Beyond Educide Sanctions Occupation And The Struggle For Higher Education In Iraq:

Higher Education and Post-Conflict Recovery Sansom Milton, 2017-12-07 This book offers a critical review of higher education and post conflict recovery It provides the first systematic study with a global scope that investigates the role of higher education systems in conflict affected contexts The first part of the book analyses the long standing neglect of higher education in post conflict recovery the impact that conflict can have on the sector and efforts to rebuild and reform higher education systems affected by violent conflict The second part of the book considers the positive and negative contributions that higher education can make to a range of areas of recovery including humanitarian action forced displacement post conflict reconstruction statebuilding and peacebuilding With its reasoned defence of the importance of higher education for post conflict recovery the book will appeal to researchers university students and humanitarian and development policy makers and practitioners

Book of the Disappeared Jennifer Heath, Ashraf Zahedi, 2023-05-30 Book of the Disappeared confronts worldwide human rights violations of enforced disappearance and genocide and explores the global quest for justice with forceful outstanding contributions by respected scholars expert practitioners and provocative contemporary artists This profoundly humane book spotlights our historic inhumanity while offering insights for survival and transformation

Militias, States and Violence against Civilians Paul Lorenzo Johnson, William Wittels, 2023-04-21 This book examines the conditions under which the presence and use of militias result in an increase or a decrease in violence against civilians in intra state conflicts Showcasing the breadth and diversity of modern militias in the context of violence against civilians the volume addresses the predation and repression that many such groups are infamous for as well as increasingly important efforts by other militias at civilian protection in war torn settings The chapters examine militias from around the world drawing on both qualitative and quantitative methods as they cover groups as varied as gangs death squads grassroots community defense groups official state militias and party sponsored armies groups on the civic vice side the civic virtue side and the wide and mixed in between space where most cases fall Taken as a cohesive unit the work lays the foundation for an encompassing theory and interrogation of the causal chain between militia type and operating context and the levels of violence against civilians It provides path breaking theory building and empirical scholarship Policymakers and national security practitioners dealing with issues relating to armed groups will also benefit from the practical issues covered here such as how different forms of sponsorship and training affect militia behavior This book will be of interest to students of civil wars political violence counterinsurgency civil military relations and security studies in general

Four Dead in Ohio Johanna Solomon, 2021-07-06 This Special Issue of Research in Social Movements Conflicts and Change reflects upon global student and youth activism 50 years after the shooting of student activists protesting against the US wars in SE Asia at Kent State University providing the needed space for the narratives of those who have fought and continue to fight for change
