die omstandigheden Hoe reageer je op wat er om je heen gebeurt en wat zijn de gevolgen voor je verdere leven Carel Verhoef 1933 beschrijft met grote opmerkzaamheid en op sobere wijze hoe het was om de oorlog en met name de evacuatie na de Slag om Arnhem mee te maken Zijn verhaal is geen dagboek van wat hij in Amsterdam Arnhem en elders heeft beleefd maar een indringende weergave van zijn persoonlijke herinneringen ingepast in de historische context en vergezeld van de reflecties van een 88 jarige In plaats van onbezorgde jeugdijaren met schoolreisjes en leuke feestjes te beleven werden hij en zijn leeftijdgenoten al heel jong geconfronteerd met zaken die deel uitmaakten van een systeem van geweld en vernietiging

Coping with Hunger and Shortage under German Occupation in World War II Tatjana Tönsmeier, Peter Haslinger, Agnes Laba, 2018-06-22 This volume demonstrates how German expansion in the Second World War II led to shortages of food and other necessities including medicine for the occupied populations causing many to die from severe hunger or starvation While the various chapters look at a range of topics the main focus is on the experiences of ordinary people under occupation their everyday life and how this quickly became dominated by the search for supplies and different strategies to fight scarcity The book discusses various such strategies for surviving increasingly catastrophic circumstances ranging from how people dealt with rationing systems to the use of substitute products and recycling barter black marketeering and smuggling and even survival prostitution In addressing examples from Norway to Greece and from France to Russia this volume offers the first pan European perspective on the history of shortage malnutrition and hunger resulting from the war occupation and aggressive German exploitation policies De Maasgouw, 2002 General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1968 Brinkman's cumulatieve catalogus van boeken, 1997 Voorts een alfabetische lijst van Nederlandsche boeken in België uitgegeven Germany and the Second World War, 1990 Volume VII of the Germany and the Second World War series looks at Germany and her Japanese ally on the defensive after the tide of war turned in 1943 An exhaustive study of the air war over the Reich and the Luftwaffe's growing impotence is followed by an account of the invasion of occupied France and the Allies advance to Germany's borders A final section examines Japan's defeat and capitulation and the creation of a new order in the Far East Bijdragen en mededelingen betreffende de geschiedenis der Nederlanden, 1996 The Hunger Winter Ingrid de Zwarte, 2020-07-23 In this pioneering study Ingrid de Zwarte examines the causes and demographic impact of the Dutch Hunger Winter that occurred in the Netherlands during the final months of German occupation in the Second World War She offers a comprehensive and multifaceted view of the socio political context in which the famine emerged and considers how the famine was confronted at different societal levels including the responses by Dutch German and Allied state institutions affected households and local communities Contrary to highly politicized assumptions she argues that the famine resulted from a culmination of multiple transportation and distribution difficulties Although Allied relief was postponed for many crucial months and official rations fell far below

subsistence level successful community efforts to fight the famine conditions emerged throughout the country She also explains why German authorities found reasons to cooperate and allow relief for the starving Dutch With these explorations The Hunger Winter offers a radically new understanding of the Dutch famine and provides a valuable insight into the strategies and coping mechanisms of a modern society facing catastrophe Bevrijding van Nederland, 1944-1945 B. Koning,1960 Atlas der algemene en vaderlandse geschiedenis B. A. Vermaseren,1966 Kleine schoolatlas der algemene en vaderlandse geschiedenis Resistance in Western Europe Bob Moore,2000-08-01 This book is the first comprehensive survey of resistance movements in Western Europe in World War II Until now most work on resistance has centred either on espionage networks partisans and their external links or on comparisons between national movements and theories of resistance This book fills a major gap in the existing literature by providing an analysis of individual national historiographies on resistance the debates they have engendered and their relationship to more general discussions of the occupation and postwar reconstruction of the countries concerned Explaining the context underlying motivations and development of resistance contributors analyze the variety of movements and organizations as well as the extent of individual acts against the occupying power within individual states While charting the growth of resistance activity as the war turned against the Axis this book will also deal with the roles of specific groups and the theories which have been put forward to explain their behaviour This includes patterns of Jewish resistance and the participation of women in what has largely been considered a male sphere The conclusion then provides a comparative synthesis and relates the work of the contributors to existing theories on the subject as a whole This book will not only be core reading on courses on the social or military history of World War II but also more generally all courses covering the social and political history of Western European states in the twentieth century
